

Your Winter Clothing Needs

Each and every suit or overcoat made by the Ed V. Price Co., for our customers, is guaranteed to give satisfaction. Come in and order a suit. You'll be pleased with your purchase. Thousands of other men are. Suits $30 to $50.

M. V. Koontz Co.
GOOD GOODS

HOOVER ELECTED NEXT PRESIDENT

Republican Ticket Sweeps the Country in Election of Intense Interest.

Sweeping through the east, the west and the border, and threatening seriously the solid south, Hoover and Curtis were borne along on a tide of rising majorities as returns from the election assumed definite character.

Overtaking earlier leads established by Smith and Robinson in several important states, the republican ticket was leading in every state thus far heard from except for the most rock-ribbed of the democratic strongholds of the south.

Hoover Wins Smith's Home State.

New York city, which as the early returns poured in, was celebrating the election of their native son, Governor Al Smith, as president of the United States, later began to quiet down as bulletins were flashed on the boards from upstate districts showing Hoover gradually overtaking their idol. About midnight all hopes had faded and what once looked like the biggest celebration in years died out.

HERBERT HOOVER

Ex-Secretary of Commerce, who was elected President of the United States.

Smith lost his own state of New York; Hoover carried his home state of California.

Hoover leads in the southern states of Virginia, North Carolina, Florida and Tennessee, and has a fair chance in Texas.

The republicans made gains in both the senate and the house.

The New York governor polled a goodly number of the popular vote, but if the republican majority continues Hoover will lead his democratic opponent by about 5,000,000. In the electoral vote however, Hoover seems to have gathered over 450, leaving Smith with 100 or less.

CHARLES CURTIS

Senator from Oklahoma, who was elected Vice-President of the United States in the Republican landslide.

Having listened to the returns at his home in Palo Alto, Cal., through the earlier hours of the evening, Mr. Hoover had retired satisfied that he had been elected by one of the largest electoral college pluralities ever given a presidential nominee.

Border States Turn Republican.

Assured of a sweeping victory in Oklahoma and Kentucky and running well ahead in Tennessee and Missouri, the republican presidential ticket appeared to have made a clean sweep of this border group of states for the first time in a general election.

In Kentucky the campaign had been bitterly fought, especially in the mountain sections. The Hoover ticket was aided by fair weather, known as "republican weather" in Kentucky, enabling voters from the mountain sections to get to the polls.

Three of New England's six states appeared definitely settled in the Hoover column as the mounting totals of returns piled up.

Maine and Vermont held true to tradition and remained in the republican column by what appeared likely to be record-breaking majorities. New Hampshire seemed assured for Hoover, while Connecticut likewise showed a margin for him.

Massachusetts and Rhode Island, upon which the supporters of both Hoover and Smith centered their attack, remained in the doubtful column.

Herbert Hoover swept through the entire farm belt, rolling up leads in some areas in excess of normal republican majorities.

Farm Relief Issue Fails Democrats.

The farm relief issue, stressed by democrats in their assault on this rock-ribbed republican territory, made no dent in the wall. Even Wisconsin, which was lost to the republicans in 1924 through the elder La Follette's victory, returned to the fold.

Iowa, one of the battlegrounds of the farm question, gave its native son a sparkling lead and elected probably an entire republican state and congressional ticket.

A statement issued at democratic national headquarters by Mr. Raskob read:

"The democratic party has made a gallant and clean fight for the principles in which it believes. The verdict of the American people has been rendered and, in accordance with democratic principles, we cheerfully accept the will of the majority and shall take our place in the ranks of the majority of American citizens who desire the future welfare of our country."

(Signed) JOHN. J. RASKOB.

Smith Sends Message.

At the same time Governor Smith made public a congratulatory message to his republican opponent.

"I congratulate you heartily on your victory, and extend to you my sincere good wishes for your health and happiness and for the success of your administration."

Republicans Gain in Senate and House

Among democratic house seats captured by the republicans are six in the border state of Kentucky and one in New York, where a republican was elected to a seat held by a democrat not up for re-election. On the basis of early returns, one republican seat was won by a democrat.

In the senate, the republicans had definitely picked up two seats. Four republicans have been re-elected and all of the 13 republican seats involved in the election appear to be in the safety zone.

Senator Thomas F. Bayard of Delaware was the first democrat to bow to the republican sweep, losing to John G. Townsend, followed by Senator William Cabell Bruce of Maryland, who lost to his republican opponent, Phillips Lee Goldsborough. Three democrats, all from the south, were re-elected, Connally of Texas, Swanson of Virginia and Stephens of Mississippi.

Twenty democratic seats were at stake in the election. Of these, King of Utah, Pittman of Nevada, Trammell of Florida, Walsh of Massachusetts and Copeland of New York were in the lead.

The four republicans elected were La Follette of Wisconsin, Greene of Vermont, Reed of Pennsylvania and Frederic C. Walcott. Walcott succeeds Senator George P. McLean of Connecticut, who retired.

Among the republican leaders of the house re-elected were Speaker Nicholas Longworth, Tilson of Connecticut, the party floor leader; Hawley of Oregon, chairman of the ways and means committee; Wood of Indiana, who will become chairman of the appropriations committee; Snell of New York, chairman of the rules committee, and Dampson of New York, chairman of the rivers and harbors committee.

CELEBRATES WITH SONG

"America" Rings Loudly in Winner's Home at Palo Alto.

Stanford University Campus, Cal.—The election of Herbert Hoover to the presidency was celebrated in his home here by the singing of "America" by half a hundred or more friends and neighbors gathered in the living room of the massive stucco house on the side of San Juan hill.

The first public utterance of the president-elect was a greeting of appreciation to the students of Stanford university, who gathered around his home to celebrate his election.

"I thank you for coming up here tonight and giving us this greeting," he said from the terrace of his home. "I do appreciate it from the bottom of my heart. I thank you."

Governor Smith Carries Albany, N. Y.

Albany, N. Y.—This city, which has known Alfred E. Smith for eight years as governor of New York state, gave him a majority of 14,268 over Herbert Hoover, his republican opponent in the presidential race. The complete city vote for president was: Smith, 42,312, Hoover, 28,044.

Hoover Wins Home Vote.

Palo Alto, Cal.—Herbert Hoover received a plurality of 360 over his democratic opponent in his own voting precinct at Stanford university. The republican candidate received 410 votes, the democratic candidate 50 votes, and the socialist candidate, Thomas, eight votes.

Hiram Johnson Loses Vote.

San Francisco, Cal.—Senator Johnson, ill at his suite at the Mark Hopkins hotel, lost his vote in a presidential election for the first time in many years. The statesman, suffering from influenza, was unable to cast his ballot.

A NATION-WIDE INSTITUTION
J.C. PENNEY CO.
"quality—always at a saving"

Albany, Oregon

Furred Coats

as outstanding in fashion as they are in value!

$24.75

For Women, Misses, Juniors

Those who must dress well on a limited income will welcome this J. C. Penney Company offering. Coats of lustrous broadcloth or smooth suede cloth—in black, tan, and other leading colors—all effectively trimmed with fur.

HOOVER VICTOR IN OREGON LANDSLIDE

Former Records to be Passed in the Present Election Count.

Hoover is experiencing a landslide of such gigantic proportions that it will approximate 100,000, based on a vote of 80 per cent of the registration, or 350,000 votes cast in Oregon. The republican managers had made an estimate of 73,000.

The Oregon people have spoken in emphatic terms and there is no doubt as to their meaning. Oregon is republican and dry, and Smith, democrat and wet, was foredoomed to defeat in this state, but the depth to which he has been buried exceeds the most sanguine expectations of the Hoover supporters.

A more sweeping and complete defeat has not been recorded in a presidential election in Oregon.

In the three congressional districts additional returns simply increased the leads of W. C. Hawley, R. R. Butler and Franklin F. Korell. Mr. Hawley has carried every county in the first district. In the second district Butler has carried all but possibly four. These four, in which Pierce leads, are Union, Wallowa, Wheeler and Sherman, although in the latter Butler has a thin advantage. The third district, Multnomah county, is all in Korell's pocket.

Dunne Bills Are Defeated.

With the accumulation of more returns, it is obvious that the Oregon voters have turned thumbs down on the two Dunne bills, one for increasing the gasoline tax and the other reducing the motor license fees. There is a sentiment for the latter in several spots, but on the whole the bill is swamped.

The "four river" bills have found support nowhere, not even in the counties which are directly affected. The streams aimed at in these bills are Rogue river, Umpqua river, McKenzie river and Deschutes river. The bills were sponsored by sportsmen, with a view to preventing their commercial exploitation by means of hydro development or irrigation.

Here and there, in a few scattered counties, a sentiment is shown for limiting the powers of the legislature with respect to initiated bills, but by and large this measure has gone down to defeat, buried under an avalanche of ballots.

From the top of the republican state ticket down to the bottom there has not been a break. Not one democratic candidate on the state ticket has been anywhere near defeating or equaling the vote which has gone to the republican nominees.

Portland Municipal Measures Pass. Returns from 342 precincts out of the 427 in Portland on the municipal measures give: Annexation, yes 25,996, no 7,163; firemen's pension, yes 23,000, no 16,624; telephone franchise, yes 27,770, no 9,603; crematory bonds, yes 18,047, no 16,090; street widening bonds, yes 22,129, no 15,853.

Hall E. Hoss, republican, was leading Ed S. Piper, democrat, three to one in the contest for secretary of state.

The republican candidates for state senator headed the field in the voting in Multnomah county, with substantial majorities. J. O. Bailey was high man with 21,537 votes to his credit with Harry L. Corbett a close second with 21,494 votes. There were five to be elected.

Thomas B. Kay, republican, the present state treasurer, was far in the lead in the race for that office, with a total in the incomplete totals of 25,014 votes.

In the race for attorney-general I. H. Van Winkle, republican, incumbent, was far in the lead with a vote of 19,278 votes.

BAKER APPEARS WINNER

Present Mayor Returned to Office by Close Margin.

Portland, Or.—Geo. L. Baker was elected mayor for his fourth term at the election on the face of returns from 319 of the 429 precincts, a wave of popularity throughout the city sweeping the mayor into office again on first-choice votes.

After a close race in which the three candidates for city commissioner were running neck and neck and their positions changed from time to time, George P. Eisman took the lead, John M. Mann slid to second place and A. L. Barbur was third.

Whiteside & Locke

Hardware, Implements and Sporting Goods, Hudson and Essex Autos 3rd & Madison Sts., Corvallis, Ore.

Hot Water Bottles

Fountain Syringes and Combination Water Bottle and Syringes.

Morris Pharmacy

Special Norwegian Cod Liver Oil 79c a pint.

For General Hauling

Transfee and Drayage Business. Orders for Wood, Sand and Gravel.

Ralph C. Smith

Phone Morris Pharmacy 203 Trips made anywhere.

The Enterprise $1.00 a year.

Dana C. Rossman

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

Lady Assistant All calls answered day or night Phone 255. Halsey, Oregon

Notice of District Road Meeting

Pursuant to a petition signed by a legal number of resident freeholders, taxpayers and legal voters of Road District No. 4 of Linn County, Oregon,

Notice is hereby given that a meeting of the legal voters of Road District No. 4 of Linn County, Oregon, will be held at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m., on the 17th day of November, 1928, at the Pine Grove School House in said Road District, to determine whether or not said Road District shall vote a special tax of $3000.00 upon all the taxable property within said Road District for the improvement of the roads therein as follows, to-wit, grading, graveling, draining and repairing said roads.

By order of the County Court of Linn County, Oregon.

Dated this 29th day of October, 1928,

Attest: R. M. Russell, County Clerk, B. M. Payne, County Judge, Jos. Hame, county commissioner.

H. A. Reninger, county commissioner Posted this 29th day of October, 1928, by C. W. Nichols, appointed by the Court Nov. 1-8-15 1928.

NOTICE OF HEARING ON FINAL ACCOUNT.

Notice is hereby given that the final account of Leonard R. Wilson as administrator of the estate of Oscar H. Wilson deceased has been filed in the County Court of Linn County, State of Oregon, and that the 26th day of November, 1928 at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day has been duly appointed by said court for the hearing of objections to said final account and the settlement thereof, at which time any person interested in said estate may appear and file objections thereto in writing and contest the same.

Dated and first published Oct 25th, 1928. Leonard R. Wilson, Administrator Moresaid. Tussing & Tussing, Atlys. for Admr. Oct. 25 Nov. 1-8-15 22.

HALSEY THEATRE

TUESDAY, NOV. 13, 8 O'Clock

Zane Grey's

"Open Range"

Framed by a band of outlaws—wanted for the worst crime of the West—cattle-rustling—he fights his way to freedom and proves his innocence in a way which will give you one long series of rip-roaring thrills. All color comedy.

Tune up for Winter

There is such a radical difference in the conditions under which your motor must run during the warm weather and the cold, that it requires some radical adjustments to keep it running right. Let us adjust your motor to meet cold weather conditions.

Arrow Garage, Halsey

FIRESTONE AND SEIBERLINGS

The Enterprise is Your Paper Use it.