GIRLS' INTER-CLASS BASKETBALL GAME

On Tuesday, December 7, the Freshman girls met the Sophomore girls in a hard fought game. Nevertheless, the Freshmen put up a fight that is worthy of mention. They did their blindest and who knows but that within a few years when they grow up, they will win the pennant. The game was one-sided from the first. The Sophs copied the game with a score of 33 to the Frosh's 3.

On Thursday, December 9, the Junior girls met the Senior girls. Again it was a one-sided affair, the Juniors winning with a score of 25 to the seniors 5.

Although the Junior girls won and ran up a score, the Senior boys so defeated the Junior boys that the score averaged in favor of the seniors—thus entitling the Senior girls to play the Sophs who were winners in the first game.

On Friday, December 10, the Seniors met the Sophomores to decide which class should win the championship and the pennant. This indeed was a hard fought game, especially on the part of the Seniors. The Sophs meant to win the pennant but the Seniors wanted an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. During the last half the game waxed hot. The girls knocked each other out and back again. Margaret Litton got in front of somebody's arm that was working like a battering ram and consequently received a severe knock on the nose. Dorothy Rankin also got in the way of flying fists and received a hit on the jaw that practically knocked her cold. During the first quarter, the Sophs ran up a large score—and again in the second quarter they made many points, but in the last half the Seniors woke up and fought for all they were worth. They played so hard they held down the score so the Sophs barely made a few points. But the first half brought up the score of the Sophs so much that even though the boys were badly beaten the girls' score averaged up with one point to the Sophomores' good—so they won the pennant this year.

The Seniors were at a disadvantage this year as their former class teams were made up of lettermen. This year a new rule caused the Seniors to look for new material as lettermen were not allowed to play in the inter-class games.

There is one man in the United States to whom the income tax return blanks didn't bring a frown. Instead, his letter of acknowledgement caused smiles to treasury officials. The letter read: "Dear Treasury: I received your application blank, but I already belong to several good orders and do not care to join your income tax at this time."

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORGANIZED IN HIGH SCHOOL

(From the Beaverton Hammer) To Conduct Fire Drills Soon The officers of this department are:

- Alden Barron Chief
- Lester Gray Lieutenant
- Leland Ariss 'Capt.-of-the-slides'
- Mark Jones 'Capt.-of-Housemen'
- Lawrence Day Capt. of doors and traffic and Timekeeper

The following men assist the Captains: Richard Wismer, Milton Boring, Glenn Kingston, Boyd Sprague, Herman Lindow, Ben Gormiquette, John Rankin, Frank Kuru, Ben Zuecher, Byron Nichol, Bartlett Bailey, and Lloyd Yann.

The Fire Chief has ordered fire notices put up in all the rooms in the building to direct the students as to where to go when the fire bell rings (four short bells). As yet, the squad has not gone through any drill but they will next week. The first fire drill will be Thursday.

At present there are more than two hundred fifty students in B.H.S. After two or three drills, the squad hopes to be able to clear the building in a half of a minute.

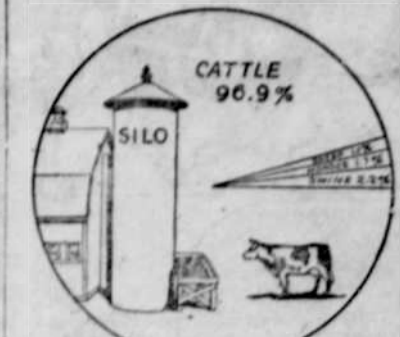

Mr. Metzler advises them to purchase 3 new fire hoses and to strap the reels to the water pipes so they can be used without any damage. The fire extinguishers are to be emptied and re-filled. In case of fire the building will be made safe from fire as possible.

The members of the squad are receiving badges so that the students can recognize them.

Two bucks, on leave to Paris were improving the fleeting hour by a museum tour. In one of the Egyptian rooms they stood in awe before a mummy over which hung a card inscribed "B. C. 1006." "Wolcher s'pose that means Bill?" asked one, mystified. "The other was reluctant to confess ignorance. "Oh, that," he replied airily. "That's the number of the auto that killed him."

Eat Way Through Corn Acres

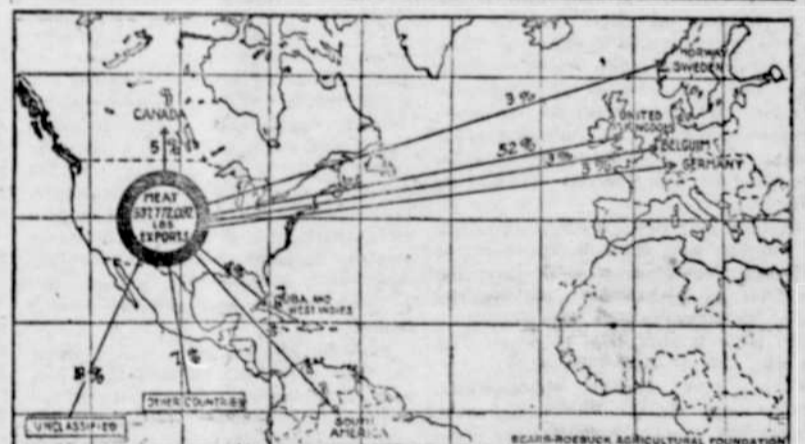

(Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation) Eating their way through almost four million acres of corn in the form of silage is the job American cattle, mostly dairy cows, accomplish every year, according to the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation. It has been estimated that they eat 96.9% of the vast amount of silage while of the small amount left, swine consume 2.2%, horses, 1.7% and sheep 1.1%. Very little silage is fed to poultry. All silage made on the farm is consumed on the farm because it is not a product that can be handled successfully through commercial channels.

Hogs Get Barley Diet

(Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation) Approximately 50,000,000 bushels of barley will be fed to farm animals in the United States this year if the present crop outlook is fulfilled. Of this amount a trifle over one-half, or 50.9%, according to the figures compiled by the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation, is consumed by hogs. Next to them, horses eat the most barley, or 17.7% of all barley fed to farm animals. Then 11.9% is fed to cattle, mostly to dairy cows in the form of barley chops. Farm poultry flocks get away with another 10.3%, leaving 9% to be fed to sheep and used for miscellaneous feed purposes. Barley is the chief competitor of corn as live-stock feed and is especially important in the northern corn belt and Pacific coast states, according to the Foundation's experts.

U. S. Exports 537,772,092 Pounds of Meat, Worth $109,872,185

Exports of meat from the United States in the twelve months ending June 30, 1926, amounted to 537,772,092 pounds, valued at $109,872,185, according to the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation in a survey of the 1926 meat situation. Great Britain was the biggest customer, taking 32 per cent of all the meat exports in the last fiscal year and more than six times as much as Cuba and the West Indies, the next largest buyers. Canada ranked third but took only 5 per cent, and Germany was fourth, taking slightly less than 3 per cent. Belgium and the Scandinavian countries are other nations to which the United States delivers yearly substantial quantities of meat. Germany, on the other hand, was a large customer, taking about 13 pounds of lard for each pound of our meats she purchased. Beef and veal exports make up only about 4 per cent of the total amount of United States meat exports.

SOPHOMORES WIN BASKETBALL PENNANT

In a very fast game on Friday, December 10, the sophomore class of B. H. S. won the interclass basketball tournament by running up one more point than the seniors, making their total 32 points against 31 for the seniors. This tournament is an annual event, and all classes participate. The different teams were somewhat handicapped as no letterman or woman was allowed to play, and so the contest was hard fought between the less experienced boys and girls.

If the seniors had been successful, the basketball pennant would have been a permanent trophy on the walls of B. H. S. for the class of 1927, as any team that holds this pennant three consecutive years remains in possession of that pennant as long as the school stands.

The freshmen and juniors were eliminated in the first part of the tournament, the freshmen losing to the sophomores, and the juniors to the seniors.

This is run on a basis of points for each class, and so one team could lose and still be in the running, as did the senior girls.

The scores and total for the games are as follows:

	Boys	Girls	Total
Freshmen	11	3	14
Sophomores	24	33	57
Juniors	7	25	32
Seniors	28	5	33
Finals	27	4	31
Sophomores	4	28	32

Mr. Metzler—I miss the old cuspidor since it's gone, my dear. Mrs. Metzler—You missed it before—that's why it's gone. "How was that lecturer who was to speak on Self-Management?" "He didn't come. His manager canceled the date."
