SOCIETY NOTES

The King's Herald boys and their leader, Gladys Hadley enjoyed a May day party last Saturday at the Sidney Smith home north west of Halsey. Games were the pastime for the day and at noon a picnic dinner was served on the lawn in the shade of the elm trees.

Tuesday evening Mrs. Buford Morris of Halsey was a guest at a party given by Mrs. Kenneth Payne of Albany at her home in that city. The affair was planned in honor of Mrs. Ed Glover of Morris, Ill., who is visiting in Albany. Mrs. Glover was Helen Powers of Albany before her marriage. A group of former schoolmates composed the party. After several hours spent in conversation and games the hostess served refreshments.

Mrs. Fayette Lake of Halsey attended the last meeting of the year of the Gamma group of the Delphian society Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Guy Lewelling in Albany. A seven o'clock covered dish supper preceded the meeting. For this three small tables were used, each one being centered with a French bouquet.

PINE GROVE

Mrs. Myrtle McNeil entertained the members of the Kroweldeen club at her home near Lake Creek Wednesday afternoon. The early hours of the afternoon were spent in tacking comforts and in visiting. Near the close of the afternoon the hostess served a dainty lunch. Complimented guests for the afternoon were Mrs. H. Hathaway and daughter.

Thursday afternoon the Womens missionary society of the Peoria South Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. E. E. Hoyer for the regular business meeting. An interesting study period was held, and was followed by a social hour.

SPOON RIVER

Miss Doris Howard entertained in honor of her eighth grade pupils

Candy for Her--

A dainty box of any of the popular brands of candies in our well assorted stock would make a most appropriate gift to your best girl—sweetheart or wife.

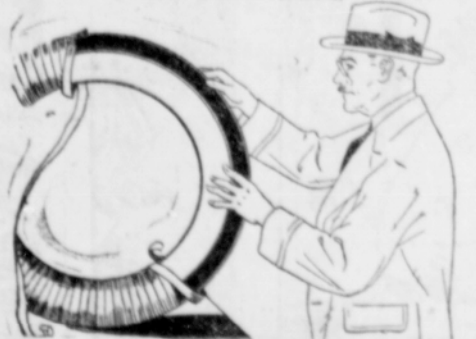

The gift would be doubly acceptable if purchased at Clark's where none but the best is carried in stock.
