

Speech of Pres. International Bible Students to be Broadcast

Watchtower radio announces another international network broadcast, Aug. 5, 1928, Sunday morning, 9:30 to 11:00 Eastern Standard time, (our time 5:30 to 7:00 a. m.) direct from The Coliseum, Michigan state fair grounds, Detroit. The address of Judge J. F. Rutherford, president International Bible students association, before the principal session of the associations 1928 international convention, will be given unparalleled distribution. To get this address tune in on KEX.

A tremendous wire network, stretching to radio stations in two countries, has been specially arranged for this occasion. American Telephone and Telegraph company, while admitting the strain of this undertaking, is confident that its vast resources of modern equipment and operating personnel will be equal to the task. Scores of stations, located on the beaten path and in the remotest regions of the country, will participate in this record-breaking event. Linked also in this unique radio chain are a number of Canadian stations.
