After Next Sunday, Services Will Be Held Regularly in New Congregational Church

According to an announcement made yesterday by Dr. C. E. Mason, chairman of the building committee for the new Bethel Congregational Church, all regular church services will be held in the community room of the new church, starting this next Sunday morning, November 22. The beginners and primary departments of the Sunday school will not move, but will meet as usual in the parsonage, but the other departments will meet in the community room at 9:45 A. M., and this will be followed by the regular preaching services at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. This is important, as it marks the second step in utilizing the new building, and while the auditorium will not be ready for regular services for some time yet it is planned to use the community room as the meeting place.

The first use of this room will take place tonight when the annual bazaar and chicken supper will be given by the Ladies' Aid. The supper will start at 5:30, continuing until 8, when a musical program will be given. All were greatly enthused by the wonderful attendance last Sunday evening, and the promise of meeting in the new community room will be an added attraction this next Sunday evening. The Rev. Geo. N.
