Jumping to conclusions is often jumping at delusions.

The female of the species is more deadly than the jail.

Some people could say what they think and still be quiet.

An old maxim—A stitch in time saves nine—cuss' words.

Good roads are about the best advertisement a town can offer.

When a man is full of himself there isn't room for much else.

When a woman looks her best she finds what she is out after.

What you can buy for a song is very seldom worth singing about.

Stepping to one side never gets you any nearer to the front.

Turn up your nose at other people and they will turn you down.

One good turn deserves another, and one bad turn usually gets another.

Never put on until tomorrow what the advance styles say to put on today.

Unless he is a servant, serving others, no boss can long remain a boss.

A spendthrift is one who spends all his money to prove that he has it.

The only man who can say your head is dirty and get away with it is the barber.

A novelist says: "Her face was always thoroughly rouged before she left home."

Man seldom gets the last word, but he can beat any woman slamming the door.

The chief interest in life with some people is the eight per cent they get on their money.

They took eight stitches in the head of a Dallas, Texas auto driver who forgot to use it.

Since this is the age of speed, wouldn't it be great if next summer arrived about February?

An acrobatic career is the dream of childhood for about a week after the circus leaves town.

And sometimes we think that maybe a man's wife is a nag because she is married to a jackass.

Leap Year's gone, and the women didn't propose to the men any more than they generally do.

Not all pessimists are dead, but one is. A St. Louis man when he died asked to be buried without any clothes.

It must take a girl a long time to get out of the habit of getting into her knickers without sliding them over her head.

If the fat lady in the circus could only write, no doubt she would write a sequel to one of the best sellers and call it "Too Big."

There is nothing which will develop will power and concentration like chasing a short story through the advertising pages of a modern magazine.

A cave of forty rooms has been discovered in Colorado, in which the temperature is equal all the year around. It is evil.

dently a cave-man apartment house with ideal janitor service.

After the alienist retires the next expert witness to become popular in courtroom news, will be the one who can tell whether the short hairs found on the shoulders of a divorce defendant's coat are those of a man or of a woman.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY
February 1
Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.—Matt. 5:8.

February 2
He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor. A faithful man shall abound in blessings; but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent.—Proverbs 28:8, 20.

February 3
O Lord, Thou art my God: I will exalt Thee, I will praise Thy name: for Thou hast done wonderful things. . . . Thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat.—Isaiah 25:1, 4.

February 4
The work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever. And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in quiet resting places.—Isaiah 32:17, 18.

February 5
Better is a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than a house, full of sacrifices with strife.—Proverbs 17:1.

February 6
The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.—Phil. 4:7.

February 7
Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord.—Deuteronomy 6:4.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
BIBLE ANSWERS
February 1
How are we to know if the law is good?—1 Tim. 1:8.

February 2
From what source do good gifts come?—Jas. 1:17.

February 3
Is the harvest proportionate to the sowing?—Gal. 6:7.

February 4
When is a dry morsel preferable?—Prov. 17:1.

February 5
Whom should we honor?—Ex. 20:12.

February 6
What is said of the foolish son?—Prov. 10:13.

February 7
How are lilies compared to human life?—Matt. 6:29.

STATE LAWMAKERS ORGANIZE PROMPTLY

In producing a satisfactory budget and believes that the establishment of a full-time budget department only will bring about the desired results.

Curbing of the present promiscuous system of salary adjustments is also contemplated by the report in a recommendation that all fees collected by the various state departments be thrown into the general fund and direct appropriations made from that fund for the administration of the departments.

Portents of strife over normal schools are appearing. Oregon now has one normal, located at Monmouth, and this institution desires a substantial sum for enlargement and improvements. There is also a demand for the creation of other normals, one in southern Oregon and one in eastern Oregon. Self-interest will supply the friction which will come over these matters.

Road Bills to be Numerous.
Highway legislation will be voluminous. There will be bills to increase the tax on gasoline. Bills to reduce the motor vehicle license fees; bills for permanent franchises for bus lines; bills regulating headlights; bills for having the state police the highways and prohibit "speed traps" in small towns; bills to amend the state market road law so that counties can use these funds for matching state and federal road money, and fully a score of other highway measures. Their name will be legion.

A measure will authorize the highway commission to issue bonds up to the 4 per cent constitutional limitation. The commission has made authority now but wants it made more specific. The governor wants to repeal the 1/4 mill road tax and there is a bill to have this tax devoted to buying parks and scenic points on state highways.

Legislative Brevities.
Senator Johnson of Benton introduced a bill providing that the dates for paying taxes in Oregon be changed from April 5 to May 5.

With 16 senators supporting it on a rising vote, the senate went on record as favoring the leasing of Muscle Shoals as against its operation as a government project.

Because of the many errors that have been discovered in laws enacted at previous sessions of the legislature the senate this year has employed an expert proof reader to pass on all bills before they are engrossed.

A stringent regulation of country dance halls would be enforced under a house bill introduced by Swan of Linn county.

Three full pardons, eight reprieves.

A Bathroom In Every Home

The rental or sale value of any dwelling is greatly increased with the installation of a complete, modern bathroom. Property values are invariably higher when there is a bath in every home.

The family's health is not properly protected unless you have adequate bathing and toilet equipment. Your house cannot be comfortable until you install a modern sanitary bathroom. Waiting longer is needless. We will install modern plumbing in your home. Ask for particulars.
