VALUABLE HOUSEHOLD RECIPES AND SUGGESTIONS

CREAM FILLING

Cream filling can be varied in many ways and is the simplest, least expensive type of cooked cake filling. It is not too sweet as are many icing fillings and as it keeps moist it is very good to use between baking powder sponge cake layers or the inexpensive cake mixtures such as was given in the first Master Recipe. Milk is used as a base for the Master Recipe; by changing the liquid to orange juice, crushed pineapple, lemon juice or coffee, you will be able to make a variety of fillings.

TRY IT

It's easy to holler an' kick, An' leave th' hard labor for Dick. But the feller that wins Is the feller that grins. An' works like the very ol' Nick! It's easy to mutter an' frown An' swear that fate's holding you down; But wearin' a smile Will accomplish a pile. An' will hold everybody around. It's easy to cry "Down an' out!" An' say "I can't do it" an' put! But a far better plan Is to laugh all you can— For laughter puts trouble to rout.

NO TIME TO QUIT

There's a time to part and a time to meet,
 There's a time to sleep and a time to eat,
 There's a time to work and a time to play,
 There's a time to sing and a time to pray;
 There's a time that's glad and a time that's blue,
 There's a time to plan and a time to do,
 There's a time to grin and to show your grit—
 But there never was a time to quit.

DO IT NOW!

Have you applied for certificate of title to your motor vehicle?
 The Secretary of State cannot honor applications for 1926 licenses unless title has been first secured from that official.
 Do it now!
 Have you applied for your 1926 motor vehicle license? If not, do it now and relieve yourself of worry later.
 Have you ascertained whether the headlights on your car conform to the present law requirements? If not, do it now and save yourself liability to arrest.
 The light law requires that "when operated at night time over and upon a wet, hard-surface highway and meeting an approaching motor vehicle, the driver of a motor vehicle shall dim his headlights." Do it now!!

Walnut Cream—Master Recipe

One cup milk, one-third cup flour, one-half cup sugar, one egg, one teaspoon butter, one-half teaspoon vanilla, one-half teaspoon lemon extract.

Chocolate French Cream—To Master Recipe

add two tablespoons ground chocolate mixed with the sugar and flour, or melt one square of unsweetened chocolate and add after filling is removed from fire.

Cocoanut Cream—Master Recipe

and one-half cup shredded cocoanut added to milk while scalding.

Pineapple Cream—Master recipe

using one cup pineapple juice for liquid, or one cup of pineapple juice and shredded fruit combined for liquid.

Cream Filling Royal—French Cream Filling

plus one cup of whipped cream folded in after filling is cold. Many prefer this filling to whipped cream.

Raspberry Cream—After you spread French Cream Filling over one layer of cake cover the filling with fresh raspberries slightly mashed and sweetened, or use raspberry preserves. Put layers together and sprinkle top with powdered sugar.

Mocha Cream—Master Recipe

using for the liquid three-fourths cup of strong coffee, and one-fourth cup cream.

Orange Cream—Master Recipe

using for the liquid one cup of orange juice and also adding the grated rind of one orange to the Master Recipe.

Beaver Social Club, O. E. S., will hold their bazaar Wednesday evening, the 2nd of December, in the Masonic hall, at 5 o'clock P. M. Supper will be served from 5:30 to 8:00 P. M. Program. Adv c 52

Autumn Days

Autumn, laden with fruit and stained with the blood of the grape, pass not, but sit beneath my shady roof, there thou mayst rest. And tunc thy lolly voice to my fresh pipe. And all the daughters of the year shall dance! Sing now the lusty song of fruits and flowers. —William Blake

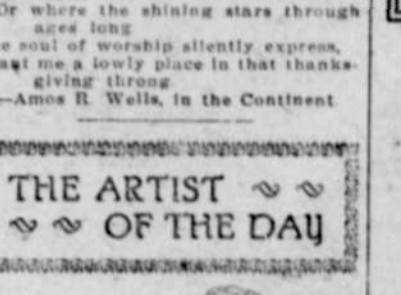

The Moving Sign

Uncle Eph says: "Talking 'bout Thanksgiving, if you're thankful that you're livin', that's a sign you're movin' right along; movin' strong an' steady, an' we're pretty sure you're ready to raise the celestia' thank' ful sign."

Thanksgiving Praise

Alone, dear Lord, of all my sights and days, I cannot sing Thy goodness far too vast For my weak utterance. Let me humbly cast Upon the sweep of universal praise My simple tribute; let the morning raise My anthems for me; let the storied past, In varied ballads nobly matched, Exact the tribute story of Thy ways. Where'er the blossoms glad in lawns bloom, Reflect Thy beauty, or the birds' bright song Has holy skill the Father's love to show, Or where the shining stars through ages long The soul of worship silently express, Grant me a lovely place in that thank-giving throng. —Amos R. Wells, in the Continent

THE END OF A PERFECT DAY

THE ARTIST OF THE DAY

IN HONOR OF A GREAT EVENT

Birthdays are always important occasions, especially if one is very young or very old. Before long The Youth's Companion will be a hundred years old, and the event is going to be made a memorable one for the Companion's many friends. So, although the date is not until April 16, 1927, preparations will begin with 1926. In honor of its birthday the Companion will come to you next year at the new low price of $2.00. It will be dressed in its party clothes, with new cover designs, enlarged illustrations, new brilliantly clear type, and over 200 pages more than last year. It will contain 9 book-length serial stories, fascinating mystery stories, tales of adventure on land and sea, the new "Make-It and Do-It" pages, radio, games, books, and puzzles, interesting special articles, and the ever-delightful children's page. Don't miss this great year of The Youth's Companion; subscribe now and receive:

POLITICS

Roosevelt was considered a great politician as well as a statesman, who had the courage of his convictions. Politics, however, has its various angles of application. Anything to win, is a strong method applied by some.

We should pay tribute to citizenship of honor, unselfishness, and good will, both in public and in private life. Politics becomes distasteful sometimes in communities where factions become embittered.

There is an old saying that "A public office is a public trust." There is a responsibility and confidence in those elected that should have a high ethical tone and equal standard for the public service of that office.

Politics finds methods, cunning, strange combinations, subterfuge. Party pull and favor incite religious prejudices. Politicians stake the cards in many ways, a veneer to fool the public. Anything to win.

The office should seek the man. Are you running your town for politicians and cliques? Is the gap in your town widening? Keep the road smooth. Clarify and cement principles that all may travel for a bigger and more peppy town.

Let's get that ten-cent carfare!

—Fred Koshland
