

HALSEY TELEPHONE COMPANY IS NOW A CORPORATION

Work Completed Last Night; Board Directors Well Selected

The stockholders of the Halsey Telephone Company met pursuant to notice published with a large number present. The first business coming before the house was completing of the by-laws. The motion was put before the house that they go into a committee of the whole which was carried. Chairman Bert S. Clark appointed A. G. Waggener to act as the presiding officer during the framing of the by-laws. This work was expedited by the legal assistance of City Attorney Tussing and the task completed in a very short time and its work reported back to Chairman Clark, the by-laws as reported back were read and adopted.

After the nomination of twelve candidates seven were elected and will comprise the board of directors. They are: B. M. Bond, John Standish, A. G. Waggener, C. J. Hill, T. J. Jackson, Fred Falk and Henry Brock.

The remainder of the officers are to be selected later.

Schools Open Tomorrow

Everything is in readiness for the opening of school tomorrow morning. The rooms have been thoroughly cleaned and fumigated, the new drinking fountain has arrived and other improvements made.

Mrs. Nora Coleman who will again have charge of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades, recently returned from her summer vacation. Mrs. Lenora Kizer will teach the seventh and eighth grades and Mrs. Minnie Cross will again have charge of the primary department.

Miss Adab Nelson arrived last evening from her home in Portland and Miss Gladys McCornack came down from Eugene this afternoon, and these two with Supt. Lyman W. Patton, make up the teaching personnel of the high school.

Albany has its fall style show tomorrow and elaborate preparations by the business men have been carefully carried out by the committee in charge.

The election in Maine Tuesday was quite a victory for the republican party. "As Maine goes, so goes the nation," is believed to ring true this year.

Pine Grove Items

(By Special Correspondent)

Nora Pehrsson returned Saturday evening from a trip to Portland.

Floyd Nichols and R. W. Fairfield are building silos on their farms.

Reta Reed of Salem visited her friend, Pearl Pehrsson, several days recently.

L. E. Eagy and family were guests of his parents at their home in Oakville Sunday.

Anna Heinrich of Corvallis spent part of her vacation here at the William Heinrich home.

The community meeting Friday evening was well attended. The program was unusually good.

Lumber for the new shed at the Pine Grove school has been hauled and the building will make quite an improvement.

L. E. Eagy, John McNeil and P. A. Pehrsson attended a meeting of the district boundary board at Albany Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hover of Harrisburg and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hover of Pine Grove were guests at the E. E. Hover home Sunday.

Agnes Chandler who has been visiting friends in Portland and Beaverton the past ten days arrived home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Emma Knighten, Mrs. Johnson and Russel Knighten of Albany were visitors at the A. L. Knighten home here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Camp who have been visiting the McLarens the past month left for their home in Bellingham, Wash., Sunday.

Mrs. Jessie McLaren was a Corvallis visitor Saturday and Monday while there had Dr. Anderson lance the abscess from which she has been suffering.

The Pine Grove church has for the time being at least, joined the large number of other abandoned churches, as religious services are concerned. Sunday school has been held regularly at Pine Grove ever since the church was built some 27 or 28 years ago, but owing to the small attendance it was thought best to give it up.

Singer in Politics

Grace Divine, of Cincinnati, Metropolitan opera star, heads Hoover Committee of American musicians. She has put her wonderful contralto voice at the service of the campaign managers for any dates not already pre-empted by her full opera and concert engagements.

HALSEY AND VICINITY BREVITIES

Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Miller will leave Monday for Hood River to attend the annual conference of the Methodist church.

Mrs. Harry Robins of Portland was a guest Saturday night at the Fred Robins home in Halsey. She returned home Sunday afternoon.

The regular meeting of the Thimble club will be held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. J. Corcoran. A good attendance is desired.

Lyman J. Palmer has rented the William White residence in south Halsey and will move his family into it following his sale at his farm at Lake Creek next week.

B. T. Sneed and three children of Marshfield were guests at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Sneed of Halsey, last Friday. Mona Sneed of Portland was also a guest of her parents over the week end.

Last Sunday Mrs. Edith Robnett and Mrs. Clara LaFollette accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cross of Albany on an automobile trip to Redmond, Prineville, and Bend. They returned home late that night.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Stevenson of Portland came up Friday and remained until Sunday at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. P. J. Forster. Grandma Ackley who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Forster, for a week or two returned home with them.

P. J. Forster, the genial janitor of the Halsey schools will commence on his 11 year as steward when the schools open tomorrow. Mr. Forster states that the new drinking fountain has arrived and the school building has been cleaned and everything is ready for the opening of school.

Mr. and Mrs. Erzell Sneed who have been visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Sneed and other relatives in Halsey, and also relatives and friends in Portland during the past two or three weeks, have returned to their home at Trona, California.

Miss DeEtta Robnett of Eugene and a former student of the Halsey grade and high school is teaching in the Raymond, Washington, high school, and is at the head of the department of languages. Miss Robnett was graduated from the University of Oregon last June.

Frank Gansle, Redmond Pearl and Mr. Miller left this morning for the mountains in quest of deer, having been notified by phone from the game department that the ban had been lifted. Last year Mr. Gansle selected Charles Hamer and Clay Moody to accompany him on a like trip, but they were no producers, hence the change of personnel.

Mrs. F. E. Roberts, of Salem, who has been visiting in Halsey at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Forster, returned home Saturday, and Blanche Stenke of Salem, a granddaughter of the Forsters, arrived Saturday on a visit at their home. Mrs. Forster, who recently had her tonsils removed at an Eugene hospital is getting along nicely.

Harry Leeper and son Francis left yesterday on a hunting trip in the mountains near Bellfountain.

Those who have exhibits for the county fair are reminded to have them at the school house Monday and the committee will take care of them. Halsey and vicinity should have one of the very best exhibits at the fair.

Lecture on Music Well Attended

The lecture on music, its fundamentals and technique, given by Mrs. Clifford Moore of Portland, at the Methodist church Saturday evening was well attended by an appreciative audience of music lovers.

Mrs. Moore is an authority on music and those who listened to her address were well repaid for their attendance.

Active Worker

Mrs. F. Louis Slade, former regional director of the League of Women Voters, has been made leader of the Women's Advisory Committee for the Hoover-Curtis ticket. She plans a widespread appeal to housewives. She reports that tremendous impetus is being given the Hoover campaign by women and women's organizations. Thousands of women who have not voted before are expected to come out and vote the Republican ticket this year.

Funeral Services for Lela Kropf

Funeral services for Lela Kropf, who died Tuesday evening, were held Wednesday afternoon. Burial was in Alford cemetery.

Lela was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kropf who live a few miles south of Halsey. She was born June 25, 1901. Death was caused from diphtheria and because of this the funeral services were held on the lawn.

The little girl is survived by her parents, three brothers and four sisters, and two half brothers.

Mrs. Kropf and another daughter are said to be ill with the same disease, the latter very seriously.

Musical Recital Well Attended

The autumn recital of the music pupils of Edna Rike was held at the Methodist church last evening and was enjoyed by an appreciative audience. Baskets of autumn flowers and softly shaded lights formed an attractive setting for those participating in the program.

Those taking part were Harlie Rike, Louise Sickels, Jack Snodgrass, Gardie Miller, Arline Powell, Georgia Starr Morse (violin), and Edna, Ellen and Roberta Van Nieu.

Gun Club Meets Sunday

Members of the Halsey Gun club will meet at the range early Sunday morning to make arrangements for the fall and winter schedule of events and transact such other business as may come before the meeting, according to an announcement made by the president of the club.

The finishing work on the club house and grounds will be taken up and arrangements made to have the concrete work necessary done, as well as the street and road improved.

Pete Sears of Albany was the guest of friends in Halsey Tuesday.

RISMS

No one can contemplate the past and the future of our country without an earnest prayer that we shall maintain at all times the refreshing force of a strong farm population.

Our ideal is not only a child free from disease. It is also a child made free to develop to the utmost his capacity for physical, social and mental health.

I have no fear for the ultimate cause of religion. That springs from depths too great and too certain ever to be wholly defeated.

It is the individual alone who can function in the world of intellect and in the field of leadership.

No sensible business man wants either a boom or slump. He wants stability.

PROGRAM AT PINE GROVE FRIDAY NIGHT WELL RECEIVED

Corvallis American Legion Furnish Entertainment Features

A large number of people from both Pine Grove and Peoria as well as elsewhere attended the regular community meeting at Pine Grove Friday evening.

The program was furnished by the American Legion of Corvallis and was unusually good.

A good joke on the boys has been going the rounds the past week. It is said that on the way home they decided to serenade Prof. Floyd Rowland of Peoria, but by mistake they stopped in front of the wrong house, and what was worse still, the house was vacant. The boys however seemingly enjoyed themselves but Prof. Rowland and family missed some good music.

John Hunter Accidentally Killed

John Hunter, well known marshal of Brownsville died Tuesday morning following an accidental gun shot wound. The accident occurred on Deadner mountain near Grants Pass, where Mr. Hunter, accompanied by Manuel Enos, Dr. Sheldon and S. A. Andrews, all of Brownsville, had gone to southern Oregon on a hunting trip and had started out early that morning to locate deer signs and be ready to hunt as soon as the season was declared open.

The body was taken to Brownsville where funeral services were held at the I. O. O. F. hall at one o'clock this afternoon, followed by burial in the family lot in the Locke cemetery near Corvallis.

Rev. G. A. Gray was in charge of the services. The services at the grave were in charge of the Odd Fellows lodge.

John P. Hunter was born near Corvallis, July 17, 1862, and had spent most of his life in Benton and Linn counties. He was married to Katherine Martin November 6, 1893.

Beside his wife, the deceased is survived by his aged father and one sister, Mrs. A. B. Callaway, all of Brownsville.

Linn Fair Race Program Good

H. G. Cox, fine old veteran of the harness racing game and for 33 years a follower of the Pacific Northwest racing circuit, will also close his career in Albany this year at the Linn county fair's program. He is 87 years of age.

Sixty-nine years ago, a youth of 18, he began his racing career at Albany, New York. Only honor and praise about the old man come from the other owners now training their horses at the fair grounds for the three day racing program, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, September 20, 21, 22.

Though Cox has only a green pacer, Georgia Hal, to enter this year, it was he that owned Lady Hal when she took more than half the western track records 15 years ago. But he is modest about the past and one must go to others to get the story. Now he talks about George Hal.

The complete racing program will include six harness events every day, divided into two races of three heats each, every heat a race.

There will be two running horse races and a chariot race each day, and the county fair board of which J. J. Barrett is president, has arranged for other features and special attractions each day on the racing program.

Don Wilson, editor of the Benton Independent, Corvallis, was a visitor at the Enterprise office today.
