SOCIETY NOTES

with the subject she displayed a number of drawings and pictures obtained from the state library. It was decided during the business session that the club members would serve a lunch on election day. $100 raised during the year as part of the pledge for the community hall was deposited. Fifteen members answered roll call with current events. Mrs. Mary Irving of Portland was a complimented guest.

At four o'clock the hostess invited her guests to the dining room. Small Chinese parasols were used for table decorations, with a miniature lake forming the centerpiece. The place cards were small Chinese ladies and were the handwork of the hostess. Noodles, creamed chicken, salad, wafers, Chinese nuts and tea was served.

Mrs. Elmer Lake, of Salem, who was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Buford Morris last week was the honor guest at a "shower" at the Morris home on Friday evening with the guest list made up of former Albany friends. One of the diversions of the evening was an Easter egg hunt by the honor guest who instead of finding eggs, found many daintily wrapped packages containing both pretty and useful gifts. Conversation and music were other diversions. The hostess served a delicious lunch at small tables late in the evening. Each table was decorated in keeping with the Easter spirit. The place cards were in the form of small chicks.

The invitation list included Mesdames Asa Eastburn, Roy Eastburn, Kenneth Payne, Ross Douglas, B. Peebler J. A. Lawrenson, and F. M. Clinton and the Misses Margaret Hurst, Helen Thompson, Lucile Lawrenson, Ellen and Jean Baker and Thyra Peebler, all of Albany, Mesdames M. B. Cole and Kenneth Coburn of Eugene, and Mesdames Harold Muller and Fayette Lake of Halsey.

The members of the Gypsy Rover Camp Cookery club met at the home of their leader, F. Buford Morris, last evening. The boys are progressing rapidly and are now making biscuits. They plan to make a demonstration on achievement day. The personnel of the club is Buford Moss president, Cedric Moody vice president, Kenneth Workinger secretary, Charles Reeves and Arthur Moss.
