

IF IT'S FOR BEA-
VERTON THE RE-
VIEW'S FOR IT

THE BEAVERTON REVIEW

CLEAN READING
EUGENE, OREGON
University Library X

Volume IV, Number 31

Single Copy, 5 Cents

Beaverton, Washington County, Oregon, Friday, July 2, 1926

$1.50 Per Year

Paragraphs of Local Interest

Personal Items About People in and Around Beaverton Collected for Our Readers

Mrs. A. J. Fanno of Portland spent Monday night at the home of her niece, Mrs. W. H. Hoyd.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Peck and two daughters returned to their home in Nappa, Idaho, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Metzler and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Livermore, Jr., motored to Longview Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Stipe were dinner guests at the home of their son, Mr. Elmer Stipe, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Fredrickson and son Aage attended the Loy-Stewart wedding in Portland Saturday.

Miss Betty Rainford of San Francisco, California, is spending a few days visiting Miss Billy Woodruff.

Miss Doris Woodruff left Sunday to spend a couple of weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Owen in Wheeler, Ore.

Mrs. Laura Sigler, mother of Mrs. Elta Tallman, died on June 17 at the age of 74. She was buried at Dayton on June 20th.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McCauley of Stockton, Calif., arrived Saturday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boyd.

Mr. Steve Mapes, who was called to Denver by the illness of his sister, returned Saturday and reports that she is now improving.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McKell, accompanied by Miss Juliette Carter and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Haynes of Chicago, motored to Salem Sunday.

Several Beaverton ladies attended a shower given for Miss Velma Davies at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lester Davies Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Feathers and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Van Aernum of Multnomah Station, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Howard Sunday.

Mrs. O. H. Breton entertained at 500 Thursday afternoon, June 24. Mrs. Louis Hughson won first prize and Mrs. E. E. Swenson second.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Spencer and baby visited at the home of Mr. Barnes' sister, Mrs. A. S. Briggs of Portland, Sunday.

Miss Grete Gray attended a Bridge Tea at the Portland Hotel Saturday given by the Delta Delta Delta sorority for some of the girls entering the University of Oregon next fall.

Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Sult and two daughters, Phyllis and Dorothy, of Lakeview, Oregon, visited at the home of Mrs. Sult's sister, Mrs. Ray Miller, last week. Dr. Sult was here to attend the dentists' convention in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brooks and baby of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rainford and daughter Betty of San Francisco, and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Owen and two children of Wheeler, Ore., were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Woodruff.

Mrs. G. G. McCormick of Garden Home entertained at luncheon on Friday. Those present were Mrs. Sutter of Garden Home, Mrs. James of Portland, Mrs. G. B. Haynes of Chicago, and Mrs. Otto Erickson, Mrs. Doy Gray, Mrs. W. C. McKell and Miss Juliette Carter of Beaverton.

L. P. Adams and son Leonard returned Sunday from a four-thousand-mile trip through the southern part of California. They were gone twenty-one days. Mr. Adams and son were accompanied by Mr. Adams' mother, Mrs. A. G. Adams of Bellingham, the Misses Margaret and Celja Bernard, and Mrs. Minnie Soller and son Stanley, of Forest Grove. Mrs. Soller is a sister to the Misses Bernard.

OREGON STATE NEWS

Medford building permits for one week, reach $37,390.

A five-room school will be built at once in Butte Falls.

The Sutherland cannery is running to capacity on berries and cherries.

The payroll in the Salem canneries runs nearly to $50,000 a week.

The Bethel district at Eugene will build a fine new school building.

The Euchre Creek district, in Curry County, will build a $10,000 school.

Forest Grove plants have barreled 250 tons of strawberries in sugar, this year.

A herd of imported Jersey cows will start the dairy industry at Jordan Valley.

An ice and storage company will build a large warehouse for fruit in Medford.

Forest Grove breeders have shipped 250 tons of Jersey cows to New Jersey.

The heaviest berry crop ever grown is being harvested in the Willamette Valley.

The Guaranty Oil Company has struck oil and water in a prospect well at Eugene.

The Western Dehydrating Co. has incorporated at Milton, with a capital of $75,000.

Overnight freight service from Bend to Portland is now offered, over two railroads.

The Bear Creek road, from the Bull Run headwaters, to Portland, will cost $20,000.

Three shifts will rush the completion of the Leeper Dome oil prospect well at Sutherland.

The Ray-Maling cannery at Hillsboro, with a $30,000 warehouse addition, employs 12,000 people.

The Southern Pacific Company will start train service on the Eugene-Klamath Falls line, in July.

JUNIOR CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORS PICNIC

Last Friday afternoon the Junior Christian Endeavor of Bethel Congregational church met at the home of their superintendent, Mrs. Metcalf, for a business meeting. It was decided to try out the plan of having their weekly meetings on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 for a half hour, only, during the summer months.

Following the business meeting, they adjourned to the woods where they enjoyed a picnic supper and games.

BEAVERTON ATHLETICS SUFFER DEFEAT

The Beaverton Athletics, a team composed of baseball fans of Beaverton and vicinity, suffered a defeat Sunday afternoon at the hands of the Fairvale team. The score at the end of the game stood 18 to 7.

The cause of the defeat was lack of a good pitcher and lack of experience. The team from Fairvale was composed of men with more experience at the game. Clarence Hoffman, who pitched for Beaverton during the first part of the game, was out of practice, having just returned from the East, where he has been working for some time. Alden Barron finished the game in the pitcher's box, and held down the score considerably.

There will be no game next Sunday on account of its being the Fourth of July.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Myers returned the latter part of last week from their vacation.

Miss Mary Kingston, who is employed in the W. T. Sellers' home at Banks, spent Sunday at home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Dean returned Monday from a week's visit with relatives in the southern part of the state.

Mr. A. Brandt has just put in new plumbing in his home on Angel St. W. L. Noyes had the contract for the work.

Mr. Geo. Thung took his family to Woodland Sunday to attend a reunion of his mother's family who came to Oregon in 1843.

LOCAL NEWS

Mike Pienovi has purchased a new Ford Sedan.

Mark Jones has returned from his trip to Idaho.

Lawrence Lamberger made a trip to Salem the first of the week.

Mrs. America Ward of Portland is spending a week with Mrs. W. O. Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Courtney from Oakland, Ore., are visiting here with Mrs. J. Goutts.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bland were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Gorham.

Mr. Delbert Spraner has returned from Alaska. He arrived here on Wednesday of last week.

The Nazarene church have purchased the old Congregational Church and will hold services there.

Miss Pauline Leel and Mr. John Forbes of Portland visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Laswell Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Gorham and Mrs. Guy Jacobs are leaving Friday for Ashland, and will be gone for about ten days.

Mrs. L. D. Rickey of Ardmore, Oklahoma, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. E. R. Jordan, on the Denney road southeast of town.

Mrs. E. W. Woodruff and daughter Doris, Martha, and Billie and their guest, Mr. Grant Woodruff, took the Mt. Hood loop trip Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stowe of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, visited for a while Monday at Mayor Pegg's residence. The Stowes are on their way to Long Beach, Calif.

J. Frank Cunningham, pastor of the Church of Christ, who has been absent on a trip to Idaho, will return in time to resume his duties at the church Sunday.

S. E. Farham of Madison, Minnesota, visited this week at the Pegg home. Mr. Farham is editor of a newspaper back in the place where Mr. Pegg formerly lived.

Messrs. L. A. Kennedy, F. S. Kelly, and W. H. Boyd, accompanied by their wives, attended the annual convention of the State Rural Carriers' Association held at Albany Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Essig and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Hunter, and Mr. John Hunter, who have been visiting in the home of Mr. Wm. Hunter, are returning to their home in Whittier, California, this week.

Messdames J. C. Huntley, C. C. Beach, Wm. Enkleke, H. R. Nelson, J. W. Barnes, F. M. Lassiter, J. E. Rorris, W. H. Boyd, W. O. Roberts, and Geo. Blasser attended a lawn party at the home of Mrs. J. A. Freck of Garden Home Friday. Mrs. W. H. Boyd won first prize in "500" and Mrs. J. W. Barnes won second prize in Bridge.

Local People Visit Beaches

Beaverton Residents Enjoy Ocean Breezes At Various Oregon Sea-shore Resorts

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Rohse and two sons are at Rockaway.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Haynes left Wednesday for a few days at Seaside.

Mrs. N. P. Johnson and sons, Curtis, Roger, and Leslie are enjoying a vacation at Gearhart.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Beach, Mrs. James Pinder and Miss Billie Woodruff leave Friday to spend a few days at Gearhart.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Miller and son Jack, Mrs. Miller's mother, Mrs. Fred Myquist of Portland and their guests, Dr. and Mrs. Sult and daughters, left Sunday to spend a week at Oceanaside.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Van Kleek and daughter went to Netarts Saturday. Mr. Van Kleek only spent the week end, but his wife will spend about ten days there.

KINTON CHURCH HAS CHILDREN'S DAY PROGRAM

There was a very good attendance at the Children's Day Program at the church Sunday morning, and the following program was much enjoyed by those present:

Song by the choir, "A Royal Supt. E. L. Cox; song by choir, "Pilot of Galilee;" recitation, Lois Bierly; recitation, Mary Katherine Hall; exercise, "The purpose of Children's Day;" song by choir, "Bills, Their Strength Eternal;" recitation, Orville Peterson; song by choir, recitation, Ivan Bigley; recitation, Chas. Kullbel; song by choir, "All Hail, Greater;" recitation, Robert Richards. A collection was taken and the money will be sent for the Missions of the Evangelical Church.

Rev. W. L. Strange, was present at the evening service and preached a very able sermon.

Mr. R. Scheupbach has just completed boring a well and installing an automatic water system for R. W. Jackson on the Johnson Road just south of St. Mary's. The well is 57 ft. deep. The system installed is one of the sort Mr. Scheupbach is advertising on another page.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Braun and son Billy and Miss Lutina Hulett left Thursday for a two weeks' trip through Washington and British Columbia. They plan to spend the Fourth with friends in Nespelem, Washington, where Mrs. Braun and Miss Hulett formerly made their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Kingston are entertaining Mrs. Mary Versoi, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Versoi and their two children, all of Seattle, Wash. Mrs. Mary Versoi is Mrs. Kingston's mother, Mr. Clifford Versoi is Mrs. Kingston's brother, and Mrs. Clifford Versoi is Mr. Kingston's niece.

Tom Allen is the proud possessor of a new "Fordor" Ford sedan. Tom says he supposes he will have to stop reading the paper now because he will probably be spending all his money for gasoline, so we used our most persuasive smile and induced him to subscribe for a year in advance.

He retired from railroad work about twelve years ago, and purchased a little ranch on the Scholls Ferry Road, where he lived until his death.

He was buried from Pegg's chapel Friday, June 25, in the Riverview Cemetery.

OBITUARY

Louis E. Seiges died at his home southwest of Beaverton June 23rd, aged 77 years, 3 months. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna Seiges, his daughter, Mrs. Anna Neuman of Portland, and his granddaughter, Mrs. C. S. Cobb of Seattle.

He was employed for 31 years on the O.-W. R. & N. Railway, and came to Oregon with one of his old superior officers when the road was built into Portland.

He retired from railroad work about twelve years ago, and purchased a little ranch on the Scholls Ferry Road, where he lived until his death.

He was buried from Pegg's chapel Friday, June 25, in the Riverview Cemetery.

LOCAL NEWS

Miss Martha Woodruff left Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rainford for a visit with her grandmother in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore, former residents of Beaverton, have rented the Cady house on Watson Street.

Mr. E. C. Hall of Yamhill was in town Thursday. Mr. Hall is the silver fox man who used to live near Cedar Mills and he drove truck for H. Barnes.

Mr. H. R. Finley was in town Wednesday perfecting arrangements for the presentation of that famous Western drama, "The Girl From L-Triangle Ranch" which will be given here soon by local talent.

Dr. C. E. Mason expects to leave about the middle of this month for Leland Stanford Jr. University where he will take a post graduate course in obstetrics and children's diseases. He will be gone about a month.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Floto and two sons, Charles and Donald of La Mefa, Calif., who have been visiting in the home of Mrs. Floto's brother, Mr. N. A. Byfield, left Monday for Vancouver, B. C. Dr. Floto was here to attend the Dental Convention.

Mrs. H. L. Hudson and her sisters, Mrs. Rova Parshall and Mrs. A. E. Johnson, and her brother, Mr. W. F. Van Vector, were called to Goldendale, Washington, Friday, because of the illness of their father. He is improving, and they returned Tuesday.

Mr. R. Scheupbach has just completed boring a well and installing an automatic water system for R. W. Jackson on the Johnson Road just south of St. Mary's. The well is 57 ft. deep. The system installed is one of the sort Mr. Scheupbach is advertising on another page.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Braun and son Billy and Miss Lutina Hulett left Thursday for a two weeks' trip through Washington and British Columbia. They plan to spend the Fourth with friends in Nespelem, Washington, where Mrs. Braun and Miss Hulett formerly made their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Kingston are entertaining Mrs. Mary Versoi, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Versoi and their two children, all of Seattle, Wash. Mrs. Mary Versoi is Mrs. Kingston's mother, Mr. Clifford Versoi is Mrs. Kingston's brother, and Mrs. Clifford Versoi is Mr. Kingston's niece.

Tom Allen is the proud possessor of a new "Fordor" Ford sedan. Tom says he supposes he will have to stop reading the paper now because he will probably be spending all his money for gasoline, so we used our most persuasive smile and induced him to subscribe for a year in advance.

The "Riffles" has been a very popular place during the past warm spell, and many have been seen wending their way down Pleasant Valley road, with their bathing suits under their arms to have a swim in the waters of the Tualatin river.

Mrs. W. M. Brooks of Waldport was a recent visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Everett Wright. Mrs. Brooks came to attend the reunion of the McKay family, held at the school house at Raleigh, where she taught school 51 years ago.

Kirk Hoover had a narrow escape from a serious injury last week as he was hauling in hay. The load tipped as it struck a rut and threw him off the load. He was quite badly shaken up, but no bones were broken, and he is getting along nicely at this writing.

Mr. Grant Woodruff of San Francisco, Calif., who has been visiting at the home of his brother, Mr. E. W. Woodruff, returned to his home Monday. E. W. Woodruff accompanied him on his return for a short visit.

KINTON NEWS

John Boland is reported as ill at his home on Cooper Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Josef Tannier were Portland callers last Thursday.

Glyde Wilkinson recently purchased a horse from people in Scappoose.

William and Joseph Wenzel made a motor trip to Rainier Wednesday.

Mrs. Clyde Wilkinson was a guest for a few days last week of friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bierly and family were transacting business in Portland Saturday.

Mrs. Fred Clark has been quite poorly at her home on Reedville road, during the past week.

Some of the farmers in this community have been threshing their barley crop during the past week.

de and Robert Baker of Waldport are visiting their aunt Mrs. Everett Wright, for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. August Wenzel and sons William and Joseph, were calling on friends in Scholls Sunday.

Herbert Martin of Garibaldi spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zack Martin, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Hitchbotham and family of Beaverton were among the out-of-town people in Kinton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Van Kleek and daughter, Miss Effie, of the Hiteon district, were visitors among relatives in town Sunday.

J. F. Daniels and son of Portland were visitors Friday at the home of Mr. Daniels' brother, J. R. Daniels, Pleasant Valley Road.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Godfrey of Portland and Miss Nellie Yale of Vancouver, Wash., were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wright.

Miss Mary Fluke, who has been visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. Nelson of Multnomah for the past two weeks, returned home the first of the week.

The next session of Pomona Grange will meet with the local grange on Wednesday, July 28, so grangers will want to keep this date in mind. More particulars later.

Two of our young musicians, the Misses Grace and Blanche McCormick, took part in the recital held at the home of their teacher, Mrs. L. M. Hesse, last Friday afternoon.

Al Godfrey has recently purchased a new Overland touring car. Casper Scott is seen at the wheel of a Chevrolet. And there are rumors of more new cars to be purchased at an early date.

The rock quarry on Hesse hill will soon be a busy place, as a crew of men are now busily employed getting the machinery installed, preparatory to crush the rock, which will be used on the roads in this district.

Mrs. H. L. Hudson and her sisters, Mrs. Rova Parshall and Mrs. A. E. Johnson, and her brother, Mr. W. F. Van Vector, were called to Goldendale, Washington, Friday, because of the illness of their father. He is improving, and they returned Tuesday.

Mr. R. Scheupbach has just completed boring a well and installing an automatic water system for R. W. Jackson on the Johnson Road just south of St. Mary's. The well is 57 ft. deep. The system installed is one of the sort Mr. Scheupbach is advertising on another page.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Braun and son Billy and Miss Lutina Hulett left Thursday for a two weeks' trip through Washington and British Columbia. They plan to spend the Fourth with friends in Nespelem, Washington, where Mrs. Braun and Miss Hulett formerly made their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Kingston are entertaining Mrs. Mary Versoi, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Versoi and their two children, all of Seattle, Wash. Mrs. Mary Versoi is Mrs. Kingston's mother, Mr. Clifford Versoi is Mrs. Kingston's brother, and Mrs. Clifford Versoi is Mr. Kingston's niece.

The "Riffles" has been a very popular place during the past warm spell, and many have been seen wending their way down Pleasant Valley road, with their bathing suits under their arms to have a swim in the waters of the Tualatin river.

Mrs. W. M. Brooks of Waldport was a recent visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Everett Wright. Mrs. Brooks came to attend the reunion of the McKay family, held at the school house at Raleigh, where she taught school 51 years ago.

Kirk Hoover had a narrow escape from a serious injury last week as he was hauling in hay. The load tipped as it struck a rut and threw him off the load. He was quite badly shaken up, but no bones were broken, and he is getting along nicely at this writing.

Mr. Grant Woodruff of San Francisco, Calif., who has been visiting at the home of his brother, Mr. E. W. Woodruff, returned to his home Monday. E. W. Woodruff accompanied him on his return for a short visit.

Olson Speaks At Beaver Theatre

Eugene Man Delivers Address On The Oil Development Work In The Willamette Valley

David Eugene Olson, president of the Guaranty Oil Co., of Eugene, Ore., spoke to the crowd at the Beaver Theatre, last Friday evening.

Mr. Olson spoke of the development of the Company's wells at Eugene and at Cottage Grove where drilling has been going on for some time. The well at Eugene is down to about 3,000 feet, the well at Cottage Grove not being quite so deep.

The property of this company is said to be under the control of the Eugene Bible University which is educating young people for religious work.

The speaker said that the big oil companies are all satisfied there is oil under the Willamette valley but he thought it would be several years before they would be willing to do the necessary development work.

Mr. Olson is a noted lecturer, evangelist, scientist and author. He said that from the standpoint of doing good in the world he would do as much or more good by developing the oil industry in Oregon than he can in any other way.

PARTY RETURNS FROM EASTERN TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Van Rodman and Mrs. A. H. Spranger returned last week from their eastern trip. They report a very pleasant journey, and are very pleased to have made the trip.

They were eight days on the road going by way of Lincoln Highway, but only seven days returning, by the same route, which shows that while it is nice to go away for a time, it is nicer to come back for we come back quicker than we go.

They found their relatives seemingly in better condition than they were four years ago when they visited them. They took a little trip up to Kenosha and other points in Wisconsin. Banner crops were reported, although many jack rabbits were in evidence on the plains.

The highest altitude they found near Cheyenne, Wyo., it was 8,875 feet above sea level.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Godfrey of Portland and Miss Nellie Yale of Vancouver, Wash., were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wright.

Miss Mary Fluke, who has been visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. Nelson of Multnomah for the past two weeks, returned home the first of the week.

The next session of Pomona Grange will meet with the local grange on Wednesday, July 28, so grangers will want to keep this date in mind. More particulars later.

Two of our young musicians, the Misses Grace and Blanche McCormick, took part in the recital held at the home of their teacher, Mrs. L. M. Hesse, last Friday afternoon.

Al Godfrey has recently purchased a new Overland touring car. Casper Scott is seen at the wheel of a Chevrolet. And there are rumors of more new cars to be purchased at an early date.

The rock quarry on Hesse hill will soon be a busy place, as a crew of men are now busily employed getting the machinery installed, preparatory to crush the rock, which will be used on the roads in this district.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Kingston are entertaining Mrs. Mary Versoi, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Versoi and their two children, all of Seattle, Wash. Mrs. Mary Versoi is Mrs. Kingston's mother, Mr. Clifford Versoi is Mrs. Kingston's brother, and Mrs. Clifford Versoi is Mr. Kingston's niece.

Tom Allen is the proud possessor of a new "Fordor" Ford sedan. Tom says he supposes he will have to stop reading the paper now because he will probably be spending all his money for gasoline, so we used our most persuasive smile and induced him to subscribe for a year in advance.

The "Riffles" has been a very popular place during the past warm spell, and many have been seen wending their way down Pleasant Valley road, with their bathing suits under their arms to have a swim in the waters of the Tualatin river.

Mrs. W. M. Brooks of Waldport was a recent visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Everett Wright. Mrs. Brooks came to attend the reunion of the McKay family, held at the school house at Raleigh, where she taught school 51 years ago.

Kirk Hoover had a narrow escape from a serious injury last week as he was hauling in hay. The load tipped as it struck a rut and threw him off the load. He was quite badly shaken up, but no bones were broken, and he is getting along nicely at this writing.

Mr. Grant Woodruff of San Francisco, Calif., who has been visiting at the home of his brother, Mr. E. W. Woodruff, returned to his home Monday. E. W. Woodruff accompanied him on his return for a short visit.

VELMA DAVIES WEDS HENRY VAN HYNING

The home of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Davies was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Thursday evening, June 24. Their daughter Velma was married to Henry Van Hyning of Tigard by Rev. Taylor.

Miss Edna Hoeken played the wedding march, and the brother and sister of the bridegroom were best man and bridesmaid. The house was decorated in pink and white.

About fifty guests were present, among them the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Van Hyning of Roseburg, Ore.

Miss Davies was a member of the 1922 class of the Beaverton High School.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Gorham entertained on Tuesday evening with an outdoor party.

A bonfire, "weenie" roast and games were enjoyed by all. Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Cauthers won the prizes for the evening. Mr. Tefft won high honors in the horse shoe pitching. Mr. Cauthers was champion weenie roaster.

Big Ben gave the alarm when all left at a late hour after a most enjoyable evening. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. McKeecher, of Beaverton; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cauthers, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Jacobs, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. F. Lassiter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Underhill, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Allen, Mrs. Leslie Suttner, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Livermore, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Tefft, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Denney, Mrs. Daisy Hoeken; Mrs. White of Tillamook; Mrs. W. G. Roberts and mother Mrs. Wood; Mrs. Tracy Whitworth; Mrs. M. J. Whitworth, Mr. Earl Evans,

His Hundred and Fiftieth Birthday

