Democrats Carry Local Offices

State Goes Republican Though A Number of Seats Were Lost To G.O.P. In Congress.

Following the usual custom, this town voted a split ticket in preference to "going it straight" Patterson and the entire list of Republican candidates for state and county offices, were given substantian pluralities, but Haney carried Beaverton by a slight plurality and in the local contest for Justice of the Peace and constable, the Democratic candidates were elected. E. E. Swenson, the Democratic nominee will succeed Chas. Fry, Sr., the present incumbent as Justice of the Peace, and W. F. Dessinger, the present incumbent in the constable's office was re-elected over A. E. Story, the Republican candidat. Some of the "Old Guard" had predicted that "Beaverton will go for Stanfield."
