Church of Christ

Sunday, April 3, 1927.
9:45 a.m., Bible School.

11:00 a.m., Morning Worship. The Lord's Supper—Sermon by Evangelist Baird.

6:45 p.m., Young People's Council.
7:45 p.m., Evangelical Service.

Congregational singing, special music. Sermon by Evangelist "Billy" Baird.

Sunday will be the last day of the Evangelistic campaign. These should be the big days of the meetings, and every one should avail himself of the opportunity of attending.

Friday evening, "High School Evening," is when we are looking for a large delegation of high school students. You will want to be present for this.

Then Sunday will be a great day. The contest with the Carlton Bible school closed last Sunday with Beaverton 28 points in the lead. It was a close race and an enthusiastic one. Now that we have won that contest, we are not content and so long as there are people around Beaverton not in any Sunday school, there is room for growth.

Last Sunday there were 147 in Bible school. Next Sunday we plan to have 175.

Come and help us reach that number. —J. Frank Cunningham, Minister.
