PIANO RECITAL FRIDAY NIGHT WAS MOST SUCCESSFUL

The piano recital by the pupils of Mrs. Jess Cross given at the Christian church last Friday night enjoyed an audience that taxed the seating and standing capacity of the building and brought us again to the fact that an adequate meeting place for all community gatherings is sadly needed in Halsey.

With beautiful plants and flowers, lamps and three pianos, the rostrum presented a pleasing sight from the auditorium and as the program began the assembly room was darkened thus producing a soft light glow from the several floor lamps on the rostrum to fall on charming costumes and pleasing faces of the performers.

Each number was greeted with enthusiastic applause and in every instance it was merited. The work of the instructor made itself plain throughout the recital and was of high technical order. The duets, trios and quartets were very good, as was also the numbers in which nine and twelve pupils performed ensemble.

Clever costumes appropriate to the title of selections rendered, was cleverly carried out in the rudimentary part of the program.

OUR NEW GRADUATES

EACH year we have the pleasure of welcoming into business and social life a new group of young folks who have just completed their high school education.

These graduates bring into active being an added impetus, a new life force that carries onward with force that none can deny, the business and the social activities of the community.

Each line of endeavor into which this new energy is injected feels the onward urge and in the strides of progress made, shows the great value to the community at large which this vital force brings.

Youth-power, as exemplified by the new graduates from our schools, is the basic hope of this community's future growth and prosperity.

"The Shepherd of the Hills" Will Be Shown Here Next Tuesday

Out of the pages that have thrilled millions come Harold Bell Wright's famous characters—to love—to move along "the trail that is nobody knows how old", to the peak of thrill-packed romance.

This will be a treat for Halsey movie fans, the finest story of your best liked author, plus the peerless beauty-spot of the West, plus a cast of screen favorites that find each character exactly as you pictured it. This wonderful picture is secured for Halsey by Mr. E. L. Dorman at quite an added expense. It is yet a first-run production. No doubt it is the most talked of photo play ever produced.

Odd Fellows Attend Convention

Last Saturday evening a number of the members of the Odd Fellows lodge of Halsey attended the tenth semi-annual convention of the organization of the Linn-Benton district.

The convention convened at 2 o'clock in the afternoon with the usual routine of business following. At 6 o'clock a banquet was served in the Artisan hall during which special music was rendered by the Halsey orchestra and a solo by Miss Marjorie Walker.

In the evening a good program was given. The Halsey orchestra furnished several numbers. The address of the evening was made by Rev. P. M. Blenkinsop of Portland.

Those present from Halsey for the program and banquet were Miss Adah Nelson, Fred Robins, L. D. Taylor, A. E. Whitbeck, and Messrs and Mesdames F. G. Gansle, C. G. Hamer, B. M. Bond, Jess Cross, C. P. Moody, A. A. Tussing and Karl Bramwell.

AIRPLANE MAKES LANDING HERE WITH EASE, FRIDAY

A. F. Shere and Frank Kamner, flying an Alexander Aeroplane Co. machine, landed in a field adjoining the east city limits last Friday afternoon. A valve sticking was the cause of the forced landing which was accomplished with the greatest of ease and comfort.

After a moment of lubricating the valve they again took to the air and resumed their journey south. They pronounced the field in which they landed as an ideal landing field and with little expense could be made perfect and to enhance its desirability it is in direct line with the north and south airway.

Oakville Farmers Install Modern Sanitation

Septic tanks are among the modern improvements that are being added to rural homes in this neighborhood. Several have been installed during the past few months. One at the home of Donald Davis was completed last week.
