SOCIETY NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondents

Friday afternoon Mrs. J. J. Corcoran was a charming hostess at her home in West Halsey to the members of the Thimble club of Vine Maple circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft. An initiation was held for three new members, Mesdames J. A. Miller, Harry Bressler and Edith Robnett. Following the business session the afternoon was spent in conversation and fancy work and at four o'clock the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Dorothy, served a delicious lap lunch.

Those present for this delightful afternoon were Mesdames Buford Morris, W. F. White, C. G. Hamer, E. B. Isom, George Taylor, Harry Bressler, J. A. Miller, Edith Robnett and Fayette Lake. Mrs. John Bressler was a complimented guest as was Beverly Isom.

For the next meeting Mrs. Taylor extended the hospitality of her home.

Mrs. F. Buford Morris and son Bobbie spent Saturday in Albany where Bobbie was a guest at a birthday party honoring his cousin Dornon Eastburn, who celebrated his fourth birth anniversary at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Eastburn, in that city.

Mrs. Jess Cross was a charming dinner hostess of Saturday evening when she entertained a group of friends. The table was centered with a lovely floral piece. Places were marked for Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. Elden Cross, Miss Gladys McCornack and

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Cross. During the evening music was enjoyed.

SPOON RIVER

Three birthdays were celebrated Sunday at the Henry Seefeld home with Mrs. Seefeld who has only recently returned home from an Eugene hospital as a specially honored guest. The dinner was also a surprise to Mrs. Seefeld who was in the hospital at the time of her birthday. The other two who were honored at this time were Esther Seefeld and nephew Robert Carey. Three beautifully decorated cakes, with lighted candles, formed part of the table decorations.

Those present beside the three honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Carey and daughter Margaret, Mr. Henry Seefeld and Louise Seefeld.

FAYETTEVILLE

The Tahiga camp-fire girls met at the home of Faith Hanson Monday evening and elected officers for the coming year and afterwards enjoyed a social hour. The newly elected officers are: Elaine Abraham president, Mary Pugh vice president, Faith Hanson treasurer, Doris Margason secretary, Ethel Maxwell scribe and Jean Satchwell song leader.

PEORIA

Mrs. Georgia Hoyer was hostess to the members of the women's missionary society for their regular monthly study and social meeting. Mrs. Perle Cummings had the lesson topic and after an interesting study hour, a report of the missionary conference held recently at Milton was given by Mrs. Martin Cummings who was a delegate.

The hostess served dainty refreshments during the social hour.
