We believe that a man has to be raised to it to enjoy loafing.

What happens to a man's word when he will not keep it, and no one else will take it?

We pity the cross-eyed man. He is always in danger of getting "pinched" for looking crooked.

Now comes the vacation season. And then will come the season for resting from our vacation.

The hardest job in the world is that of stuffing a cat hole full of hot butter with a red hot poker.

Drive and your friends ride with you; walk and you stand a good chance of being run over by a stranger.

Girls used to marry for money. Now some of them seem to be satisfied with just an automobile.

Few people suffer more than some of our citizens when there's a stranger in town and they can't learn his business.

Almost every married man would feel crushed if they all knew the kind of husbands that their wives thought they were getting.

If you can't remember all of the swimming rules you ever heard, try to remember that using common sense is the best of all of them.

What has become of the old-fashioned parents who used to hope for a girl baby on the grounds that girls give less worry than boys.

Beaverton wives will tell you that about the only sweeping reform needed in the home is one that will get the cobwebs out of the corners.

The reason that Venus de Milo was so popular in the good old days is that when a fellow wanted to hug her she had no arms to make him stop.

Now they say that cockroaches carry cancer germs. But we couldn't hate a cockroach more than we do now even if he didn't carry them.

If a popular Beaverton girl had three gentleman friends whose names were respectively William, William, and William, could it be properly said that she had the "Willies"?

Extract from a Southern paper: "General Lee wore a brand new Confederate uniform with gray sombrero, chamois riding gloves, and black boots. All that General Grant wore was a dirty old Union suit."

OPERATOR'S PERSISTENCE PREVENTS TRAIN WRECK

If it had not been for the persistent efforts of Mrs. Harriet Brooks, night operator of the telephone office at Centralia, a midnight train known as the Owl on the Oregon-Washington Railroad would probably have been wrecked one night recently, owing to a slide between Balch and Independence.

When the Centralia operator heard of the slide she tried to intercept the train at Aberdeen and also at Montesano, but it was too late to get the message through in time. She then called the Oakville office to catch some one at Cedarville in time to flag the train at that point.

Ernest Anderson, who received the call, had barely sufficient time to rush to the railroad track with a danger signal ahead of the approaching train, but he succeeded in doing so and the train was sent back to Montesano and from that point on over the Northern Pacific tracks to Centralia.

VALUABLE HOUSEHOLD RECIPES AND SUGGESTIONS

Tomato Soup—One pint of tomato pulp or canned tomato soup, one and one-half cups of evaporated milk, one and one-half cups water, salt and pepper to taste, one-eighth teaspoon of soda. Bring tomato pulp or soup to a boil, add the seasonings and soda. Beat the milk and water and combine slowly with the tomato mixture.

Stirred Eggs—One-half cup of evaporated milk, one-half cup of water, one-eighth teaspoon of pepper, one-fourth teaspoon of paprika, six eggs, two tablespoons fat, grated cheese. Beat the eggs, add the milk, water, and seasonings. Melt the fat in a frying pan. Add the egg mixture and stir until the mixture is creamy. When almost done, sprinkle with the grated cheese. Serve on slices of bread, toast, or crackers.

Caramel Custard—One cup of evaporated milk diluted with one cup water, three eggs, one-fourth cup sugar (caramelized), two tablespoons sugar, one-eighth teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon vanilla. Scald the diluted milk. Caramelize sugar, and add to milk to dissolve. Beat eggs slightly, add sugar, salt, and flavoring, and combine with scalded milk. Pour into custard cups and set in a pan of hot water and cook in a moderate oven. When done, a knife blade run in the center will come out clean.

Fish Chowder—One pint raw fish cut in one-inch pieces, six small sliced potatoes, two finely chopped onions, one-fourth pound of sliced fat salt pork, three cups boiling water, one cup evaporated milk diluted with one cup water, six crackers. Fry out the salt pork. When brown, remove pieces of pork and put fish, potatoes, and the onions in kettle. Cover with the boiling water. Simmer until the potatoes are tender. Add the milk and cook for five minutes longer. Season with salt and pepper. Just before serving add the crackers.

Celery and Cheese Casserole—One cup cheese, two cups of chopped celery, one-half cup of evaporated milk, one-half cup water, two tablespoons flour, 1 tablespoon butter, one cup of cooked spaghetti, one-half cup buttered bread crumbs, one-half teaspoon salt. Make white sauce of milk, water, butter, flour and salt, and mix it with all the ingredients except the crumbs. Then place it in an oiled baking dish and cover with crumbs. Bake in a moderate oven until brown.

Chicken a la King—3 cups of cold diced chicken, three tablespoons butter, three tablespoons flour, one-half green pepper (shredded), one-half pimiento (shredded), one cup of evaporated milk, one-fourth pound of mushrooms, one cup of chicken broth, one egg yolk, salt and pepper. Cook the peppers (also mushrooms, if they are used) in the butter for fifteen minutes, keeping them covered while cooking slowly. Add the flour and seasonings, also the milk and broth. Put chicken into sauce to heat, and just before serving stir in the beaten egg yolk. Cook in double boiler to prevent curdling.

Loganberry Cream—½ cup of evaporated milk, one-fourth cup water, one-half cup loganberry juice, two tablespoons lemon juice, pinch of salt. Put all ingredients in a Mason jar and shake thoroughly. Chill and serve in glasses filled one-fourth full of ice chips. Raspberry, blackberry, and cherry juice may be used instead of the loganberry.

Hot Cocoa—Three teaspoons cocoa, three teaspoons sugar, one-fourth cup water, a pinch of salt, one-half cup evaporated milk diluted with one-half cup water, one-eighth teaspoon vanilla. Mix cocoa and sugar thoroughly and add the one-fourth cup water and boil over a low flame for fifteen minutes. Scald the diluted milk and add cocoa syrup and salt. Continue cooking for fifteen minutes in double boiler. Add vanilla. Chill and serve with whipped cream.
