We are queer people, and if a man announces a cure for existing evils we call him a nut.

Personally, we do all of our dieting tomorrow—we're always much too hungry today for any such nonsense.

From the good you will learn good; if you mix with the bad you will lose what little sense you have.

Women can be divided into three classes: Those who are going to reduce, those who are reducing, and those who have already reduced.

Never mind about "genius," my children. If you have it, all well and good; if you have not, hitting hard ticks is the next best thing to do.

Happiness, of all elusive things, is so elusive that often one doesn't know that he has it. But years afterwards he realizes when it was his.

By cutting the right nerve, these Australian surgeons can cure all partial paralysis except that above the ears. We suppose that is usually permanent.

If ideas and words were distinctly weighed and duly considered, they would afford us another sort of logic and critic than what we have been hitherto acquainted with.

The last word in luxury for the pet dog living in an apartment house is a sleeping basket, equipped with mattress and bedcovers, and painted in color designs to match or harmonize with the room decorations. What will they do next?

YOUNG FOREST PROTECTOR WINS PRAISE

Eleven-year-old Trevor Kavanaugh of Dryden, Wash., subdued his force at 11 P. M. on the night of May 2, and rode from the T. & S. Ranch to the nearest telephone, a mile and a half away, to report a forest fire to the forest ranger. The next day he carried water and lunches for the fire fighters, and helped in the suppression of the fire. A simple act of good citizenship! And yet a striking contrast to thoughtless thousands who leave smoldering camp fires or toss matches and cigarette stubs into the brush and twigs along a forest roadside.

According to Forest Ranger Chartrand, to whom the fire was reported, it threatened valuable yellow pine timber, and might have done serious damage but for the prompt action of young Kavanaugh.

Appreciating the value of the service rendered, Chartrand forwarded a report of the incident, which has just come to the attention of Secretary of Agriculture W. M. Jardine. The Secretary has written Trevor a personal letter of commendation. After recounting the incidents which make this boy's action so commendable, the Secretary's letter concludes:

"I am writing this letter to thank you on behalf of the Department of Agriculture, which is charmed by Uncle Sam with taking care of our Forests. By extinguishing this fire and giving notice of it so that it could be extinguished, you have rendered a very real public service and you are entitled to the thanks of the Government. I have not the opportunity to shake hands with you and tell you this personally, so I am doing the next best thing, letting you know of my appreciation by letter."

To young ladies who are convinced that promiscuous kissing is both vulgar and very dangerous, let us suggest a diet of onions. An onion a day keeps the Doctor away—also other people!

Brown Sugar Cookies—Sift together a scant sifterful flour two heaping teaspoons cream of tartar, one teaspoon soda. Make hole in flour, drop in two cups light brown sugar, one cup butter, one teaspoon vanilla and one of lemon extract, four eggs. Work all together well with hands. Roll out rather thin, then drop a teaspoonful of filling onto a cookie and place another cookie on top, then bake. These are also fine made just as plain cookies. Mrs. W. J. Alexander Filling for Cookies—2 cups of raisins or dates chopped fine, one cup sugar, two teaspoonfuls flour, one cup water. Mix together well, and let boil for a few minutes.—Mrs. W. J. Alexander.

When making juicy pies in which often a little flour is sprinkled on bottom crust and on top of fruit try this instead. I think it is very satisfactory. Mix what flour and sugar you wish to use in a bowl and drop fruit in this and mix thoroughly.—Mrs. W. J. Alexander.

RUPTURE EXPERT IN OREGON

F. H. Seeley, of Chicago and Philadelphia, the noted truss expert, will personally be at the Electric Hotel, and will remain in Oregon City Saturday only, June 13. Mr. Seeley says, "The Spermatic Shield will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in 10 days on the average case. Being a vast advancement over all former methods—exemplifying instantaneous effects immediately appreciable and withstanding any strain or position no matter the size or location. Large or difficult cases, or occasional ruptures (following operations) specially solicited. This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain, producing results without surgery, injections, medical treatments, or prescriptions. Warning—All cases should be cautioned against the use of any elastic or web truss with understraps, as the same rest where the lump is and not where the opening is, producing complications necessitating surgical operations. Mr. Seeley has documents from the United States Government, a Washington, D. C., for inspection. He will be glad to demonstrate without charge or fit them if desired. Business demands prevent stopping at any other place in this section. P. S.—Every statement in his notice has been verified before the Federal and State Courts.—F. H. Seeley.

A POPULAR JOKE

OF GRANDMA'S DAY

The fresh young traveling man put on his most seductive smile as the pretty waitress glided up to his table in the hotel dining room, and remarked: "Nice day, little one."

"Yes, it is," she replied, "and so was yesterday, and my name is Ella, and I know I'm a little peach and have lovely eyes, and I have been here quite a while, and I like the place, and I don't think I'm too nice a girl to be working here. If I did I'd quit the job. My wages are satisfactory, and I don't think there is a show or dance in town to-night, and if there was I would not go with you. I'm from the country and I'm a respectable girl, and my brother is cook in this hotel and he is a college football player and weighs two hundred pounds. Last week he pretty near ruined a twenty-five-dollar-a-week traveling man who tried to make a date with me. Now, what'll you have—roast beef, roast pork, Irish stew, Hamburger, or fried liver?"

A READY SYMPATHIZER
Gent (to cab driver)—Will ya drive a bit faster? My mother-in-law must not miss the train. Cabby—Don't worry, sir. I'll drive as though it were my own mother-in-law.

MILL DEAD LETTER OFFICE

Everyone knows his own address. If not that of his correspondent, a return address on each piece of mail would put the Dead Letter Office out of business.

A cross-word puzzle can be solved. But who can tell the destination of a letter without an address? Even if your mind is a blank put an address on your letters.
