

SOCIETY NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondents

When the members of the Study club arrived at the home of Mrs. Charles Hamer Wednesday afternoon they felt they had been transported to a land wherein witches, black cats and goblins dwelt. Soon however they found it was but the spirit of Halloween.

Mrs. Curtis Veatch presided over the meeting. The club members decided to give a miscellaneous program at the city hall on Armistice day. Various booths will contain ice cream, candy, etc., and there will be one booth filled with war souvenirs.

Contests formed a pleasing diversion during the social hour. In one, a modeling contest, Mrs. T. I. Marks was awarded first prize and the consolation prize went to Mrs. A. A. Tossing.

The guests were then invited to the dining room where they found places at a prettily decorated table. Here the decorations were also carried out in keeping with the season of Halloween, the color scheme being black and gold. A guessing contest was a feature between the courses. Wanda Veatch assisted the hostess in serving.

Mrs. Chester Sickels Mrs. Margaret Allingham and Miss Veatch were complimented guests. Thirteen club members were present.

The members of the Thimble club were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. George Taylor Friday afternoon. During the brief business session it was decided to hold a cooked food sale later in the season and also to have members piece a quilt which will be sold.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent socially while those present busied themselves with needlework. Several unusually pretty quilt blocks were exhibited.

At four o'clock the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Miller, served a delicious lunch.

Those present for this pleasant afternoon were Mesdames Clara LaFollette, Elizabeth White, Mae Miller, Ada Cororan, Ella Rossman, Lulu Hoffman, Blanche Morris and Anne Lake, and Miss Mary Smith.

PINE GROVE

John McNeil jr celebrated his twelfth birthday at his home last Saturday by inviting Ross, Vero and Lyle Eagv, Mary, Freddie and Rex McNeil, Laurence and Glenn Nichols, Thelma Knighten and Erma Johnson to a delightful party. The afternoon hours were spent in playing games and the serving of refreshments by Mrs. McNeil brought the afternoon to a pleasant close. Several mothers were also present.

HOOVER HALTS TO GREET CRIPPLE

Always a champion of childhood, Herbert Hoover demonstrated his interest in unfortunate children when he noticed Robert Farr, a cripple boy, cheering him in Iowa City and stepped out of his car to greet him.

The first meeting of the Priscilla club following the summer vacation was held Thursday afternoon with Mrs. R. W. Brown as hostess to the members. The annual election of officers occupied the attention of the members during the business meeting which was followed by a social hour.

Mrs. W. H. Hobbs will be hostess to the club members at their next meeting.

WASHINGTON.—Addressing a delegation of veterans representing the various war service organizations of the District of Columbia, Herbert Hoover declared against reduction of expenditures for the care of veterans. He approved the policy of Republican administrations during the last seven years in showing ex-service men the utmost liberality.

Mr. Hoover's remarks to the delegation were as follows:
"I believe all of America recognizes our national obligation to our veterans. The country today is providing pensions and compensation to $35,292 men and women, with insurance and adjusted compensation to over four million more. The total expenditures of the government in this direction now exceed $576,943,000 annually, and represent the one important division of the government where the policy has been justifiably to increase rather than to reduce expenditures. This has also been the one important division of the government where the drive for reduction of expenditures has been applied only for economy in its administration—not against the veterans. It is the one division where large measure of increased expenditure of the government has taken place during the past seven years. This is as it should be. This government must not be extravagant but it must be just."
