"SUNSHINE AND WARMER" TOO MUCH FOR TRAPMEN

Perfect Day Makes a Clean Score and Gunmen Slump

With perfect weather and the bees droning among the blossoms of the nearby orchard and field mice playing hide and seek among the empty gun shells, Towser out in the adjoining field digging out a gopher, robin redbreast chirking sweet music to his cutie; oh what's the use of mentioning any more distracting things, enough has been said already and anyone who is acquainted with Oregon spring days knows that such a time is not conducive to good marksmanship.

A spirit of live and let live was not only felt but practiced and the only man of the gun club membership whose nature was awry with this spirit was C. H. Morris who tore into the little harmless pigeons for a 25 straight, C. P. Moody and Frank Gansle both wavered long enough for a miss each and the end of a perfect day was not to be.

Drinkard, Norton, Cross, Fuller, Hover, who usually are strong on getting all of them, listened too long to mother nature and let one or two go.

During the day some good work was done by different members of the club. Tom Hover shattered 28 out of a possible 24 in a double event and C. P. Moody hung up a score of 49 out of a possible 50 in his first two strings.

The club maintains its percentage standing.
