Beaverton Has

Booth at O. A. C.

Booth Prepared by Beaverton Chamber of Commerce All Kinds of Home Products

All types of produce were featured in the Beaverton exhibit at Oregon Agricultural College Friday and Saturday. Apples, walnuts, fruits, and even a string of garlic as well as many other products of the Beaverton country helped to make the booth attractive. The Beaverton booth was under the direction of Miss Danta Robbins, a Junior in physical education.

The booth was considered one of the most attractive of those exhibited. The variety of the products was one thing which attracted the attention of many of the visitors.

The educational exposition is a new idea at O. A. C. The purpose of the exposition is to encourage high school students to decide upon their careers before they are graduated from the high school. Dr. Thomas Arkle Clark, dean of men at the University of Illinois, was the principal speaker at the exposition. Dr. Clark delivered a series of addresses before the delegates upon the value of choosing a profession before coming to college and upon the value of an education.

The attention of many of the visitors was attracted by the style show in the men's gymnasium. All types of dresses and hats were exhibited by the college young women. All the dresses and hats worn in the style show were made by the girls in the classes in the school of home economics.

The program for the entertainment of the visitors was a varied one. Athletic events, including a wrestling match and a basketball game as well as a swimming exhibition and an exhibition of the girls' physical education department helped to entertain the visitors.

Principal J. P. McGlasson, Jark Malarkey, Georgianna Markey, Ernest Nichols, and Jean Smith were the official delegates from Beaverton.

The total number of official delegates registered at the exposition was 632.

CAR DAMAGES

FILLING STATION

About three o'clock Friday morning, L. E. Squires, Manager of the filling station at the forks of the street in the east part of town, was rudely awakened by what, he said, sounded like two box cars coming together with a tremendous crash. When he got outside his home he found that a car belonging to Ivan Moad of 1620 Macadam St., Portland, had crashed into the front of the filling station office.

The driver, a young man employed by Moad to take the Morning Oregonian from Beaverton to Vernonia, had failed to make the turn and had gone head on into one of the big pumps, breaking it off short, and ended up by breaking in the front of the office building. It is thought he could not see the turn at the "Y". The damage is estimated at about $500 to the filling station and $100 to the car.

COUNTY AGENT NEWS

At the annual meeting of the Washington County Guernsey breeders club held at Hillsboro a week ago Friday H. T. Hesse, of Scholls was elected president, A. B. Flint, Scholls, vice-president, and O. T. McWhorter, secretary.

The Oregon Guernsey Gaities which will be held in this county this year was the special order of business. The following committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements to care for this event: Mrs. W. A. Goodin, Mr. and Mrs. John Mulloy, John Spies and A. B. Flint, the county agent, and secretary of the Hillsboro Chamber of Commerce to act in ex-officio capacity.

R. Frank Peters, president of the Hillsboro Chamber of Commerce offered whatever assistance the Chamber of Commerce could give to the Guernsey breeders and farmers of Washington County. E. L. Moore offered his services in connection with making the Guernsey Gaities a successful event.

The next meeting of the Guernsey breeders will be held March 1st at the Hillsboro Chamber of Commerce rooms.

DER PATTOR OF

DER SHINGLES

When der angry passion gadder-ing
In my mudder's face I see,
Und she leads me in her bedroom
Shendly lays me on her knee,
Den I know dot I will ceten it,
Und my flesh in fancy itches
As I listen for der patten
Of der shingles on my breeches.
Efery tinkle of der shingle
Has an echo und a shding,
Und a dousand burning fancies
Into active being spring;
Und a dousand bees und hornets
Need my coad-dail seem to schwarm
As I feel der patten of der shingles,
Oh, so varin.

In a sudden fudermission
Vich appears my only senance,
I say, "Shtrike shendly, mudder,
Or you'll shplit mine Sunday
bants;"
She shlops a moment, draws her
breath,
Der shingles holds aloft,
Und says, "I had not thought of dot—
Mine son, chust dake dem off."

OIL LEASES

J. C. Grimes of Texas is in this vicinity leasing oil land. They have about 800 acres already leased. They require lease on 2000 acres and in case they secure this amount they agree to start drilling as soon as they can get the machinery on the ground. In case they can not get 2000 acres signed up they will abandon the field.

It surely looks good. If we want a well put down here we better get busy. If the people here do not want a well put down here all they have to do is to say so when the leaser comes along.

LOGAN RIDGE

The warm rains are sure making things look like spring is really here.

No school on Monday at the Upper Logan school owing to the illness of Mrs. Swygert, the teacher.

A "full house" was the way to express the crowd that attended the Washington Day exercise at the Upper Logan school on Friday. A splendid program was rendered and a sumptuous lunch served, cafeteria style.

The dance given in the Harding Hall Saturday night by the W. O. W. was well attended. The proceeds were very good but words are weak when applied to the luxurious supper served. All present wished such dances came oftener.

The W. C. T. U. meeting held at the home of Mrs. E. S. Gromer on St. Valentine's day was much enjoyed by the twenty two present. Some serving was done for an ill member. Eight dollars was realized from the free silver tea offering. This amount was appropriated to the fund for the W. C. T. U. Orphanage at Corvallis.

If you've a joke to tell to your friends,
And think that it's worth while,
You'd better put it in the paper,
And make the whole town smile.

HIGH SCHOOL

Washington's birthday was observed in the high school Friday when Col. James J. Crossley of the American Legion addressed the students. Following the flag salute several patriotic songs were sung by the assembly.

The Affirmative debating team will debate with the Tillamook negative team in the grade school auditorium Friday night, Feb. 29. The Negative team of the high school will debate Parkrose at Parkrose the same night.

The delegates who were sent to O. A. C. to the educational exposition returned and said that the exposition was well worth the time and money that was taken. They will give their reports before the assembly in the near future.

Wednesday night, Feb. 27, the local teams played Forest Grove at Beaverton. The Beaverton girls won. The Forest Grove girls won by a score of 14 to 10. Both of the games were very fast. This will probably be the next to the last basketball game that will be played in Beaverton, the last being with Parkrose on March 7.

Friday night, Feb. 27, the local teams played Corbett on the home floor and the two teams sided honors. The Beaverton girls won by a score of 20 to 13. The Corbett boys defeated the Beaverton boys by a score of 17 to 19. The game was very fast and toward the end of the game it was very doubtful which team would be victorious.

Wednesday night, Feb. 29, a triple header basket ball game was held in the high school. The first game was between the Beaverton Freshmen girls and the Kinton Freshmen girls. It resulted in a victory for the local girls by a score of 16 to 1. The second game was between the Midget team of the high school and the Midget team of Tualatin. This was the most exciting and hardest fought game of the evening. At the end of the allotted time the score stood a tie so the teams agreed to play another 5 minutes to play it off but at the end of that time the score was still a tie, so another five minutes was played. At the end of that time the Midget's score was 13 while their opponents was 11. The last game was between the 135 pound team of Beaverton and the 135 lb. team of Tualatin. The score was 21 to 10 in favor of Beaverton.

A modern filling station will take the place of the Aloha Garage at Aloha. The garage was formerly owned and operated by C. B. Wooden and F. H. Ternstedt but was recently taken over by Mr. J. H. Sidwell, who is putting up a new building. The new station will be open for business on or about March 15.

Traffic Cop: "Get along there! What's the matter with you?"
Truck Driver: "I'm all right, thanks, but my engine's dead."

Timely Reminders For Farmers

Suggestions Sent Out by O. A. C. to Answer Perplexing Questions For Farmers

Asparagus once planted is good for many years. It is one of the first vegetables to be ready for use in the spring. It will grow well under a variety of soil and climatic conditions. Asparagus is best when served a few hours after cutting, hence its added value as a farm vegetable. A circular on planting is available at O. A. C.

A movement is on throughout the state to encourage the farmers to take better care of the cream. As warm weather approaches, the cream should be kept cool at all times. It is a good habit to separate right after milking because the cream is at a very good temperature then to get maximum results. Do not add warm cream to cold cream. Shipment of cream should be made at least twice a week. It is impossible to make first grade butter from second grade cream, and second grade butter will not sell at first grade prices. The farmer pays the bill!

Growers of stone fruits who have had trouble with Monilia blossom blight are urged to prepare to spray with bordeaux mixture 4-4-50 just before the blossoms open. The object of the application is to kill the spores which are being produced by the dried spurs killed the year before. This precaution will eliminate most of the sources of blossom infection.

Apricot are always sprayed with bordeaux at this stage because the Monilia blight is destructive to the fruit.

BEE FEEDS ARE SHORT IN FEBRUARY

Bees are likely to run short of stores in February, says the Oregon experiment station. They are watched closely, and when a shortage is noticed a sugar syrup is fed to take the place of honey. To prepare, sugar and water are stirred together in the ratio of two parts of sugar to one part of water. One teaspoonful of tartaric acid is added to every 20 pounds of sugar. Water near the boiling point is used to mix with the sugar but care is taken not to scorch the syrup in making.

Syrup is fed to the bees by pouring into a friction-top bucket, in the lid of which has been punched 50 to 75 holes with a "ath nail. The bucket is placed upside down over the frame of the hive. The top of the hive is then covered with an empty hive body which will fit over the bucket. Several layers of newspaper are placed over the hive for warmth, between the cover and the hive proper, with a hole cut large enough to fit the bucket.

Extra! Fire Drill! Extra!

Frank Griffith is hauling wood this week.

William Lichty has returned to California.

The road near the Larsen place is being improved.

Mike Duriza is attending school at Portland Y. M. C. A.

In the springtime is a good time to subscribe for the Beaverton Review.

Mr. John George has just recently returned from a business trip to California.

Sophie Tonges does excellent work in arithmetic at school and is some ball player!

They say wedding bells will soon be ringing! Let'er go. We got the cow bells ready. Ha! Ha!

After a long absence caused by illness Edith Stoffer is back in school again. We are all here now.

Have you noticed about this time of year on the ranch the boys are so willing to gather the eggs?

Mesdames Adam Spies, John Spies and Charles Spies and children were welcome visitors at school Friday.

Tuesday, County Superintendent, Emma Bryant of Hillsboro visited the local school and gave a talk on Club work.

Mr. James Jackson gave us a pleasant call Monday at school. Mr. Jackson is a prominent resident of this community.

The boys elected Donald Jackson, Captain of 1924 Baseball team and Grace Duriza was chosen La Capitina of Girl's squad.

John Carlson star twirler of Cooper Mountain, season 1923 came over to visit his old friends Thursday and we all had a skookum time playing ball.

The boys have erected high poles in place for a back stop on the baseball diamond at school. The teacher furnished the netting and the umpire will soon yell, "Play Ball!"

In the course of human events sometimes they put one over on the old folks about the weather—but it is a hard trick to fool the children in different school districts as to who gave them good times in past years—isn't it funny.

First fire drill staged Monday was a great success. All the students marched out of the building by music in double-quick time. Irene Zuercher at the organ and Edwin Stoffer ringing Fire Gong. Time, 49 seconds, flat!

Everybody at school is looking forward to a great time Easter at school. We are going to have a big egg hunt. It is something new here. About 1000 eggs will be hidden on the school grounds, then the fun will begin, to see who will find the greatest number.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal, Expert photographers of Portland called Wednesday and took a picture of our school, and paid the district a wonderful compliment. Mr. Neal stated he had taken over 300 pictures of different schools this year and that this school had the best discipline of any he had visited.

Valentine's day was a howling success. A beautiful valentine box was arranged for the pupils. Donald Jackson was McKinley's first Post Master and made good. Everybody got many valentines and in the bottom of the valentine box was a big parcel post package for the scholars. Six visitors were present and one friend, John Carlson of Cooper Mountain came a day ahead of time—but got three packages in his mail just the same.

About the Union High School proposition. McKinley school district is not compelled to join either crowd. Why not vote, No! Keep the money in your pocket. Maybe some day we will want a high school right here. Build up community centers and the boys and girls won't be leaving the farms. Every one of our great men and women have attended the country school. It develops individuality and not machines. In America we don't want every body to think alike. Give us different opinions. Give us more Andrew Jacksons! Garfields! and Abe Lincoln!
