Trying to Say the Right Thing

WOMAN CONQUERS FEARS

Husband Delighted and Home Happier

St. Paul, Minn.—"Here is a little advice I would like to have you put in the papers." Mrs. Jack Lorberter of 704 Dellwood Place writes to the Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. "I have tried the Compound myself and received fine results from its use." In describing her condition before taking the Compound, she writes, "I was afraid in my own house in broad daylight, I used to lock the doors and pull down the shades so that nobody could see me." One day a booklet advertising the Vegetable Compound was left on her porch and she read it through. In doing, she found a letter from a woman whose condition was similar to her own. "I bought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound," Mrs. Lorberter continued, "and have had wonderful results. My condition made me a burden to my husband. Now I ask him, 'How is housekeeping?' and he says, 'It is just like being in Heaven!' Are you on the Sunlit Road to Better Health?"

The Best Place

The illustrated Bible had a strong fascination for little Geraldine. With the book open on her lap, she looked up and said: "Mother, do people marry in heaven?" "The Good Book says they do not, Geraldine." "Well, do they marry in—the other place?" "I suppose not, my dear." Geraldine shut the Bible with a bang. "Then I'm going to stay here," she said.
