SOCIETY NEWS
From Our Regular Correspondents

Friday evening a group of Halsey people drove to Brownsville and enjoyed a picnic and birthday supper at the park. Three large angel food cakes decorated with pink and white candles in varicolored rose holders, were placed in front of the places marked for Master Bobby Morris, F. Buford Morris and H. F. Lake, whose birthdays have occurred recently. After the supper the party sat around the camp fire and sang old time songs.

Those enjoying this pleasant evening were Messrs and Mesdames Morris, Rossman, Moody and Lake and Bobby Morris, Coralea and Cedric Moody and Fern Rossman.

Sunday, Mrs. Fayette Lake entertained at a three o'clock dinner in honor of the thirteenth birthday of her granddaughter, Coenia Goltra. The table was set on the lawn in the shade of lofty maple trees. Narrow streamers of pink and blue crepe paper formed a canopy over the table and led to clever fortune telling place cards. A birthday cake decorated with pink candles in pink and blue rose holders, completed the table decorations. Four generations were represented at the dinner.

Places were marked for Mrs. Mary E. Allan of Halsey, Mrs. Lou Brown of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goltra and Bob Goltra of Albany, H. F. Lake, Muriel Lake, the guest of honor and the hostess.

LAKE CREEK
Mrs. Thomas Ardry was hostess to the members of the L. C. and B. club last Wednesday afternoon. Twenty-three ladies were present to enjoy the pleasant afternoon. The short business session was followed by a social hour with guessing contests as the chief diversion. Prizes were won by Mrs. Dan Peterson and Mrs. Emmett Cook. Later the hostess, assisted by Mesdames Henry Brock and Randal Brock, served refreshments.

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Randal Brock, next Wednesday.

PEORIA
Mrs. Ed Zimmerman was a pleasing hostess of Wednesday afternoon when she entertained the members of the Potter sewing club. Sewing and contests made the hours pass quickly until the serving of refreshments brought the afternoon to a close.

Complimented guests were Mesdames A. Snodgrass, Ellen Zimmerman and Chard Davidson.

PINE GROVE
The home of Mrs. W. D. McLaren was the scene of a delightful lawn party Saturday evening when she entertained members of the Krowldeen club and their families and a number of additional guests. After an evening spent in playing games music by the Pine Grove orchestra was enjoyed and ice cream and cake was served by the hostess.

Halsey Local Briefs
J. C. Bramwell spent Sunday at the McKenzie River sanitarium, with Mrs. Bramwell, who is there for medical treatment. He reports her condition to be about the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Cross and Gladys McCornack were among the Halsey people enjoying the privileges of hearing Schumann-Heink at Eugene Friday evening.

Mrs. P. J. Forster has returned to her home here from the Eugene hospital where she underwent two operations. Mr. Forster desires to thank their many friends here for their help and consideration during her long illness.

C. L. Woodward of Walla Walla was a guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. R. Evans over the week end. He left Halsey Monday morning for Salem and from there would return to his home Tuesday.

Several prominent Rebekahs of the Halsey lodge are attending the grand lodge session at Roseburg this week. Esther Bond and Genevieve Kendall left on Tuesday and Aldie Moody accompanied by Mrs. J. E. Jacobson of Florence, left Wednesday noon.

The chief attraction of Halsey people, both young and old, last Thursday was the Al G. Barnes circus at Albany and a large number attended the performance from here. The numbers were all good and the wild animal acts better than ever.
