Faultfinder Not Wanted
Tucked on the wall of his headquarters, where his horses may be racing, and over his desk at the office on his breeding farm, John E. Madden, the famous horseman, has a sign which reads: "No complaints received unless accompanied by remedies," according to an item in Liberty. Mr. Madden, in commenting on his motto, says: "I do not think anyone has the right to claim a thing is wrong unless he is ready to show how it can be corrected."
