KICKING OUTSIDE
Friend - You don't seem to object to your wife attending to many dances away from home. Hub - No - It gives her a chance to do her kicking outside.
Wise Little Angler
Jack - Won't you give me when I return home?
Jill - Hardly - You see I have accepted another fellow.
Jack - But even if you are engaged you can drop me a line.
Jill - No; when I catch a fish I stop dropping lines.

BUSINESS WITH A KICK
Johnson - "He said he wouldn't be in a business that hadn't any kick."
Smith - "What did he take up?" Johnson - "Bootlegging."
Easy
"How do you trace a fleeting suspect?"
"Aw, the foxiest can't resist the temptation to send back postcards."
True Enough
"I saved myself from a bad accident yesterday."
"You'll never get a medal for that."

SHOWERS BEFORE RAIN
"I never knew a girl to have so many showers before she married."
"Didn't she, though - and she still reigns."
Passed On
Wife - Some awful swindler gave me a bad half dollar in my change today. Husband - Really! Let me see it. Wife - I paid the milkman with it.
Ten miles an hour was about the best sustained speed that could be made in the first automobile race in the United States.

QUEEN VICTORIA LYDIA E. PINKHAM

Two Famous Women Born the Same Year

In the year 1819, two babies were born whose lives were destined to have far reaching influence. One was born in a stately castle of Old England, the other in a humble farmhouse in New England. Queen Victoria through her wisdom and kindness during a long and prosperous reign has become enthroned in the hearts of the British people. Lydia E. Pinkham through the merit of her Vegetable Compound has made her name a household word in many American homes. One of the many women who praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is Mrs. Adolph Bratke of 4316 South 13th St., South Omaha, Neb., who was in a rundown condition for four years before she tried the Compound. "I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound," she writes, "and I have felt my health steadily improving." Mrs. Bratke continued to take the Compound for a year and a half and at the end of that time she found herself in excellent health. "I am feeling fine now and do all my work myself," she wrote in her most recent letter. "I am the mother of six and manage an eight-room house without anybody to help."

Billions of Bibles
The Bible in the English language is the most widely sold book in the world. Whether or not it is as widely read we do not know, but the American Bible society reports the remarkable total of ten and one-half billion copies sold in 1925. This breaks the record for all previous years. Increases were shown in China, Japan, and throughout the Far East. Russia alone declined to admit the Bible as an influence for good.—The Outlook.
