From "Queen" to Queen

A "Queen" of Guernsey's provides the milk for Queen Marie's repast when Royalty visited Pacific International Pictured above, Mrs. Minnie W. Miller of Thousand Springs Farm, Wendell, Idaho, is seen milking her famous Guernsey, Yeoman's Mixer Babbette. Henry Thiele, prominent restaurateur, is standing by waiting to carry a pitcher of this "queen's" milk to Queen Marie of Roumania who was a visitor at the 1926 Pacific International Livestock Exposition.

Every indication points to all divisions being filled to capacity at the 15th Annual Pacific International Livestock Exposition, Portland, Oregon, November 3-10, inclusive. Particularly is this true of the Dairy Livestock division. Fully 800 dairy animals are expected to be in the stalls when the Exposition opens, with breeds represented as follows: Holsteins 200, Jerseys 200, Guernseys 150, Ayrshires and Brown Swis 150. Professor V. D. Chappell of Oregon Agricultural College is in charge of the Dairy Products Show which, this year, will excel all previous records for size and quality of exhibits. In addition to the Dairy Livestock entries, millions of dollars worth of pure bred Beef Cattle, Horses, Sheep, Hogs, Goats and Foxes will compete for a share in the $100,000.00 of prize money offered.

Pacific International is one of the four shows in the U. S. where the "All American" selections are made.

Other outstanding divisions of the Exposition are the Land and Manufacturers' Products Shows; Industrial Exposition; Sheep Show; Wool and Mohair Show; Fox Show; Boys' and Girls' Club Work Exhibits; great "Truth in Meats" demonstration, and America's greatest Horse Show. Ten Horse Show performances are scheduled—7 evenings and 3 afternoons. Stirring high and broad jumping events are announced for each performance. High stepping harness horses and three- and five-gaited American saddle horses will be seen in all their perfection of form. Heavy draft six-horse driving team contests are scheduled as well as other team contests throughout the rest of the week.

All transportation lines are offering reduced fares to the Exposition.

Exciting Events at Horse Show

Aaron M. Frank of Portland and his Hackney Pony "Aloma," winner of the Portland Chamber of Commerce $2,000.00 Stake at the 1927 Pacific International.

The chariot races of ancient Rome offered no more exciting competition than some of the events scheduled for the 10th Annual Horse Show of the Pacific International Livestock Exposition to be held at Portland, Oregon, November 3-10, inclusive.

Roadster classes at fast paces are shown in the great 234 feet long Horse Show arena. In that ring the maneuvers of seven and eight six-horse heavy draft driving teams bring the spectators to their feet in tumultuous applause with their daring and exciting performances. High and broad jumping events display the stamina and skill of both horses and riders.

High stepping harness champions of America and England are shown in superb form. Three- and five-gaited American Saddle Horses charm the spectators with their graceful action and amazing speed.

The prize money for this Horse Show is approximately $36,000.00—the largest amount ever offered. Horses from all over America and from abroad come to compete for Pacific International's prized ribbons. During each performance will be staged parades of prize-winning Livestock and demonstrations by famous sheep dogs.

The 15th Annual Pacific International Livestock Exposition combines Livestock Show; Dairy, Land and Manufacturers' Products Shows; Sheep Show; Wool and Mohair Show; Northwest Hay and Grain Show; Fox Show; Industrial Exposition; Boys' and Girls' Club Work Exhibits; great "Truth in Meats" demonstration, and daily auctions of Beef and Dairy Cattle. $100,000.00 is offered in Premiums. Attendance each year exceeds 120,000 persons.

Leading Railroads of the Northwest, and other transportation lines are offering special reduced fares to the Exposition.

Monday morning from a two weeks stay in eastern Oregon, where he spent the time hunting and taking hot mineral baths. His health is much improved.

Percy Taylor took his little daughter Betty to Halsey Thursday to consult Dr. Marks in regard to the little girl's health.

Mrs. Fay Githens had as her guests over the week end her brother and wife of Portland.

Mrs. Anna Githens was a business caller in Corvallis Tuesday.

FARMERS IGNORE HOOVER

Corn Belt Leaders Refuse to Confer With Republican Candidate

ST. PAUL, Minn.—Declaring that any farmer who supported Herbert Hoover would be "a traitor to the cause of agriculture," A. W. Ricker, Secretary of the Corn Belt Federation of Farmers, pointed out, in a statement issued here, that not a single recognized farm leader had accepted the Republican candidate's invitation to meet him and "talk over the situation." He said:

"We have good reason for not wanting Mr. Hoover. We know him and his methods. We have been up against his stubborn opposition for eight years."

When Herbert Hoover says that he also has been personally attacked, he probably refers to the things the Republican candidate for Vice President said about him before the Kansas City convention.
