

The Beaverton Review

CALIFORNIA ANGLER TO TRY BEAVERTON STREAMS

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hammer and four youngest children, of Burbank, California, motored into Beaverton Monday noon for a six weeks' visit with Mrs. Hammer's parents, Judge and Mrs. E. E. Swenson on south Watson street.

They have visited Beaverton before, and at one time were contemplating the purchase of a chicken ranch here. Mr. Hammer proceeded to get a fishing license about as soon as he arrived, so we expect to have some good fish stories to print later.

Next Sunday they will leave for a stay of a week or so at Devil's Lake. They will be followed by Dr. Swenson, a son of Judge and Mrs. Swenson, and practicing physician, of Portland, who will drive his own car to accommodate his parents.

ST. MARY'S NEWS

(Too late for last week.)

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Myers spent Decoration Day in Portland, Oregon.

Mr. R. W. Jackson has been at home and on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Brune were Sunday visitors at the P. Smith home at Aloha, Oregon.

Miss Merle Simpson, of Tacoma, Washington, was a house guest of Mrs. Myers over Friday and Saturday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dixon, Mr. G. Coop, of Green River, Wyoming, arrived here on Saturday evening to visit several weeks with Mrs. Dixon, niece of Mrs. Charles T. Myers and see the state of Oregon. They will drive on to Los Angeles, California, before returning home.

FAIRVALE

(Too late for last week.)

Mr. La Fond, of the Fairvale Market, has installed a new ice machine at his shop.

Among the new people in Fairvale are Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Kramer, formerly of Beaverton.

A new fountain has been installed at the Fairvale Pharmacy. The equipment is of the latest.

Miss Jessie Wisner, of The Dalles, was a late visitor at the home of her brother, Mr. V. E. Wisner and family.

The "Sons of Norway" held their first picnic on the Club-house grounds Sunday afternoon and evening.

John Sandstrom, local representative of Ben Reiland, reports a number of sales of Fairvale and adjoining property.

A pickup team from Fairvale played the Beaverton Baseball Club's second team on Payne field at Beaverton last Sunday. The locals lost by a 5-0 score.

Mac's Barbecue reports business as being in shipshape condition. Mac has the reputation of turning out the best sandwiches and coffee of any barbecue in the vicinity of Portland.

Bercholzer and Willis, who have been running the regular Wednesday night dances, announced at the last dance that beginning Saturday, June 18, they would run a regular Saturday night dance and discontinue the Wednesday night dances.

Mr. Joel Naldredt, of Huber, has traded Portland property for the V. A. Wood house at Sixth and Lombard streets. Mr. Naldredt will be remembered as the man who played 'The Priest' in some of the movies produced at the local studio.

PARTY AND SHOWER GIVEN RECENT FIRE VICTIMS

Kinton, Ore., June 14, (Special)—The farm residence of Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Hoover near here burned last week. The building and contents were completely destroyed. Mrs. Hoover was alone in the house at the time of the fire.

On Friday evening the Kirk family were tendered a very pleasant surprise party at the Grange hall. It was a miscellaneous shower as well. Many useful articles were given the Kirks to, in a measure, replace their recent losses. There was a large attendance and a very pleasant evening was spent by all. Some played cards, while others visited with their neighbors. Refreshments were served in the dining room during the evening.

F. C. Hanley started suit Tuesday against Hazel Malarkey for the recovery of $100, alleged due him for attorney fees. Action will be brought in Justice Swenson's court.

A. J. Pfall began suit in Justice Swenson's court Wednesday for the recovery of an automobile from Earl and Adeline Pearce. The machine is now in storage at Stipe's Garage.

A. C. Chinn, building and painting contractor, is busy this week adding the finishing touches to the new Haulenbeck building on east Broadway. The building will be occupied personally by the owner, C. A. Haulenbeck, known far and wide as a maker of fine violins.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berthold motored out through the valley Sunday on sort of an inspection tour. Mr. Berthold says the prospects for a bumper yield were never better, the hay crop, which is now being cut, being one of the largest in several years.