You cultivate your fields, care for your trees, feed, water, and protect your live stock—Why? To preserve their value and productivity!

Buildings need the same protection. They, too, have a value and usefulness, which time and the elements are ceaselessly striving to steal from you.

It pays to keep all buildings well preserved.

Ask your banker or realtor!

Information and suggestions on paint and painting cheerfully given.

PROCLAMATION

To the citizens of the Town of Beaverton:

Having in mind the welfare of the town, its continued good name and prosperity:

WHEREAS, the City of Portland will entertain many large conventions during the ensuing months; and

WHEREAS, Beaverton being in close proximity will be visited by many of the convention delegates; and

WHEREAS, it is our wish to leave with them a good impression of our city, it behooves us, the Citizens of Beaverton, to put forth some effort to clean up our town; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, that I, W. E. Pegg, Mayor of Beaverton, do hereby proclaim the week of May 25th as clean-up week, and ask the hearty support of our citizens in eliminating tin cans, rubbish and any unsightly conditions now existing.

W. E. Pegg, Mayor.
Geo. Thyng, Recorder.
