BROADWAY

By VERNE BRIGHT

I walk down burning Broadway where
The street-lamps glow like silver moons,
And the deft fingers of the night
Twang on my heart-strings subtle tunes.

The thronging people surge and flow
Under the fragile, aureate beams—
What pain of longing fills their hearts?
Their eyes, what dreams?

Bethel Choir To Present Operetta

"Hearts and Blossoms" Will Be Staged in H. S. Auditorium
Next Thurs. and Fri.

Production of the operetta, "Hearts and Blossoms," in which the Bethel Choir has been working for some time, will take place next Thursday and Friday, June 17 and 18, in the high school auditorium, according to an announcement made this week by M. H. Metcalfe, business manager for the production. This operetta, the first ever attempted by the local church organization, is generally conceded to contain some of the most melodious and tuneful scores ever written; while a strong plot serves to sustain the interest throughout.

The setting is a summertime setting, in the gardens of a famous summer hotel, and the plot revolves around the planned and chance meetings in these gardens, of lovers, old friends, and acquaintances. Honors are well divided among eight soloists, Mr. Harris Hansen singing the tenor lead, Mrs. H. M. Barnes the soprano lead, Miss Janet Huntley the contralto lead, and Mr. Jack Malarkey the baritone lead—all straight parts while Mrs. E. G. Webb and Mr. W. L. Cady have soprano and baritone character parts respectively, and Mrs. J. E. Davis and Mr. E. G. Webb have contralto and bass comedy parts respectively.

Mr. Hansen is cast as "Phillip," the fiancé of "June" (Mrs. Barnes), who with her sister "Marie" (Miss Huntley) and mother "Mrs. Manning" (Mrs. Webb) are guests at the hotel where "Samson" (Mr. Webb) and "Malindy" (Mrs. Davis) are bellhop and lady's maid respectively. "Jerry" (Mr. Malarkey) is a poor but promising young lawyer who has brilliant ideas, and "Uncle Matthew" (Mr. Cady) appears as an old time friend of Mrs. Manning.

Not the least important, by far, will be the singing done by the chorus, which has trained faithfully for the event. Included in the personnel are Miss Gladys Shellenberger, Miss Merza Halsten, Mrs. J. H. Hulet, Mrs. Guy Carr, Miss Bertha Matzke, Mrs. R. T. Weills, Mrs. G. N. Taylor, Miss Viola Hansen, Mr. M. H. Metcalfe, Mr. H. M. Barnes, Mr. Philip Taylor, Mr. M. H. Underhill. It has not been found possible to use the orchestra thru the entire production, but it will be on hand to entertain the audience before the curtain rises and between acts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Huntley have returned from a vacation on the Metolius River and with their daughter, Mrs. Collis Moore. Miss Betty Huntley, who accompanied them, stayed for a longer visit with her sister.

Mrs. Robert Summers and Mrs. Elmer Stipe, who are visiting their father in Nebraska, are expected home Saturday.

POPULAR ALOHA DAUGHTER WEDS

The wedding of Miss Eloise Barker and Melvin F. Johnston was solemnized on the afternoon of June seventh at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Barker, near Aloha.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Johnston of Banks. Prof. Harold S. Tuttle, an ordained Congregational clergyman, a professor of Religion and the head of the Department of Education at Pacific University, performed the ceremony.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Johnston are graduates of Pacific University, the bride having been graduated on the day of the wedding.

The house was decorated with roses, lilies, sweet peas and ferns. An altar was made in the living room.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white messaline and a white veil, and carried a shower bouquet of roses and sweet peas.

Mrs. Emma Keeler was matron of honor, and Miss Lois Tuttle was bridesmaid. They wore dresses of flowered georgette crepe, and carried bouquets of pink delphiniums. Mr. Verne Bright acted as best man. Miss Blanche Cohen of Portland sang "At Dawning," and Mrs. Jean McBrean of Aloha played the wedding march.

A wedding supper was served on the lawn, the tables being presided over by Miss Lois Newman, Miss Lucy Egziman, Miss Noreen Nelson, and Mrs. Jean McBrean.

The young couple left immediately for an automobile trip, and will spend the latter part of the summer in Aloha. In the fall they will move to Lexington, Oregon, where Mr. Johnston is superintendent of schools.

The bride is a graduate of the Beaverton High School.

BEAVERTON MUSICIANS APPEAR IN RECITALS

Some time ago Beaverton had a music teacher in the person of Rollin P. Adkins. He seemed to give very satisfactory instruction in this language of the emotions, but he moved to Portland and took up work there. Many of his pupils from Beaverton followed him to Portland and have been under his training for several years.

At the end of this school year two programs were given, one Friday evening and one Saturday evening when a great many of the young people of Beaverton appeared in prominent parts in the Ellison-White Little Theatre in Portland.

Among those taking part were LaDena Underhill, Vivian Harris, Lois Cox, Florence Fitzpatrick, Homer Allen, Martha Woodruff, Thelma Tefft, Rose Kamberger, Verne Allen, Harold Alexander, Sarah Margaret Hunt, Harold Dean, Dorothy Haggood, Billie Woodruff, Helen Tefft.

Miss Edna Hills of Portland visited her sister, Mrs. M. H. Cady, last Friday and Saturday.

Commerce Body Enjoys Supper

Fairvale Community Club Extends Invitation To All To Attend Building Dedication

The Chamber of Commerce at their regular meeting Tuesday evening, served a banquet to the members and their wives. The Ladies' Aid of the Bethel Congregational Church prepared the spread.

Judge Hewitt of Portland delivered the principal address of the evening.

Thomas T. Georges of Fairvale, accompanied by the president of the Fairvale Community Club, was present, and extended invitations to all to visit the Fairvale Community Club, who will dedicate their new club home next Saturday evening.

The Cox sisters were present and entertained, one with a piano solo, and the other with a violin solo. Martha Woodruff entertained with piano solos, and Willis Cady rendered a vocal solo.

BEAVERTON MATRON GIVES BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Mrs. M. Butner was very pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening in honor of her birthday. She was remembered with a small gift from each one present, and ice cream and cake were served for refreshments.

Those present were, Mrs. S. E. Akin, Mrs. Bert Rohse, Mrs. Chas. Bernard and mother, Mrs. Sam Olds, Mrs. I. E. Berst, Mrs. Hugh Lewis, Mrs. George Glasser, Mrs. L. Boring, Mrs. Della Fisher, Mrs. L. R. Dean, Mrs. Geo. Thynge, Mrs. Pike, Mrs. Walter Harris, Mrs. Stitt, Mrs. W. E. Pegg and daughter Thelma.

THOMAS JOE ROHSE CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

A very happy afternoon was spent by the little children who attended the birthday party of Thomas Joe Rohse Saturday afternoon at his home. Games were played on the lawn, and a large birthday cake and refreshments were enjoyed by all.

Those present were Dorothy Vasiloff, Jack Young, Theodore Hetu, Lucille Robins, Florence Vasiloff, Geraldine Smith, La Merne Dean, Harold Stump, Ben McInnis, David Mason, Jean Klein, Rhoda Thynge, Mildred Morrill of Hillsboro, Phyllis Wiseman, Barbara Wiseman, Homer Rohse from Vancouver, and David Rohse.

LOCAL BOY COLLEGE IN COLLEGE PLAY

Thurlow Weed of Beaverton, a sophomore in commerce at O. A. C., played the part of a policeman in solving the mystery of "The Three Wire Fools" presented at Corvallis last week end by the National Collegiate Players.

BEAVERTON CHURCH OF CHRIST DEDICATED

The Beaverton Church of Christ was dedicated Sunday with an impressive ceremony before a large crowd of people gathered from Portland and the surrounding country. David Eugene Olson had charge of the dedication ceremony, which was put on very impressively.

At noon the crowd met in the basement of the new church for a basket dinner.

More than enough pledges were secured at the meeting to pay off all debts against the church and to have about $1500 left to be used for improvements or to meet the expenses of the institution.

BOYS AND GIRLS TO ATTEND SUMMER SCHOOL

The annual boys' and girls' junior summer session will be on the campus June 14 to 26. Not more than 500 club members can be accommodated this year at the session at O. A. C., and from the reports received at the club office at Corvallis, that number will soon be supplied. Last year the attendance was 497 members and 45 local leaders, nearly triple the enrollment of 1920. There will not be room for all those who desire to attend this year according to H. C. Seymour, state club leader. Advance work will be available for club members who have been here before. Classes for local leaders will be another feature of this year's program.

The first summer session for Oregon club members was in 1914 with 30 boys enrolled. First prize winners were offered trips in 1916 and for the first time the school was open to club girls. The demand was made in 1920 that the school be opened to all club members and since that time any club member in good standing with work complete to date may attend upon the payment of $15 for room and board for two weeks.

Boys will be quartered in Gauthorn hall and the girls in Waldo. Meals will be served in the dining rooms of the two halls. All club members are required to get in touch with those in charge of club work in their county. Leaders are arranging means of transportation by buses, automobiles, and trains. Regular instructors of O. A. C. will conduct the club classes in all projects. Classes will begin at 8:30 each morning and last until noon.

Sherman, Klamath, Multnomah and Tillamook counties are expected to have exceptionally large delegations this year, and Washington County, also, expects to send a number of delegates to this summer school.

ST. MARY'S BOYS TO PRESENT OPERETTA

The little boys of St. Mary's home will put on a play Sunday evening, June 13th, at 7:30, a fairy operetta in four scenes. There will be a patriotic drill, flag salute, recitations, singing, besides the regular work of the operetta.

The scene of this play will be in a fairy forest and there will be butterflies, fairies, brownies, elegant costumes, good singing, and character acting. The little boys will have all of the characters, some of them attired as fairies, fairy princesses, etc.

You will be sure of a splendid entertainment.

NEW MOUNT HOOD LOOP FOLDER PUBLISHED

A new pocket folder, entitled "Mount Hood Loop Highway Log," is now available for free distribution in single copies at the Portland offices of district forester C. M. Granger and forest supervisor T. H. Sherrard. This highway log and map is issued by the forest service as a means of systematically answering the large and constantly growing tourist demands for directions and distances connected with this highly popular trip.

In the descriptive matter, brief attention is given to the historical naming of Mt. Hood and Barlow Pass, and to the forest fire detection service rendered by the Mt. Hood lookout station, 11,225 feet above sea level, which overlooks ten billion feet of national forest timber.

Mrs. A. A. Morrill of Hillsboro was visiting friends here Saturday.

Local I. O. O. F. Lodge Instituted

Large Crowd Attends Meeting; All Lodges in County Send Big Delegations

Pursuant to dispensation issued by Grand Master V. G. Jackson directed to Grand Warden Fred J. Meindle authorizing him to select a subordinate lodge in Beaverton, the Grand Lodge officers visiting here assumed the chairs at about 5 o'clock Saturday. The officers were: F. J. Meindle, deputy G. M.; R. Andrews, acting deputy G. V. M.; W. A. Wheeler, acting deputy G. W.; E. E. Sharon, Grand Secretary; Chas. Zweifel, acting deputy G. T.; W. C. Lawrence, G. M.; N. C. Oakerman, acting deputy G. G.; G. W. Lynn, G. C.

One of the largest, if not the largest crowd that ever gathered in Beaverton to attend a fraternal meeting gathered here Saturday evening to assist in the institution of the new Beaverton Lodge No. 252, I. O. O. F. Both sides of the street were literally lined with cars for a good many blocks either way from the bank corner.

Haslo lodge of Portland attended in a body to put on two degrees. There were many here from the Odd Fellows home in Portland. Practically all the lodges within a radius of 10 miles were represented. Visitors were present from the Orient lodge way over on the east side of Portland. Tigard attended almost in a body. Several were present from Scholls, North Plains, Forest Grove, besides visitors from lodges located as far east as Ohio and as far south as southern California.

Montezuma Lodge from Hillsboro came down in a body and put on the initiatory and second degrees. They made a very impressive sight. Their work, especially in the second degree was very good.

Beaverton Lodge No. 252 now has its charter, a good number of members have been already taken into the order—eleven in all besides the charter members—and applications for membership are coming in rapidly.

The officers for the new lodge installed Saturday night were: Walter Harris, N. G.; Hugh Lewis, V. G.; L. L. Myers, Secretary; J. H. Hulet, Treasurer.

The remainder of the officers, who were installed at the regular meeting Monday night are as follows: A. E. Erickson, W. V. J. F. Goddard, C.; N. R. Ferris, O. G.; J. W. Raynard, R. S. N. G.; R. Wheeler, R. S. S.; R. L. Chamberlain, L. S. S.; S. G. Rogers, R. S. V. G.; S. A. Fredricksen, L. S. V. G. Past Grand, J. W. Raynard, acted as installing officer Monday night, assisted by Herman Jenne, acting D. G. M.

FIGURES SHOW THAT THE NON-ADVERTISERS FAIL

Data which shows that the great percentage of failures in business are of concerns which do not use newspaper advertising has been prepared by The 100,000 Group of American Cities, Inc., with headquarters in Chicago, following extensive investigation.

These percentages vary for the many cities included. The city of Bridgeport, Conn., has the lowest percentage of failures of business which did not use newspaper advertising, and that was 60 per cent, while Troy, N. Y. has the highest with every business failure being that of a business that did not advertise through the medium of newspapers.

In Chicago, 98 per cent of the businesses crashing did not use newspaper advertising, in St. Louis 94.6 per cent, and Rochester, N. Y., 95 per cent.

Of the business failures in Portland, 94 per cent did not use newspaper advertising. In more than half of the cities listed the percentage of non-advertising firms among those which failed was 85 per cent or higher.

Announcements have been received from Mr. and Mrs. Vedon Boge of Oakland, Calif., of the birth of a son, Marwyn Gale on May 28th. Mr. and Mrs. Boge formerly lived in Beaverton.
