A Future Farm Leader

Adam Duncan Dunn, Jr., of Wapato, Washington, and his Shorthorn bull calf, "King of Supremacy."

As long as the influences of the 4-H Clubs remain, America will never lack an adequate supply of capable managers for its farms. Adam Duncan Dunn, Jr., is an excellent example of the type of young farmer the organization is developing. Adam is a former 4-H Club member. He is a son of the late Adam Duncan Dunn, one of the original founders and Trustee-Director of the Pacific International Livestock Exposition.

Camp Plummer, the official annual meeting place of 4-H Clubs in this territory, is one of the most outstanding developments of the Pacific International, the 18th Annual of which will be held at Portland, Oregon, November 3-10, inclusive.

The Fat Stock and Breeding sections of the Exposition premise, this year, to be the best of its many successful events. Shorthorns, Herefords, and Aberdeen-Angus exhibits will compete for the prized ribbons and a share in the premiums totaling $100,000.00.

Fifteen breeds of Sheep, Angora and milk Goats, and five breeds of Hogs will be exhibited. In the Wool and Mohair Show there is to be a splendid showing of sheep and goat fleeces as well as wool products of various kinds.

For spectacular entertainment there will be the 10th Annual Horse Show for which approximately $36,000.00 in prize money is offered. Programs—7 evenings and 3 afternoons—feature stirring high and broad jumps, sterling performances by Harness Horses and three- and five-gaited American saddle horses as well as exciting six-in-hand draft team driving contests. During each performance parades of prize-winning Livestock will be staged and demonstrations given by famous sheep dogs.

In addition to the foregoing, Pacific International will combine, in its educational presentations, Dairy Livestock Exhibits; Dairy Land and Manufacturers' Products Shows; Northwest Hay and Grain Show; Industrial Exposition; Fox Show; Boys' and Girls' Club Work Exhibits, and great "Truth in Meats" demonstration.

All transportation lines offer reduced fares to the Exposition.

Charity Grange News Items

The regular meeting of Charity Grange was held Saturday evening and those present were greatly pleased with the new lecturer, Mr. Harding, and his part of the program was greatly enjoyed.

The meeting Saturday was to have been an all day meeting but the farmers are too busy making use of this glorious Oregon weather and so the meeting was held in the evening.

The juveniles enjoyed a birthday cake baked by Mrs. Curtis Veatch for Clarence Mann, whose birthday this was.

While the men discussed the problem of graveling the parking space the women present concerned themselves about a new carpet, the one in use now having seen much service.

"Vote for the Grange Labor Income tax bill and reduce your property tax."

Callapocia grange has invited us to meet with them Saturday, Oct. 27. A speaker from O. S. C. will address the meeting.

Charity Grange has an open meeting once a year on or near the 4th of December, the anniversary of the grange organization. This year it is December 1. A splendid program is planned and all friends are invited to bring a basket and enjoy a big dinner with us. (Editors are especially welcome.)
