

SAPPHICS

By
BERNE BRIGAT

Your passing is a sapphire singing wind
Touching with rippling steps the silent water,
Leaving a wake of frail foam-flowers shining
Silver to the sea-edge.

Your passing is a wind of evening blowing,
Cool-garmented across a starlit garden,
Delicate with scent of violets,
Bringing me dreams.

Paragraphs of Local Interest

Personal Items About People in and Around Beaverton Col- lected for Our Readers

M. B. Bump of Hillsboro was in town Thursday.

Mr. Grover Slater of Coquille was a guest at the home of his cousin, Mr. V. E. Wisner, one day this week.

Miss Harriet Wisner of The Dalles was a Sunday visitor at the home of her brother, Mr. V. E. Wisner and family.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Woods and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harris visited in Gresham last Tuesday night.

Mrs. R. L. Tucker and two children, Margaret and Frank, of Hillsboro, spent Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Peck.

Mr. William F. Hammond of Portland, the father of Mrs. L. V. Graham, died Sunday P. M. Funeral services were held on Wednesday P. M.

Mrs. Alia Mahler of Brooks, sister-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mahler, while visiting here became ill and was taken to the St. Vincent's Hospital in Portland. She died Sunday A. M.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Schoene, accompanied by Mrs. Schoene's brother, Mr. Clarence Carlson and also Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pyne of Portland spent the week end in Astoria and Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Syverson from Kelso arrived Tuesday to visit Mrs. Syverson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Livermore of Huber, and her brother, Mr. Francis Livermore, Jr. of Beaverton.

The O. E. S. gave their regular monthly 500 party Wednesday afternoon. Twelve ladies attended from Garden Home. Mrs. H. B. Nelson won first prize, Mrs. Doy Gray second, and Mrs. S. Vantzfelden won consolation.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. N. Skidmore of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fletcher and daughter of St. Johns spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boyd in honor of Mr. Boyd's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Woodard, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Young, and son Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Breiten, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Swenson, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hughton and son Harvey, and Mrs. Elizabeth Davis enjoyed a picnic on the Clackamas River Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Walters of Aberdeen, Wash., motored down Tuesday to celebrate with Mrs. Walters' mother, Mrs. B. Anderson, her eighty-fourth birthday. A chicken dinner was served at noon at which Mrs. Ed Boring and Mrs. Lulie Boring were guests.

A large number of the members of the Beaverton Chapter of the O. E. S. attended a meeting at Gresham in honor of the City Matrons, Associate Matrons, Patrons and Secretaries, Mr. W. O. Roberts, the Worthy Patron of the Beaverton Chapter gave a very fine address, having been chosen the orator to represent the City Patrons.

The city council at Myrtle Point have let the contract to grade, gravel and pave the city streets.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Bethel Congregational Church announces regular services for this coming Sunday, Pastor Taylor preaching at both services. His topic for the morning will be "In the House of Simon the Pharisee"; and the evening theme will be "In the Days of the Holy Spirit". Special music at all services.

Your attention is invited to the Sunday School which meets at 9:45 and to the strong program which is being carried out under the leadership of Superintendent Doty. Steady consistent instruction is being maintained with classes for all ages, and if you have not a definite place in some other organization the Bethel people invite you to cast your lot with them. Mention should also be made of the work done in the Junior and Intermediate Christian Endeavor Societies which are the religious workshop for the younger people.

The Kappa Delta Sorority of P. U. gave a Kitchen Show, for Miss Eloise Barker last Thursday evening at the home of Prof. Harold Tuttle at Forest Grove.

Miss Lucy Eggiman, fifth grade teacher, announced her resignation to Mr. Vern Huddleston of Sheridan at a party given at her home in Portland Saturday evening, May eighth.

Friday evening, May 28th, the members of the Boys' and Girls' Clubs will have a party in honor of Mrs. Emma L. Bryant, County Superintendent and Miss Helen Cowgill, State Club Leader of O. A. G.

Mrs. W. E. Sanders has returned from a week's visit with her parents in Seattle. While there she visited the McDonald school which was named for her father, and gained inspiration for her work as president of the P. T. A.

Mrs. M. W. Hatfield acted as substitute for Mrs. G. E. Barker in the primary room Friday while Mrs. Barker attended the May Day exercises at Pacific University, Forest Grove, where her daughter Eloise was one of the maids to the queen.

Most of the fifth grade pupils have received Audubon pins and beautiful pictures of birds, and many are planning to send for more pictures. Their interest in the study of birds has been greatly stimulated by membership in the Audubon Society.

The following club workers are planning to attend summer school at O. A. G. for two weeks: Muriel Sidwell, Roberta Marvin, Becky Newman, Vera Tetwiler, Ethel Reynolds, Winifred Thoms, Fordene Walmer.

Mrs. J. W. Sprague returned from her trip to Omaha, Neb. Tuesday evening.

At the Methodist Church morning service, Rev. J. H. Irvine will take for his subject, "A Reasonable God, A Rational Book, and A Common Sense Church."

Evening subject, "Handicaps that Help Us."

Sunday School at 10 A. M. Epworth League at 7 P. M. Topic, "Spasm or System."

Evening service at 8 o'clock.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS

Interesting Little Notes from the Surrounding Country as Told by Our Active Special Correspondents Weekly

ALOHA-HUBER ITEMS

Dorothy Clark has the mumps. School will close Friday, May 28.

The ladies of the Aid Society met with Mrs. Montgomery on Thursday afternoon.

Friday is Visitor's Day in the primary room for the little folks who have not yet entered school.

The road south west of Aloha leading out past the Anderson home is being rocked and improved.

Edward Burton gave a birthday party Saturday afternoon at his home in honor of his seventh birthday.

Miss Lola Newman will teach first grade at Woodland, Wash., next year. She will be greatly missed in the club work in this county.

Mr. Lehnberg, principal for next year, visited our school a short time Thursday afternoon. He was accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Eleanor Norcross of Metzger.

The Kappa Delta Sorority of P. U. gave a Kitchen Show, for Miss Eloise Barker last Thursday evening at the home of Prof. Harold Tuttle at Forest Grove.

Miss Lucy Eggiman, fifth grade teacher, announced her resignation to Mr. Vern Huddleston of Sheridan at a party given at her home in Portland Saturday evening, May eighth.

Friday evening, May 28th, the members of the Boys' and Girls' Clubs will have a party in honor of Mrs. Emma L. Bryant, County Superintendent and Miss Helen Cowgill, State Club Leader of O. A. G.

Mrs. W. E. Sanders has returned from a week's visit with her parents in Seattle. While there she visited the McDonald school which was named for her father, and gained inspiration for her work as president of the P. T. A.

Mrs. M. W. Hatfield acted as substitute for Mrs. G. E. Barker in the primary room Friday while Mrs. Barker attended the May Day exercises at Pacific University, Forest Grove, where her daughter Eloise was one of the maids to the queen.

Most of the fifth grade pupils have received Audubon pins and beautiful pictures of birds, and many are planning to send for more pictures. Their interest in the study of birds has been greatly stimulated by membership in the Audubon Society.

The following club workers are planning to attend summer school at O. A. G. for two weeks: Muriel Sidwell, Roberta Marvin, Becky Newman, Vera Tetwiler, Ethel Reynolds, Winifred Thoms, Fordene Walmer.

Mrs. J. W. Sprague returned from her trip to Omaha, Neb. Tuesday evening.

At the Methodist Church morning service, Rev. J. H. Irvine will take for his subject, "A Reasonable God, A Rational Book, and A Common Sense Church."

Evening subject, "Handicaps that Help Us."

Sunday School at 10 A. M. Epworth League at 7 P. M. Topic, "Spasm or System."

Evening service at 8 o'clock.

We are very glad to announce that the pastor, W. L. Strange, who has been with us during the past year, will supply us for another year, and it is desired there be a good attendance at the services this Sunday evening.

Sunday school in the morning at the usual time, 10:30. Everybody is invited to these services.

ALPHA-HUBER ITEMS

June Gilmore, Annabel Fenner, Charlotte Rogers, and Hilliard Young.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Buchanan are having great success with gold fish. They have screened off a place in the creek and stocked it with gold fish which have multiplied rapidly until now there are several hundred. They are planning to beautify their grounds by the addition of several concrete pools of running water and to go into the gold fish business quite extensively.

ODD FELLOW LODGE PROGRESSING NICELY

The Beaverton Lodge of Odd Fellows is getting nicely started. They have rented the hall over the Whitehall Cafe and expect to meet every Monday night.

At their last meeting held last Monday night temporary officers were elected as follows: Mr. Walter Harris, N. G.; Hugh Lewis, V. G.; L. L. Myers, secretary.

Plans for the lodge are going forward rapidly. The tentative date for the regular institution of the authorized Beaverton Lodge, I. O. O. F., is set for June 5, when degree work will be put on and the regularly elected officers of the lodge will be installed. It is confidently expected that this will be for some time one of the faster growing lodges in Oregon.

ENTHUSIASTIC CROWD AT SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY

An enthusiastic audience was in attendance at the district Sunday school rally held in the Bethel Congregational Church last Sunday, coming from Metzger, Garden Home, and Tualuma, to join with representatives from three of the Beaverton Churches, in a study of mutual problems.

Dr. Geo. B. Pratt was the speaker of the morning, giving from his rich experience assurance to his hearers that their work was really worth while.

At 12:30 a basket dinner was served and good fellowship enjoyed. The afternoon program began at 1:30 and included a forum discussion of pertinent questions as well as set speeches by various county leaders in Sunday School work. One of the outstanding features of the afternoon was the singing of a quartet of young ladies from the Evangelical church at Tigard, which church had also the distinction of having the largest number in attendance at the rally. The program and arrangements were in charge of P. E. Lewis of Tigard, district president.

Mrs. J. W. Sprague returned from her trip to Omaha, Neb. Tuesday evening.

TIGARD NEWS

A son was born April 28. He will be called Ward Britt and will make his home with Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Nedry.

The pupils of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades wrote the state examinations on Thursday and Friday of last week.

It is reported that Mrs. J. Richardson has suffered a stroke of paralysis and has been taken to a Portland hospital.

The Ladies' Aid of the M.E. church gave a Mothers' Day program at the church on Friday evening. A large crowd came out. About $50 was taken in.

Rev. E. Maurer attended the conference of the Evangelical churches held in Portland last week. He will return to Tigard for another year, we are pleased to relate.

The bond election held Saturday, May 8 resulted in a big majority for the bonds. The voters showed conclusively that they are FOR the High School, which is as it should be.

Mrs. A. Schaubert entertained with a luncheon Wednesday afternoon of last week. The affair was put on in honor of Mrs. H. M. Stiles of Cleveland, Ohio, who expects to leave soon.

The graduating exercise of the Tigard public school were held Thursday evening of this week. A class of twenty one pupils graduated. Mr. Hopkin Jenkins of Jefferson high in Portland delivered the address.

MULTNOMAH ITEMS

Messrs. Earl Sax and Ray Chapman brought their wives out from Portland and were dinner guests at the Small's on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Priest were "at home" to a number of friends and neighbors last Saturday evening. "500" was the order of the evening.

Mr. C. Ashley Cook, the business manager of the Portland Symphony orchestra left last Saturday for Philadelphia to attend the Shriners' meeting.

Mr. C. E. Green, formerly of this place but now a resident of Phoenix, Ariz., is here for a few days remodeling his house which he hopes to sell soon.

Miss Cecil Schreyer of the Portland Free Dispensary and Miss May Mercer, secretary to the State Tuberculosis association, have leased the B. E. Kuhn residence.

Mrs. H. B. Brookhardt, entertained at bridge Saturday evening. Mr. Barry and Mrs. Whiteside won the honors and the consolation prizes went to Mrs. Barry and Mr. Whiteside.

Mr. Glen Ehle, a Los Angeles realtor spent Wednesday at the home of his brother C. G. Ehle. Mr. Ehle is interested in an attractive auto camp and summer resort near Roseburg where he likes to spend his summers even though he is a loyal son of our sister state to the south.

OREGON STATE NEWS

Contract has been let at McMinnville for paving Adams St.

The city of Marshfield has purchased a Stutz fire engine.

A contract has been let at Heppner for the new Ferguson garage building.

The Oregon wool and lamb crop will be worth around $17,000,000 this year.

The new Leep Hospital at Bandon has opened with room for twenty patients.

The L.O.O.F. at Clatskanie are going to build a new, two-story, fire-proof hall.

The addition to the Mills school at Klamath Falls is expected to cost $18,000.

BACCALAUREATE SERVICES HELD SUNDAY

The baccalaureate services for the class of 1926, Beaverton High School, were held in the Bethel Congregational Church last Sunday evening before a union gathering from all the churches.

Dr. B. B. Sutcliffe preached the sermon to the class, while the music was furnished by the Bethel Orchestra and the High School Girls' Glee Club. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion by friends of the class, using the colors pink and green.

NEW POLLING PLACES FOR BOTH PRECINCTS

This year the West Beaverton precinct voters will cast their votes in the old Congregational Church instead of at the schoolhouse as has formerly been the case.

The polling place for the East Beaverton precinct will be located in the Haulenbeck Bldg. instead of in the Marsh Hall.

Be sure to get out and vote. You would make an awful kick if the franchise was denied you but why not deny it if you will not take interest enough to exercise your right? We are not going to tell you how to vote, but we would like to have the power to make every citizen get out.

CAPITOL HILL

Mrs. Sable is very ill at a Portland hospital. She expects to have a major operation performed.

The tentative date set for the giving of the play by the Community Club young folks is set for June 11. Mr. Gordon Coffey will direct the production.

At the last meeting of the Community Club, Mr. Wm. A. Carter, candidate for governor on the Republican ticket, spoke on some of the planks of his platform.

The Capitol Hill 4-H Rose and flower clubs held a local exhibit at the school house on Wednesday afternoon under the direction of the Club leader, a Mrs. N. R. Kyser. The Portland Seed Co. had up some very attractive prizes.

Friday of last week the Ladies' Aid of Carson Heights Community church met at the home of Mrs. McIlroy. Following the lunch which was served by the hostess, a brief business session was held. Later the ladies spent some time sewing on aprons and quilts.

The regular meeting of the Capitol Hill Parent-Teacher circle was held at the school house in the afternoon of Wednesday, May 19. This was the last meeting to be held this season. Officers for next year were elected and refreshments served to those attending.

The numerous merchants of Portland who so generously contributed to our bazaar we held here recently, will soon receive letters of appreciation. A standing vote of thanks was given them as well as the workers on the several committees who had charge of arrangements.

Commencement

Program To-night

Eighteen Boys and Girls To Graduate From Local High School; Judge Bale Will Speak

Beaverton High School will hold its Commencement exercises tonight, Friday, in the Auditorium.

The speaker of the evening is Judge Fred G. Bale, for several years juvenile court judge at Columbus, Ohio. Judge Bale was a star university debator and orator, and is a member of Delta Sigma Rho and Pi Kappa Delta, national honorary forensic fraternities. He has taught college speaking and coached debate teams for years. At present he is a member of the staff of Albany College.

The graduating class for 1926 consists of eighteen members, as follows: Pete Bous, President; June Hudson, Vice-President; Bernice Cox, Secretary; Florence Harrison, Reporter; Gladys Junkin, Treasurer; Ralph Mapes, Richard Vaughters, Mireda McLeod, Gordon Wilcox, Frances Sundberg, Florence Jamieson, Myron Gray, Roy Briggs, Malissa Merrill, Curtis Tigard, Merza Halsten, James Kinney, and Thelma Lee.

The program will begin at 8:15 o'clock.

COOKING SCHOOL

WINNERS ANNOUNCED

The Beaverton Review Cooking school closed Thursday of last week with a record attendance, 106 being present at the closing meeting. The school has proved so popular that it will probably be put on again next season.

At the last class the first prize cake went to Mrs. J. H. Sidwell of Aloha, Mrs. J. W. Raymond drawing second.

The grand prizes were given out at this time and were allotted as follows: Clock, Mrs. L. J. Hughton; Waffle Iron, Mrs. G. T. Stump; Hot Cake Griddle, Mrs. J. H. Dobbins.

The recipe Mrs. Bartlett promised to publish for Shrimp Wiggle is as follows:

Shrimp Wiggle
3 cups milk
4 to 6 tablespoons flour
4 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons salt
Make the above ingredients into a white sauce. When cooked add the following:
2 cups shrimps cut fine
1 1/2 cups drained peas
Hard boiled eggs if desired.
Serve on toast.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

ELECTS OFFICERS

The following officers have been chosen for Kinton Sunday School for the ensuing year: Superintendent, E. L. Cox; Asst. Supt., Mrs. D. R. Sloan; Secretary-Treasurer, Mildred Richards; Librarian, Grace McCormick; Organist, Grace McCormick.

Mrs. Kershaw, a former superintendent, was present at the session of the Sunday school last Sunday, and gave a nice talk to those present.

CHEERIE AFTERNOONS ENTERTAINED

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Woodward entertained "Ye Cheerie Afternoons" with their husbands at their home Saturday evening with 500 and a very pleasant luncheon. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Young, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harris, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Rohse, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Breiten, Mr. and Mrs. Daly, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Tefft, Mrs. Herbert Cox and Floyd Tefft won high honors and Mrs. Daly and Bert Rohse consolation.

KINTON SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS ENJOYS HIKE

The "Loyal Scouts," the organized boys' class of the Sunday School, went on a hike last Saturday, and a most enjoyable time was had. Prof. D. R. Sloan is their teacher and accompanied the boys on the trip.

A "Weinie roast," baked potatoes, and many other good things to eat were greatly enjoyed by all. The hike ended on the Hoover ranch, and the dinner was served there.

