Good Acting Brought Out by Good Coaching Makes Play Enjoyable

seated by the pupils of the Halsey Friday night, was well received. A fair house responded to the invitations sent out by Aaron but made up in enthusiasm, what was lacking in number, of the efforts of the students, who with him, put on an excellent evening's entertain-

The work and ability of the dramatic instructor, Miss Gladys McCornack, member of the high school faculty, showed plainly in every position, gesture, and character portrayal of those in the cast events will be the rifle relay races, and the parts assigned.

"Aaron Bogge, Freshman," the title character, by Herman Koontz, was a typical unsophisticated lad right from the rural district."Happy Jimmie Jamieson' a difficult part, was admirably handled by Charles Wright who shows unusual ability in impersonation. "Beau Carter' and "Pepper Jervis" two students with more thought for college life than knowledge, were ably portrayed by Richard Hussey and Keith Hayes.

"Epenetus Boggs" characterized by Ellsworth Gardner was good as the Halsey Women's study club also that of "Mr. Chubb" by John Miller. "Casey Jones, a college politician, played by Mac McCord, was ably handled and some day Mac will be one of our leading political bosses.

"Second Hand Abey" by Henry Kirk did not fail to register applause and "Elyzabethe Maudelia Feeny," by Nellie Falk, was very well done, "Mrs. Chubb" and "Mrs. Pickens,"the two boardinghouse keepers, Lucille Phelps and Frances Norton, aired college gossip in real boarding house style. belle, was the part given to Bessie Reynolds who filled the position with good acting. "Lois Hunter," a girl's friend, by Ruth Sturtevant, was very nicely portrayed. "Cherry Carruthers," with a changeable heart was that assigned to Muriel Lake and "Loretta Rea" a romantic junior, was assigned to Edith Smith. 'Dollie de Cliffe' a vaudeville queen, was the part carried with honor by Ernestine Coleman.

The stage arrangement for the first act was done in a splendid at her feet. Mrs. Morris was at way and from the auditorium presented a pleasing background for the students. The Halsey orchestra, directed by Miss Adah Nelson, interspersed with catchy music the club with a check for $10. which added to the pleasures of the evening's entertainment.
