SOCIETY NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondents

Mrs. W. F. White was a charming hostess of Friday afternoon when she entertained the members of the Thimble club of Vine Maple Circle. Vases filled with gayly colored flowers gave an added touch of brightness to the rooms.

The short business session was followed by several hours spent socially with needlework and conversation the diversions. At 5 o'clock the hostess, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Clara LaFollette, served a delicious lap lunch. Mrs. Schettler was a complimented guest.

The next meeting of the club will be September 14, at which time Mrs. J. J. Corcoran will be hostess.

Miss Cecil Winkle of Portland, who is visiting friends and relatives in the vicinity of Halsey, was the inspiration for a picnic party at Bundy Bridge, at Irish Bend last Sunday. A basket dinner was enjoyed at noon and swimming was the diversion of the afternoon.

Miss Winkle was born in Harrisburg and later lived in Halsey.

Among those from Halsey enjoying this pleasant affair were Chaney Sickle's family and W. C. Sickle's family. A number of Benton county people were also present.

Miss Muriel Straley will entertain a group of girl friends at a house party during the coming week. Composing this party will be Maurine Brown, Ruth Birdman and Margaret Dawley of Portland, and Eue Katherine Lingle of Crystal Springs, Mississippi.

PINE GROVE

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Ray Hoover entertained the members of the Kroweldeen club. The greater part of the afternoon was spent in teaching a comfort, after which the hostess served refreshments.

Campers at the Straley brothers auto park from Friday to Monday were Mr. and Mrs. McDonald and four children of Ames, Iowa. Mr. McDonald organized and is leader of a banjo orchestra in his hometown, and he and his 11-year old daughter have given a number of radio concerts.
