SPOON RIVER

Friday evening the Kirk school house was the scene of a Halloween frolic when over a hundred people from the Spoon River and Brandon communities met for a social time.

Fortune telling was the first thing on the program and was followed by a group of musical numbers. The young people then went to the play shed where games were played with Miss Doris Howard in charge. At the same time the little folks in charge of Mrs. Grace Vannice played games in the school house while the grown-ups enjoyed a spelling match. During the evening apples, doughnuts and punch was served. Every one present voted a good time.

FAYETTEVILLE

A surprise dinner was served at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McCormick in honor of Mr. McCormick's birthday Thursday evening. After a bounteous dinner conversation and radio music was enjoyed until a late hour.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Nevin McCormick of Waterloo, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gibson of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Couey, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Couey and children, Robert W. McCormick.

There's Nothing Like the Bride-Beach WOOD SUPERIOR CIRCULATOR

Built Like a Warm-Air Furnace

The cold air enters at the bottom, is heated and humidified between the fire pot and the outer casing—and rises out through the top, circulating the warm, moist, healthful air to the most distant corners of the adjoining rooms. Has a wonderful heating capacity—will heat several rooms comfortably in the coldest weather. Burns cord wood, chips, blocks, knots—easily regulated and heats up quickly in the morning. Comes in beautiful Walnut Enamel finish and also in plain black with white polished steel body.
