

NINE MEMBERS 4-H CLUBS OF THIS DISTRICT AT O.S.C.

Nearly Half the Attendance at O.S.C. From Linn Are Halseyites

Copies 1, 2, 3, and 4 of Volume 1, of the 4-H Club Booster, the official club paper of the summer school at Oregon State Agricultural college, has been received at the Enterprise office, and each number is full of news.

Of the 20 boys and girls from Linn county, nine are from Halsey and all are members of the 4-H clubs participating in the Achievement day program.

They are Eloise Smith, Vivian Frum, and Ione Miller of the Rose Standish sewing club, and Alice Sturtevant of the Daisy sewing club, Harry Harding of the Pollyanna cooking club, Leonard Christensen, Paul Quimby and Edgar Grimes of the Linn county sheep club, and Bruce Harding of the Spoon River bachelor sewing club.

Edgar Grimes was one of the winners last year of a state fair prize.

Thursday of last week room 115 Waldo hall had the honor of being designated as the most tidy on the first floor. This room is occupied by the four girls from Halsey.

Fayetteville Items

(Enterprise Correspondent)

Mary Ellen Spencer is visiting at the T. F. McKinley home.

Mrs. Emma Coon who has been visiting friends and relatives here, returned to her home in Portland, Tuesday.

Mrs. Nancy Bryant and Mrs. Fay Harned of Portland, come up Sunday and are visiting at the H. F. Couey home.

The Spencer, Garwood, McKinley and Shaw families motored to Newport last Saturday returning home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dawson and family of Albany, spent the day at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dawson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Miller and family who have lived at Fayetteville for several years, moved to Corvallis Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nevin McCormick who have been spending their vacation at their farm near Fayetteville, returned to Waterloo Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nitzel and sons, Walter and Henry and daughter, Frances, motored to Independence Sunday to visit Mrs. Nitzel's sister Mrs. John Walker and family.

Miss Margaret Dawson who has been teaching school in Portland, came home Friday evening and started for Los Angeles Tuesday. After visiting there she will go on to Kansas City to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Pimm and children returned from their trip to Yankton and Portland Sunday. Mrs. Pimm's sister, Miss Minnie Stevens underwent a serious operation at a hospital in Portland recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Langfield and two children from Paisley, came down to visit their father, George Windom and brother, Clarence, and family. They took their little son down to Portland to enter the Shriners Hospital.

W. B. Hawley of Cottage Grove spent the past week visiting at the home of his niece Mrs. S. C. Veatch. While here he attended the Pioneer picnic where he met a few old-time neighbors, as he lived in Halsey about 50 years ago, first coming here in 1862, and for a time lived not far from the Center school. Later he moved into Halsey.

Pine Grove Items

(By an Enterprise Reporter)

Mr. Sylvester is painting the Charles Gibson home in Corvallis.

Miss Dan Oldham of Lebanon visited Grace Pehrsson over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Albertson attended the camp meeting at McFarland Sunday.

Ray Hoover and wife were visitors at the Frank McManus home in Jefferson Sunday.

Mrs. George Chandler and Edith Pugh visited their sister, Mrs. Dalton Gibbs, at Albany Wednesday.

A number of people from this vicinity attended the pioneer picnic at Brownsville Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Lida Githens of Corvallis and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coon visited at the A. L. Knighten home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibson and sons and Robert Hoover attended the Jersey sale at Graymere near Marion Tuesday.

Mrs. Fred Sylvester, Mrs. E. E. Hover, Eunice Sylvester and Nora Pehrsson were Eugene visitors Wednesday afternoon.

Georgia Overton, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Ray Hoover, returned to her home in Albany Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Eagy and sons attended the Oakville church Sunday and spent the remainder of the day at the Will Eagy home.

Agnes Chandler spent several days at Albany last week taking the teachers' examinations. While there she was the guest of Persis Hulshus.

At the annual school election Monday evening L. E. Eagy was reelected clerk and John McNeil was elected director to succeed P. A. Pehrsson.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Chandler drove to Corvallis Sunday afternoon, taking Agnes Chandler and Grace Pehrsson there to attend the summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nichols who returned from their wedding trip to Sacramento, Calif., Thursday evening, were given a "rousing" welcome late Friday evening by nearly 100 well wishing friends.

Church Notes

Pine Grove Church

Sunday School 10 a. m.
Preaching at 11 a. m.
Evening service 8 o'clock.
Gilbert Carey will preach both morning and evening.

Methodist:

10 a. m. Sunday school
11:00 a. m. preaching
7:00 Epworth League
Bible study class Tuesdays 2:30
Prayer meeting Thursdays 8:00
Ladies aid every Wednesday
Women's missionary society first Friday of month 2:00 o'clock
J. S. Miller, pastor.

Church of Christ:

10 a. m. Sunday school.
E. A. Starnes is acting as superintendent in the absence of Mr. Robertson. 97 in Sunday school last Sunday. Let's have 100.
11:00 a. m. morning worship and communion service.
Sermon by Mr. Sias; "The Unchanging Christ."
3:30 p. m. meet at church and drive to river for baptismal service.
7:00 p. m. Christian Endeavor.
Thirty present last Sunday evening.
8 p. m. preaching.
Song fest. Sermon topic: "Who Hindered You?" 90 out last Sunday evening. Come again.
C. Adrian Sias, pastor.

Arrangements for the big Linn county community forum picnic at Nye park near Cascadia on the Fourth of July are going forward rapidly, says the Lebanon Express.

HALSEY AND VICINITY BREVITIES

E. A. P. LaFollette is spending a few days at Oakridge on a business trip.

Mrs. J. B. Waggoner was the guest of relatives in Chehalis, Wash. over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Erad Moss and family left on a pleasure trip to eastern Oregon Tuesday.

Rev. Theodore Mitzner left for Salem Tuesday to attend the Trimble seminary this summer.

C. P. Meedy and Carl Hill attended a meeting of the Masonic lodge at Albany Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Armstrong arrived home last Thursday from a trip of a month spent mostly in Montana.

Cecil Quimby of Blachley made a brief call at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Quimby, Monday.

Mrs. Eliza Ewing of South Beach and Charles Goltra and family of Albany, were Sunday visitors at the Lake home.

Mrs. Mionie Crabb of Stockton, Calif. is visiting in Halsey at the home of her brother and sister, John and Mary LaRue.

Mrs. J. C. Bramwell has returned to her home in Halsey from the McKenzie sanatorium where she spent a month in the hope that the change would be beneficial. She seems to be somewhat improved.

Mrs. Stella Blackerby of Salem, arrived here late evening to visit Vine Maple Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft. She was a guest over night at the H. F. Lake home, returning this morning to her home in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Steinke and children of Salem visited at the P. J. Forester home in Halsey Sunday. Blanche Steinke remained here to assist her grandmother for a time and the others returned home Sunday evening.

Hugh Porter and daughter Hildegard of Central Point arrived in Halsey last evening bringing with them the former's mother, Mrs. N. J. Lamb who will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. D. C. Rossman.

The members of the U Go I Go club entertained the members of the Priscilla club of Shedd this afternoon in the Smith grove near Peoria. Numerous contests and games had been planned as part of the entertainment for the afternoon.

Will Corcoran of Portland spent Sunday in Halsey on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Corcoran. He was accompanied by Jack Manrose. The latter is reported to have disposed of his two lots on Second street to D. Taylor.

Charity Grange held the regular meeting Saturday evening with a good number in attendance, considering that a good many had picnicked for about three days last week. About 20 juveniles were in attendance at their session and after their business was closed all enjoyed a weiner roast.

The semi-annual election of officers of Purity Rebekah lodge was held at their meeting last week. Sadie Gansle was reelected noble grand, Alma Homer vice grand, Esther Bond secretary and Estelle Holt treasurer. The other offices are appointive and will be named on installation night next month.

Word has been received in Halsey of the death of Maude Tyler Whitlatch at her home in Modesto, Calif., June 9. Mrs. Whitlatch was a former Coburg girl and is well known in Halsey. She is survived by her father who still lives at Coburg, her husband, Jake Whitlatch, and two sons and a daughter.

Edith Robnett is carrying the mail on Route 2 for Grant Taylor, who is the regular carrier.

Margarite Ward of Albany was the guest of relatives in Halsey Saturday afternoon and Sunday.

Asa Eastburn, wife and two sons of Albany were guests in Halsey Saturday evening at the Morris home.

N. T. Sneed has received word of the death of his brother, Ben Sneed, at his home in St. Louis on June 10.

Clarence Eastburn of Portland is spending a week or two in Halsey at the home of his sister, Mrs. Buford Morris.

D. S. McWilliams and son, Elliott returned Tuesday evening from Portland where they had been on a business trip for the day.

Claude Davidson was elected director and D. S. McWilliams clerk of the Oak Plain school district at the election held June 18. Velma Hadley has been reelected to teach this school next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nicholls are home from their wedding trip to California. They will make their home on the Charles Nicholls farm west of Halsey, while the latter will move his family to town.

The Wheeler building occupied by the Swift cream station on Second street, is being moved several feet north. This was made necessary by the fact that the building was occupying about six feet of the Morris property.

Charles A. Sias, instructor in the Northern Bible college at Pierre, S. Dakota, is in Oregon to spend the summer at the home of his son, C. Adrian Sias of Eugene, and also to become acquainted with his new grand daughter, Mary Maxine Sias, who was born at the Pacific Christian hospital in Eugene June 1. The little miss weighs 8.6 pounds.

Announcements have been received in Halsey of the arrival of a baby boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCaslen of Portland, June 18. This is their first child. The mother is better known as Lillian Sneed the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Sneed of this city. She is a graduate of the Halsey high school and also of the Lenke-Walker business college.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Quimby drove to Corvallis Sunday afternoon accompanying their daughter Irene that far on her way to Monmouth where she will attend summer school. They returned by way of Albany, bringing home with them Mrs. Quimby's nephew Oliver Childers, who will remain through the summer to help with the harvest work. While in Corvallis they visited their son Paul at the summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Zimmerman and June Layton drove to Champoeg Saturday and looked over the old historic grounds. From there they went to Newburg and visited Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Merriam, former Halsey residents, and Monday they visited Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Holdredge who at one time lived near Halsey. They also visited briefly in Yamhill, Carlton, Dayton and McMinnville, returning home Tuesday evening.

The S. C. Veatch family attended the seventh annual picnic of the Veatch clan at Cottage Grove last Sunday, when about 100 assembled from different parts of the state and had a jolly time with a sumptuous dinner as one of the features of the day. In the afternoon a short program was given. One guest of honor and an old friend of many of the clan was "Uncle Jim" Whidford of Forest Grove, who is reputed to be the oldest man in Oregon.

Couple Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Brown Penland

Dr. Hugh Penland who was in Halsey last week to attend the fiftieth wedding anniversary of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias B. Penland, Wednesday, June 13, left by aeroplane, from Eugene, Friday morning for his home in Berkeley, California. The other members of his family returned home by auto later.

During the reception which was held from 2:30 to 5 o'clock a large number of friends called at the Penland home in North Halsey to extend their best wishes to two of Halsey's highly respected citizens. During the afternoon ice cream and cake was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Penland were the recipients of many lovely gifts, among which was a gold plate.

Among the guests present for the dinner and the reception following was Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Penland of Pendleton who celebrated their golden wedding a year ago. E. B. Penland and L. E. Penland are brothers.

Linn Democrats Organize

Organization of the Linn county Democratic central committee was effected at a meeting of the precinct committeemen at the court house in Albany Monday evening.

Henry McElmury of Albany was named chairman of the county organization, Hugh Kirkpatrick, Lebanon, secretary; A. K. McMahon, Albany, state committeeman; George Finley, Crawfordville, congressional committeeman, and C. C. Jackson of Halsey, C. D. Stringer of Crowfoot, C. C. Bryant of Albany, and Albert Windell members of the executive committee.

A New Serial Story

The Enterprise is offering its readers a new serial story "The Red Road" which begins in this issue. We hope you will like it as well as "The Green Cloak" and "Idle Island," both of which won enthusiastic praise from Enterprise readers.

This new story is powerful one of adventure and romance based on the incidents of General Braddock's campaign against Fort Duquesne in 1755. A story all should read. Begin it today.

Do not forget the fried chicken and chicken pie supper given by Peoria and Lake Creek Methodist churches at Smith Grove, one mile north of Peoria, Friday, June 22. Supper will be cafeteria style. A program will be presented by clubs from Albany, Corvallis, Shedd, Harrisburg and Halsey. Ball games, races and other games will be played from 4 to 6. Program at 8:15. Supper at 6 o'clock. Come early.

Volcanoes

A very plausible theory regarding the activity of volcanoes is that the water in the ocean enters an opening in the earth caused by an earthquake, forms gas or steam under great pressure, and finds its outlet through the crater of the volcano which seldom lies far from the sea.

SCHOOL BOARD DISCUSSES QUESTION OF A UNION HIGH

Orin Frum Elected Member of the Board; B. M. Bond Elected Clerk

At the school election held last Monday among other questions arising was that of a union or central high school, a question that has been discussed before but nothing further accomplished.

The question met with support by those present which represented study and thought on such a move and something definite, no doubt, will be done toward accomplishing a consolidation of schools within a given radius of Halsey.

Orin Frum was elected chairman of the board and B. M. Bond was re-elected clerk. Mr. Frum is the new member who was elected for a term of three years.

Bride-to-Be Given Pre-Nuptial Shower Wednesday

Miss Vida Albertson, whose wedding is to be an event of the very near future, was given a pre-nuptial shower Wednesday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Albertson of near Halsey. The members of the Loyal Women's class and the girls of the Christian Endeavor comprised the party. After the many pretty and useful gifts had been admired a two course lunch was served.

Shedd Personals

(Enterprise Correspondence)

Phelda and Elda Stubbs spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hedley Stubbs of Brownsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arnold have returned from a short pleasure trip through eastern Oregon. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Dell Hinson of Oswego.

Mrs. W. H. McConnell was an Albany business visitor Friday.

Mr. Coats is reported to be in a very serious condition at his home in Shedd.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Thompson and family were business visitors in Albany Friday.

The Shedd campfire girls had a call meeting Tuesday afternoon and will have a council fire Friday when all honors will be given.

Leroy. H. Starr Buried in Alford Cemetery June 19th

Leroy H. Star, well known in part of Linn county, and who has been a resident of Eugene for the past 25 years during the greater part of which he practiced dentistry, died last Saturday, June 16, at the home of his brother-in-law, Champ Payne, in Harrisburg.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sophia E. Starr, and by a number of other relatives. He was born Nov. 28, 1854.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, June 19, at 2:30 p. m. at the Methodist Episcopal church at Harrisburg. Dr. J. F. Haas of the M. E. church of Eugene officiating and interment was in Alford cemetery under direction D. C. Rousman, funeral director, of Halsey.

At the recent meeting of the women's missionary society held at the home of Mrs. Sydney Smith the members were pleasantly entertained by Miss Goldie Wells, who gave a delightful talk on her work in Africa and also showed a number of relics and pictures from that country.

W. A. Eastburn and son, Clarence of Albany, are guests at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Buford while Lieut. Morris is attending encampment of O. N. G. at Fort Stevens.