SOCIETY NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondents

The birthday of Mrs. C. P. Moody was the motive for a surprise party in her honor Wednesday evening and after the guests arrived they discovered that it was also the birthday of the honor guest's young son, Cedric, and also the second wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. F. Buford Morris, who were among the guests. Progressive 500 was played at three tables and vocal and instrumental music added to the pleasure of the evening. Later a two course lunch was served at the small tables.

Those enjoying this pleasant evening were Mr. C. M. Moody of Harrisburg, and Messrs and Mesdames Buford Morris, Charles G.

Hamer, Frank G. Gansle, Harold Muller, H. F. Lake, D. C. Rossman, and C. P. Moody, and Leila Gansle, Jimmie and Waneta Hamer and Cedric and Corlea Moody.

Mrs. Florence Leeper was hostess at a birthday dinner Tuesday in honor of Mary LaRue and Harry Leeper, whose birthdays occurred on that day. Dinner was served at 12 o'clock, places being marked at the prettily appointed table for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leeper, Elsie Reynolds, John LaRue, Francis Leeper, the two honor guests and the hostess.

Friday afternoon Mrs. Kar. Bramwell extended the hospitality of her home to the members of the Past Noble Grand club. The social hour was preceded by a short business session. The members of the club brought their aprons at this time for the apron sale which will be held at the Koontz store Saturday. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in conversation and fancy work.

Late in the afternoon the hostess served a two course luncheon to her guests at a prettily appointed table in the dining room. Baskets of Easter eggs formed the table decorations. Mrs. Hettie Sailor of Albany and Mrs. Mae Miller assisted the hostess in serving. Fifteen members were present. Mrs. Sailor was a complimented guest. The next meeting of the club will be held April 27, when the members will be guests of Mrs. Bert Clark.

Last Sunday Mrs. Florence Leeper entertained a group of relatives at dinner. Those present were Mrs. M. M. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Bramwell and children, Donald, Lyndon and Roberta, and Francis Leeper of Halsey, Mrs. Hettie Sailor of Seattle and E. G. Ward and Ferris Ward of Eugene.

FAYETTEVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Margason entertained at a birthday dinner a week ago Sunday in honor of their son Donald, and Mr. Margason's sister, Mrs. Ethel Haverland's birthdays. Enjoying this pleasant affair were Mrs. Mary Margason, E. A. Haverland, Rita, Alda and Vernita Haverland, Georgie Ward (Portland), Doris and June Margason, the two honor guests and the host and hostess.

PINE GROVE

Mrs. Ray Hoover entertained the members of the Kroweldeen club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Conversation and sewing were pleasant diversions for several hours and at the close of the afternoon the hostess served delicious refreshments.

LAKE CREEK

Last Wednesday afternoon the members of the Lake Creek and Busey club met at the country home of Mrs. Robert Bilyeu, with 15 present for the afternoon. The Easter idea was carried out in the various contest games, with prizes being won by Mrs. Thomas Ardry, Mrs. Emmett Cook and Mrs. John Evans. Late in the afternoon a bountiful and delicious lunch was served by the hostess. Mrs. Mae Evans and Edith Bilyeu assisted about the rooms and in serving.
