

RED CROSS ROLL CALL NOW BEING TAKEN IN LINN CO.

There is no place like Mother's arms in time of trouble. The American Red Cross is this big mother in time of public disaster or calamity. She ministers to our public needs whether it be in time of war or in time of dire disaster or calamity. Her forces are organized and ready for service at any time or any where.

The Red Cross knows no race, no creed or politics. Where need is, there are her ministrations of mercy ready. But her efficiency depends largely on how we support her when fortune smiles on us.

Support the Red Cross in this twelfth annual roll call which is now on all over our land and help the big Mother carry her burdens. Don't miss this opportunity for service.

SOCIETY NEWS

From Our Regular Correspondents

The members of the Thimble club held a most enjoyable meeting Friday afternoon with Mrs. Buford Morris as hostess. Softly shaded lights and bowls of bronze colored chrysanthemums added to the attractiveness of the rooms. Eight members responded to roll call. During the business session it was voted to have a Christmas tree at the December meeting and names were drawn for the exchange of gifts.

Late in the afternoon the hostess served a dainty lunch on small tables. The second course consisted of cake and coffee, the cake being a beautifully decorated one in the lodge colors of red white and green, baked by Mrs. Asa Eastburn of Albany, and which the president of the club had the pleasure of cutting.

Present for this delightful afternoon were Mesdames Corcoran, La Follette, Taylor, Robnett, Mae Miller, and Lake and Miss Mary Smith. Mrs. Asa Eastburn and sons of Albany were complimented guests.

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Miss Mary Smith on December 14.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. George Taylor was hostess to the members of the women's missionary society of the Christian church, Mrs. Irwin Gardner was in charge of the lesson, which was a very interesting one. During the social hour which followed the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Mae Miller, served dainty refreshments. Fourteen members were present.

The city hall was the scene of a gay crowd last Friday evening when a number of the young people of Halsey gave a dancing party. The hall was prettily decorated in streamers of blue and gold crepe paper and music was furnished by a victrola. Fifty young people were present.

PINE GROVE

Mrs. A. L. Knighten entertained the members of the Krowledeen club and their families at a delightful party Saturday evening in honor of Mr. Knighten's birthday. Call Meeting P.T.A. Nov. 22

A called meeting of the Parent-Teacher association will be held at the school house Thursday evening November 22, for the purpose of checking up our by-laws with those adopted and approved in the new hand book. Other business will be proposed and two vacancies in elective offices to be filled. A report of the late state conference will be offered.

There is interesting work for the association that should be started at once and by crowding a lot into this extra meeting we will be ready and up-to-date for the December meeting.

By order of Vice President:
Mrs. A. H. Quimby.

SECOND ANNUAL GUN CLUB TOURNAMENT A SUCCESS

The club shoot held Armistice Day was well attended considering the weather, shooters coming from Corvallis, Salem, Albany, Blodgett, Harrisburg, Brownsville, Monroe, and other nearby towns.

Some remarkable scores were registered, perhaps the most outstanding performance being the score turned in by J. W. Drinkard, president of the Halsey Gun Club, Out of the fifty 16-yard targets, twenty-five handicap (shooting from 21-yards) and twelve pairs of doubles, he dropped but four birds.

Mark Rickard of Corvallis made a run of 85 and others did nearly as well. The work of 10-year-old Cedric Moody was nothing to be sneezed at for the little fellow was there with his 20-gauge shattered 35 out of 50.

The cosy club quarters were much appreciated by the visitors who rate the club as one of the best in this section of the state.

The club is in excellent financial condition and the membership is growing steadily.

Below is the score of the participants as tabulated by C. P. Moody, secretary of the club.
