SPECIAL SPEAKER AT CHURCH SERVICE

In line with their policy of presenting the strongest possible program at the Sunday evening service, the Bethel Congregational Church is happy to announce that it has secured a special speaker for the coming Sunday evening.

Judge Fred J. Bale, who made a record as a juvenile court officer in Ohio, and who is one of the strong men in the Chautauqua lecture field, will deliver his popular lecture on Religious Education at the 7:30 service. He comes to us from a morning engagement at the First Presbyterian Church of Portland, and we wish to extend a cordial invitation to all to take this opportunity of hearing this gifted speaker.

The morning sermon will be given by the pastor, Rev. Geo. N. Taylor. Special music at both services, the orchestra playing in the evening.

FORD GARAGE TO BE OPENED HERE

Mr. Hempstead of Spokane is in town. He reports having rented the Berthold building on Watson Street from J. W. Raymond. He will open up a Ford garage and agency.

Before deciding on locating in Beaverton Mr. Hempstead had the good fortune to meet Frank Hocken, who is now located in Spokane, and he speaks very highly of Mr. Hocken's work in Spokane, and says that with all of Frank's enthusiasm for the Inland Empire, he yet was ardent in his commendations of Beaverton, and spoke very highly in praise of our town.

Mrs. J. J. Henderson is on the sick list.

Mr Carlson reports that the Studio has closed down for the winter.

GRADE SCHOOL

(Lawrence Drewery and Alice Miller, Reporters)

The Grammar School sent a donation of clothing and food to the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society in Portland, just before Christmas. Among the things sent were 64 quarts of canned fruit, many jars of jelly, apples, two sacks of vegetables, several boxes of clothing, and other things. We received a letter from the Society thanking us for our donation and for our interest in the unfortunate children.

The seventh and eighth grades have organized a singing club which meets every Wednesday morning.

Helen Tefft spent her Christmas vacation in Seattle, Wash.

The eighth grade has a spelling contest between two teams. The captains are Lawrence Drewery and Erma Nelson. Watch next week to see who is ahead.

Peter Lee is confined to his home with rheumatism.

Vern Allen reports that they have moved into their new house.

The basement of the Grade School was painted and other repairs were made during the Christmas vacation.

Glen Shellenberger started to school this week after being absent a long time on account of illness.

Mrs. Genoud, the first grade teacher, who has been very ill, is still absent from school.

D. U. Cochrane was called to Salem the first of the week by the illness of his father there.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Cedar St. left for Tacoma Thursday evening on a business trip.

J. E. Stevens, proprietor of the Studio Barber Shop, is in Vancouver, Wash., this week on business.

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. Harry Alexander is visiting for a few days at the home of Mrs. E. A. Blank of Portland.

Lester Davies is acting as a substitute carrier on Rt. 3, in place of Mr. McKell, who is on sick leave.
