

W.C.T.U. CONVENTION TO BE AT LEBANON SEPTEMBER 7

By Mrs. W. E. Stanton
Slogan — National Prohibition Best Method.

The Linn county Woman's Temperance Union will hold their annual convention at Lebanon Friday, September 7, according to official announcement. Mrs. Emma Archibald is president.

Miss Anna Adams Gordon was among those who spoke at the Northern Woman's Congress held in Stockholm, Sweden, in July. It is reported that the main discussions were on temperance education in the high schools. Miss Gordon, who is World W.C.T.U. president, accompanied by her secretary, Jane B. Judson, left New York on the "American" June 2, to be present at the world W.C.T.U. convention at Lausanne, Switzerland, August 2, and to visit W.C.T.U. headquarters in different countries, and the Woman's Congress at Stockholm.

It is the aim of the organization of the Union, of both parties, the democratic and the republican women, to work and vote for dry officers, local and national.

Junction City Harvest Festival

Junction City, Aug. 27.—Definite announcement has been made of the dates for the harvest festival to be held at the grade school building September 13, 14 and 15. J. R. Griffith of the Eugene Register is president and Thomas Nelson of the Junction City Times is secretary.

Exhibits of school, farm, art, orchard, culinary, flowers, needlework, etc. will be shown, with valuable prizes offered for the best exhibits.

There will be a queen chosen to rule over the three-day festival.

A large party of Halsey people enjoyed a picnic and swimming party last Sunday at Triangle Lake. Those in the party were Messrs. and Mesdames W. H. Robertson, E. E. Gormley, Elden Cross, and Jess Cross, Mrs. LaFollette, Cleona Smith, Alberta Kooztz, Carl Hill, Delos Clark, George Cross, and Herman Kooztz.

Boys' and Girls' Clubs Membership Growing Rapidly in Parts of Oregon

As the fair and exhibition season approaches and the boys' and girls' club members prepare to make their exhibits, the value of such club work in preparing young people of the farm for their places of leadership in the future is emphasized. While regular paid club leaders promote the work in some counties and county agents in 19 others, in Linn county it is left to Mrs. Edna Geer, the county school superintendent, and her group of active local club leaders.

Last year Linn county had 381 boys and girls enrolled in 55 clubs. Of these 301 finished their work. Edgar Grimes of Halsey won 3 of the 11 first places taken by Linn county members at the state fair. He won first at Salem and the Pacific International on showmanship with Holsteins. Other firsts were taken by Leland and Eldon McClain, Wilmer and Pearl Averoff, all of Lebanon, and the Tru love brothers of Albany.

County agents of the 19 counties not employing regular club agents last year organized 177 livestock and crops clubs with 1225 members. In Union county where County Agent H. G. Avery promoted the work the members won 14 firsts, 6 seconds, 5 thirds, 4 fourths and 3 fifths in competition at Salem and Portland. In Polk county where County Agent Beck is in

Black Leaf 40 Good Disinfectant Says O. A. C.

Recent experiments at O.S.C. have verified the research work of the manufacturers of Black Leaf 40 who declared this product was a sure cure for chicken lice. Experiments at the poultry farm show that by pouring a thin stream of Black Leaf 40 along the roosts at night that both roosts and fowls will be free of lice in the morning.

The Morris Pharmacy is carrying Black Leaf in four different sizes of containers in order to accommodate the small poultry raiser as well as those with large flocks. Read his ad in last week's Enterprise.

Hills Return From Eastern Trip

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hill, and Mrs. Hill's son, Daniel Wesley, have returned from an extended auto trip to Missouri and eastern points. They report a most enjoyable trip and were fortunate in having no car troubles and also of missing rain, wind, and hail storms, which usually make things unpleasant for motorists in the central part of the United States.

They averaged better than 400 miles a day, both going and returning, visiting all points of interest enroute and drove by the way of Yellowstone Park thence down through the wheat fields of eastern Oregon to Redmond and over the McKenzie Pass to Eugene and then home.

In all their travels the most beautiful and inspiring scenery was to be found in their state of Oregon, said Mr. Hill. Nothing compared with the Columbia River Highway in scenic grandeur and wonder and they were quite disappointed in Yellowstone Park.

Their visit with relatives and friends in Missouri was a very happy time not soon forgotten and every minute of their stay was full of pleasing incidents. Mrs. Hill's relatives live within a radius of 60 miles of each other and are prosperous and happy, said M. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Hawley of Portland were guests of the former's cousin, Mrs. Curtis Veatch of Halsey two days last week.

HALSEY AND VICINITY BREVITIES

Glen Jurkin and Clay Kirk of Albany were Halsey business visitors this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ramsay and Mrs. Berry Smith and children were Corvallis business visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Phelps and family and Mr. and Mrs. Pearson were transacting business in Albany Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Carey, former Halsey residents, but now living in Albany, were visiting friends in this vicinity Sunday.

Sylvester Wallace of Cottage Grove is spending the week at the Veatch ranch south east of Halsey. He is a cousin of Mr. Veatch.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Marsters left for their home in California Monday after having spent several weeks visiting relatives and friends in Halsey and vicinity.

Karl Bramwell and family and Mrs. Florence Leeper spent several days the latter part of last week and the first of this on a trip to the Oregon Caves, Crater Lake and other scenic places in southern Oregon.

Enid Veatch writes from Moscow, Idaho, that she is having a very pleasant trip and expected to be in Boise by last Sunday. She reports the weather quite warm, especially at Lewiston and Clarkston, where the party made a stop to visit friends.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Patton and two daughters, and the former's mother and niece of Portland who are visiting at the Patton home, and Muriel Lake and Elias Robins drove to Belknap springs where they spent the day on a pleasure trip.

A deal of seven and one-eighths magnitude was consummated Friday when C. G. Hamer traded his 1928 straw hat for the felt head-dress which has so faithfully done duty on occasions of more or less importance and interest to these parts and owned by Rev. Miller. The deal was handled by the interested parties themselves.

Lawrence Taylor has had a new cement walk laid on the Second street side of his business property on the corner of Second and G. The work is under the supervision of J. J. Corcoran who informed us that next week he would begin the construction of a cement walk for H. S. Ackerman at his oil station on Second and A Streets. He also has several septic tanks to build.

THIS FARM PAYS

VIEW of the 1230 acre farm of Herbert Hoover. Operations on Mr. Hoover's farm are conducted on the same high engineering plane as all his other enterprises. The entire acreage is irrigated and highly cultivated for big crops of quality productions. The land was worthless nine years ago when he bought it and was wrested from nature. Every variety of product such as potatoes, cotton, peaches, grapes, onions, figs, etc. is produced. Mr. Hoover constantly checks over with his manager, a university graduate farm expert who has the practical knowledge to go with his scientific education.

Prentiss Isom left for Oak Ridge Wednesday where he will spend a week visiting relatives.

The Owen-Brock harvest crew are threshing spring grain now, but it is reported their run will not last long.

C. F. Morse and family of Tangent were visiting friends in the vicinity of Halsey and Brownsville Sunday.

Helen Williams who has been spending the summer in British Columbia, arrived home Tuesday afternoon.

Lee Ingram and family of Brownsville were guests at the B. E. Cogswell home in Alford Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Armstrong and daughters expect to leave next Wednesday for Colony Bay, Mont., to make their home.

Delos Clark will leave tomorrow for Crane where he will teach again this year. He has spent the summer vacation at his home in this city.

Mrs. James Rector was taken ill Sunday and her daughter, Mrs. H. Wallace and husband came up from Portland and took her home with them.

Mrs. George Tycor and little son Kenneth Vernon of Portland are visiting in Halsey at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bressler.

Ruth McMahan who has spent the past two years at the home of her aunt, Mrs. D. S. Bowman of near Halsey, left last Friday for her home in Illinois.

Ben Holt and family returned Tuesday evening from Newport, where they had gone to spend a week but on account of Phyllis taking ill they were compelled to change their plans.

Mrs. Nora Coleman and daughter Ernestine who have been visiting relatives during the summer vacation have returned to Halsey and are getting located in their new home before school opens.

Mrs. Esther Maag and Mrs. Lizzie Hobson of Salem are visiting at the home of their cousins, the Misses Mary and Maria Evans of the Lake Creek district. Sunday they were guests at the C. R. Evans home and Monday they visited at the J. W. Evans home.

Edwin J. Fletcher of Los Angeles is enjoying a vacation from his work in Hamberger's store in that city, and is visiting friends and relatives in western Oregon where he spent his boyhood days. In Eugene he spent a couple days with his sister and brother, Mrs. Isaac Whealdon and R. M. Fletcher formerly of Plainview. On his way north he stopped at the C. R. Evans home for a visit. Mrs. Evans' mother, Mrs. Laura Woodward, and his mother were cousins.

Seventy-five Sets of Twins So Far Registered

More than 75 sets of twins are registered in Oregon's first annual twin round-up to be staged in Albany Saturday, according to word received from the round-up committee of the chamber of commerce, sponsors of the unique event.

Elaborate preparations have been made for the entertainment of the twins and visitors. No charge of admission will be made.

Cleo and Theo Bogart of Corvallis, who will compete, are 16 years of age but have celebrated only four birthdays. Born on February 29, they have the distinction of being the only leap twins in the state.

Mrs. J. A. Freeman, of Oregon City, mother of three sets of twins, aged two, three and four years, respectfully, is expected to enter her children and a special honorary cash prize has been awarded her.

Twins of all ages from widely separated parts of the state will be present, the only entrance requirement being that they must live in Oregon. Each set of twins will receive an entry prize of $1.00. Cash prizes of $10.00 each will be given the oldest and youngest twins, the twins that most closely resemble each other and the pair that travel the greatest distance to compete.

The special prize for triplets is so far unclaimed. All twins should register with the Albany chamber of commerce but may defer registration until their arrival in Albany if necessary.

Halsey will be represented by Mrs. Ollie Belle Baker whose twin sister, Mrs. Ora Dell Walker, lives in Harrisburg. Shedd's entry is Betty Lou and Patricia Ann Davis.

Musical Treat in Store

A rare treat is in store for all lovers of good music as well as those interested in a musical education, on Saturday evening September 8, when Mrs. Clifford Moore of Portland will give one of her delightful lectures at the Methodist church here.

Mrs. Moore is a musician of marked ability and her lectures offer an unusual opportunity that should not be missed by Halsey people.

Demonstrations of class methods of teaching will be given, as well as a number of other attractive features.

School Opens September 14

Announcement has been made that the Halsey schools will open Friday, September 14. This will give the pupils a chance to obtain their books and have their lessons assigned and be all ready to start the regular school work Monday morning.

P. J. Forster, the genial custodian of the school building, has been busy cleaning and fumigating the rooms.

The staff of teachers for this year Lyman W. Patton superintendent, Miss Adah Nelson and Miss Gladys McCornack, high school instructors, and Mrs. Lenora Kizer, Mrs. Nora Coleman and Mrs. Minnie Cross grade teachers.

Southern Pacific station agent, C. P. Moody announce that there will be no express shipped next Monday, as it is a legal holiday, and the express office will be closed.

Elsie Reynolds who has been working at the telephone office has resigned her position and will visit at the home of Lena Owens in Harrisburg until Sunday when she will leave for Monmouth to join her mother and sisters who recently moved to that city from Halsey. She expects to attend the state normal this winter.

SCIO HAS $50,000 FIRE THIS MORNING; ELEVATOR BURNS

Fire starting at 5 o'clock this morning completely destroyed the mill and warehouse of the Scio Flouring Mill Co., at Scio today.

Calls to Corvallis and Albany for help were responded to and other nearby buildings were saved.

The loss is estimated at $50,000.

Speakers For Harvest Festival

Governor Patterson and V. A. C. Ahlf, Oregon's foremost woman attorney, will be the outstanding features of the Harvest Festival in Junction City, September 13, 14 and 15. Both have subjects of vital interest. The people of Junction City have gone to a great expense endeavoring to make this festival a success. Halsey, Harrisburg, Alping, Monroe and Irving are cooperating. Each one of these communities have a contest at for Queen. Exhibits, parades, music and amusements will also be included.

L. F. Higbee Dies

L. F. Higbee, 78, died at his home on the Halsey Peoria road, Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Pine Grove church. Rev. R. C. Smith of Marion, assisted by Rev. J. R. Stewart, pastor of the Free Methodist churches of Albany and Peoria, will have charge of the services. Rev. Smith was a former pastor of the deceased when they lived in Kansas.
