Church School Program Given

Graduation Exercises Were Held Sunday at the Local Catholic Church. Diplomas Presented.

Anyone who enjoys the good old fashioned sort of a school exhibition could not help being pleased with the program rendered by the St. Cecilia school program given Sunday, June 1, at the Beaverton Catholic church.

The room was prettily decorated with flags and aunting interspersed with flowers of all sorts. The program included all the pupils of the school, some who would not make by even the wildest stretch of the imagination, a good appearance on the legitimate stage and some who could probably be trained to make a livelihood by acting or singing or both.

The first number, "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean" was rendered by the whole school in a manner which the writer thinks could be improved upon. The children knew the song all right but there was a little lack of the zest which we like to see in that good old song. The next number rendered by R. Bettendorf was short, and well delivered, and he made a big hit with his "Grater." The dialog by two girls, one who wished to sell her baby brother and one who wished to buy such a baby was good. The song by several children, a part of the refrain of which was "When sleepy time comes, I love my mother best" was very pleasing and well rendered. F. Rigert gave that one about he did not know whether he "vos Hans, vot vos living oder Jacob vot vos ded." The Juniors then rendered several selections which brought down the house. The one who was going to be a politician and have the babies named after him was especially good.

The song, "We're the Boys" was a "too high pitched" for the boys who gave it though it was well learned. F. Hennessy's recitation where he wanted everything was just fair. The moral of the "Dog and Der Lobster" given by A. Rigert was cute and funny, the moral being, "Don't try to find out too much."

H. Liebrich in his history lesson thought that everything happened in 1492. The song by the "Tiny Tots" was very good indeed, some of the players having that natural way that is so pleasing when seen on the stage. The advice of the "Little Pitchers" was that one should be careful what he says before children. The little skit by L. Smith was very good. The dialog, "Buying Eggs," showed what might be accomplished by a little judicious flatters administered in the right way.

That these children are not lacking in patriotic training was indicated by the manner in which they decorated the grave of the departed soldier which was given under the title, "Memorial Exercises." "The Old Orchard Swing," though an old-tune, was a new one on the writer and was well rendered.

At the close of the exercises Father O'Neill gave a short address and presented the diplomas. He thought that as there were several of the graduates who had received a mark of 100 on their papers on civil government (the science of government) in the state examination, that these at least should be rated at 100 per cent Americans.

Those receiving diplomas are: John Ring, Barbara Benson, Annunziata Merlo, David Merlo, Aloysius Gauger and Daniel Ring.

Alfalfa is extremely hardy after it is once established but is tender in its first few weeks of growth. It is often a successful competitor of Canada thistles as well as other vigorous weeds after it has obtained a foothold but in the early stages it is sometimes killed out by thick growths of weeds or grain. In unirrigated soils alfalfa is best planted alone on land that is free from weeds. Good stands are usually obtained when the seed is sown alone following a cultivated crop like corn or potatoes, if the land is worked before seeding to eliminate weed growth.

Harvey Pinder and family have returned from a trip to Long Beach, California.

GIRLS SCOUTS TO BE ORGANIZED HERE

An organization of Girl Scouts has been started in Beaverton and any and all girls of the proper age, etc., are eligible to join.

It has for its purposes the ideals as those sister organizations, the Camp Fire Girls and the Girl Reserves, namely, the development of character and instilling the qualities of self reliance and leadership. Mrs. Willis Gady is leader of the troop with Miss Edna Hulbert as her assistant. Betty Huntley and Alice Stricker are temporarily acting as patrol leaders. Mothers of the members or of girls who would care to join are invited to confer with these leaders and assist in creating in Beaverton a strong branch of this national group.

PRESIDENT CAMPBELL GIVES $30,000.00

A gift of $30,000.00 from P. L. Campbell, president of the University of Oregon, and family, brings the total subscriptions to the alumni fund of the University Gift Campaign to $312,232. The president's gift was made in the names of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. E. A. Hassan and Walter Church of Berkeley, California.

Graduates and former students are giving liberally to the fund, which is to be used for sorely needed buildings, particularly a new library building on the campus at Eugene. Contributions are being received from all parts of the country. Alumni in New York City have sent $4400, Boston $4480, Washington D. C. $1140, Los Angeles $3000, Spokane $2960, Berkeley $1950, Vancouver $1140, Seattle $2565, Medford $3550. These figures represent only a part of what can be expected before the campaign is over.

One graduate in Portland, a v u student with a total capital of 50 cents, worked his way through the Columbia University Law school in New York City, gave $2500 to the fund. He said he estimated that his education cost the university $1200, and he wanted to pay it back with heavy interest.

Town Council Met Tuesday

Bills Presented and Allowed, A Petition Asking Street Improvements Presented Formally

The regular meeting of the town Council which is scheduled to be held on the first Monday of the month was postponed on Tuesday evening.

A good many bills were presented for consideration. Among them was that of the City of Portland for the water used during May, which ran into the hundreds of dollars. A bill for something like twenty-five dollars from Mr. Max Grandall, salary for the month of May, several small bills from the City Marshall, probably aggregating $50 or $60, the North Coast Power Co. for street lights and several other small items. To the best of our knowledge the bills were allowed as presented.

The report of Mr. Grandall, who has audited the city books for the whole time the present mayor and recorder have been in office was presented, adopted and ordered to be placed on the file. This report spoke in the highest terms of the work done by the city recorder and took the occasion to highly commend the city in having as efficient an accountant to keep record of the transactions of the municipality. It went so far as to state that every cent taken in was accounted for, that the balances were accurate to the cent and that the work had been done in a very creditable and efficient manner. A part of the report was ordered printed in the Beaverton Review and we hope to be able to give it space in these columns very soon.

The resignation of Mr. Frank Hoeken as councilman was read and accepted. But no mention was made as to whom his successor would be. We believe it would be no more than right to offer the position to Mr. Hughson, who received the next higher number of votes at the election last fall if our memory is not at fault.

A resolution calling for the improvement of West Street from the Morse Hall north to the end of the street and of several other streets in Hoeken's third addition to Beaverton was presented and adopted and the city engineer ordered to make an estimate of the cost of the improvement.

The committee from the Commercial Club presented the matter of the passageway between the Southern Pacific depot and Broadway where the temporary passageway is now open. The Council advised the committee that there were no funds available at this time for the purchase of this land, and appointed Mr. Gus Rossi a committee of one to act in conjunction with the committee from the Commercial Club to see what could be done toward raising the necessary amount, $200.00. Mr. Rossi is a good man for the place and we hope that the money can be raised speedily for this purpose.

Before adjourning, the Council decided to call another meeting for Tuesday evening, June 10, to try again to organize a volunteer fire department for Beaverton. The meeting will be held in the city hall and everyone is urged to attend.

AUSTIN-WOODEN MARRIAGE

Miss Alfreda Austin and Mr. Beverly Wooden were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents Saturday, May 24 with Mr. Lee Carr acting as attendant upon the bridegroom and Miss Nellie Millet as bridesmaid. Miss Fern Powell sang and Miss Verna Bale played the march for the procession. The Misses Bable Stricker and Ruth Filley preceded the bridal march as flower girls. The Rev. Kraft of Portland pronounced the ceremony in the beautifully decorated parlor.

Besides the parents of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Austin and Mrs. Frances Wooden, there were present Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stricker, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wooden, Mrs. Ed Ward, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Olds, Mrs. Minney Riley, the Misses Fern Powell, Freida Zimbrick, Lena Matzke, Edna Hulbert, Elva Ekstrom, Verna Bale, Nellie Millet, Alice and Mable Stricker, and Ruth Filley; and Lee Carr, Steven Wooden, Joe museig, Enice Quenelle, and Wilbur Weed.

A delicious wedding supper was served and congratulations extended to the happy couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Wooden are at home to friends at Bertha Station.

BRIEF SYNOPSIS OF "THE SILENT STRANGER"

Dad Warner who owns the general store and is postmaster of Valley City, is warned by the authorities that in the event of another mail robbery in his district, he will be relieved of his duties. Blackwell, a resident of Valley City, is engaged to Lillian Warner, Dad Warner's pretty daughter.

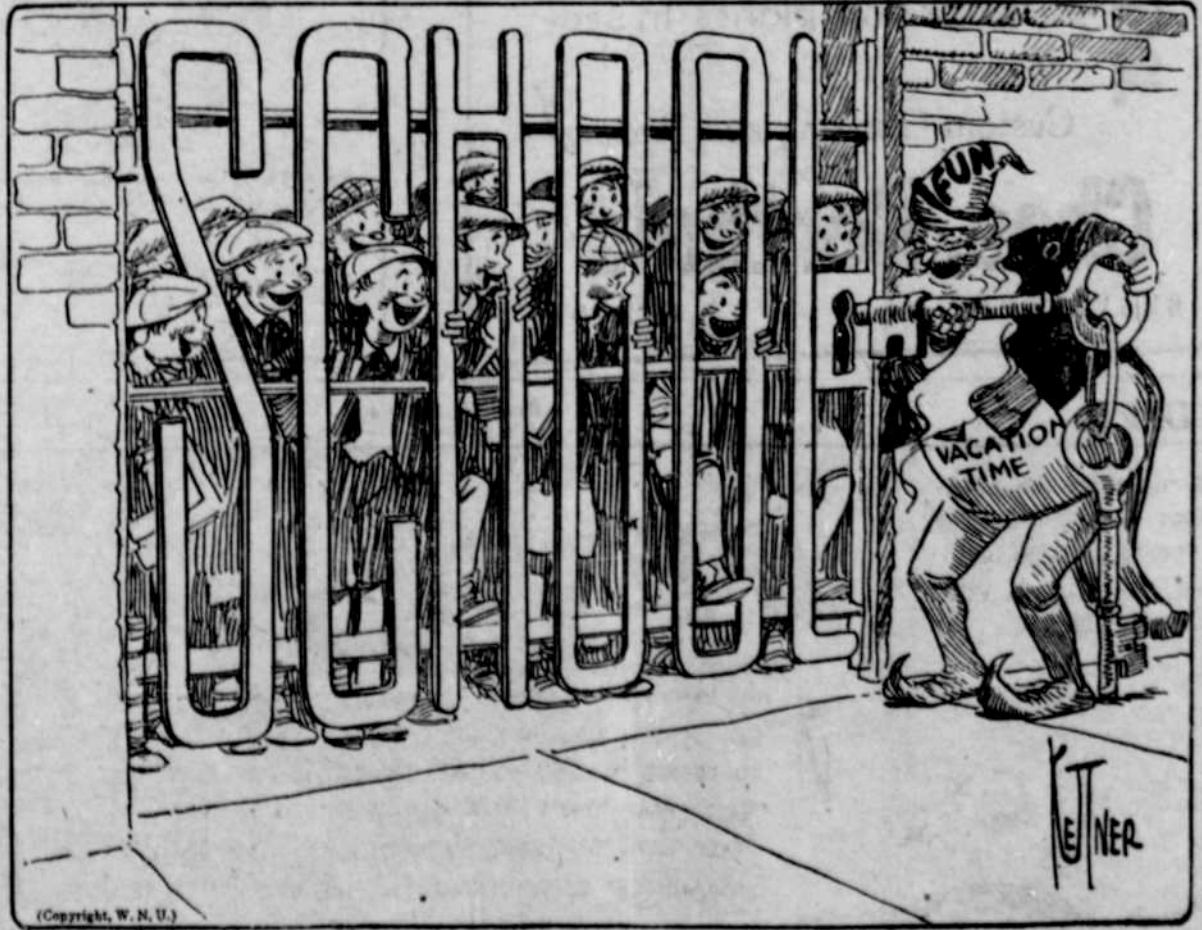

Jack Taylor, who is supposed to be deaf and dumb as a result of shell shock, comes to Valley City, with his horse Silver King. He is met by the sheriff upon his arrival in the town, and is challenged, but Jack proves his innocence. When Jack meets Blackwell he is instantly suspicious of him.

Jack is introduced to Lillian Warner, and falls in love with her.

Blackwell is in reality the leader of a gang of mail thieves. With the aid of Silver King, Jack cleverly rounds them up, secures the reward of $5,000 offered by the government for the arrest of the thief, and he and Lillian find happiness in their mutual love. Jack has merely assumed the role of a deaf and dumb man to round up the thieves.

Before adjourning, the Council decided to call another meeting for Tuesday evening, June 10, to try again to organize a volunteer fire department for Beaverton. The meeting will be held in the city hall and everyone is urged to attend.

BIRDS INJURING

STRAWBERRY CROP

Last Sunday your editor visited the farm of Mr. C. V. Syverson upon Cooper Mt. While he was there Mr. Syverson took him out to the strawberry patch upwards of 5 acres. He told us that he had contracted with Ray-Maling Co. of Hillsboro for four tons of strawberries. He expected to begin picking last Monday. While out in the patch the host showed how the birds were injuring the berries by picking off the seeds, causing the berries to dry up and die instead of ripening. While he wasn't sure, he thought it was the goldfinches which were doing the damage.

ANOTHER FIRE

MEETING COMING

The City Council at their meeting last Tuesday evening decided that they would call another meeting for the purpose of organizing a volunteer fire department for Beaverton. The meeting is called for Tuesday evening, June 10th, at the City Hall.

It is the duty of every citizen of Beaverton to attend this meeting. At the previous meeting, which was held in the high school auditorium, such a small number of citizens was present that it was not possible to attempt any sort of organization whatsoever.
