

Short Paragraphs Of Local Interest

Personal Items About People Whom You Know In And Around Beaverton

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barnes and children spent the week-end at the coast.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meeuwse on Watson street June 25, a daughter.

Miss Frances Hills, of Portland, was a week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. E. W. Gady.

Mrs. J. C. Huntley joined her husband in Spokane Friday and returned with him Sunday.

Mr. George Klinski is erecting a modern bungalow on his property on Lombard road.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Seifert, of Route 3, are the proud parents of a baby boy, born June 26.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bolen are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a son on June 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Summers spent Sunday at Carlton Lake.

Mrs. Mary Evans, of San Diego, is visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Skidmore.

Mrs. Ray Cook and three children, of Portland, spent Friday visiting with friends in Beaverton.

Mrs. E. P. Edwards and baby daughter, Mary Patricia, returned home Tuesday from the Wilcox Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Janin and baby were guests at the home of Mr. Janin's sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Doty Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Deitsch have sold their property on Lombard street and moved to a house on Franklin street, near Second.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Webb, of Cornelius, were Beaverton visitors Sunday evening. They sang a duet at the Congregational church.

Messrs. Halsten, Francis Livermore, Jr., Guy Carp and James Whitworth spent the week-end fishing on the Wilson river. They report a fair catch.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Doty and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gady attended the concert given Wednesday evening at the Portland Auditorium by the St. Olaf Lutheran choir.

Mr. L. V. Graham was brought home Saturday from the Emanuel hospital, where he had been under treatment for food poisoning. He is improving but his condition is not yet good.

The Past Matrons' Club of 1924 entertained their husbands at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of Gresham, Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Summers were present.

Among the roads that have been recently opened are the market road from Allen avenue to Sorrento Park, Allen avenue, part of Lombard road and some in the Sorrento district.

Rev. and Mrs. George N. Taylor have purchased an acre tract on the Canyon road just this side of the West Hills Sanatorium and will soon begin the construction of a modern six room house.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hammer and four children, from Burbank, California, who are visiting in the E. E. Swenson home, spent from Wednesday to Saturday of last week at The Dalles.

Miss Beulah Chever presented Miss Magee and Miss Forde, of Portland, in a social Friday evening. Mrs. Mary Summers, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Alexander and daughter, Evelyn and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Alexander, were among the guests.

Mrs. W. H. Boyd entertained at a bridge luncheon in the Sorrento Park Friday. Those present were Mrs. G. G. McCormick, of Garden Home, Mrs. Robert Summers, Mrs. Elmer Stipe, Mrs. Henry Nelson, Mrs. J. E. Davis, Mrs. J. G. Huntley and Mrs. George Blaser. Mrs. McCormick won the honors.

The Oregon Rural Letter Carriers held their regular annual convention and picnic at Forest Grove, June 25 and 26. Those attending from Beaverton were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McKell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Lance Kennedy and two children, and Mrs. Lottie Boring.

The annual picnic given Saturday at the MacKay schoolhouse for the former teachers and students was fairly well attended, many coming from a distance. 13 were present who attended the school 63 years ago. Mr. B. K. Deeny was elected president and Mr. Cyrus MacKay, of Portland, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. Lester Squires has a new Chevrolet coach.

Cashier Gray motored to Portland Tuesday, accompanied by his son Myron.

The father and mother of Mr. L. L. Laswell are visiting at his home.

Mrs. Dona Long and daughter, Gladys, spent the week-end at Neskonim.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Humber have rented the Skidmore house on Lombard street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Deal motored to Hood River Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Helm.

Mrs. N. W. Gorham spent the week-end at the home of her husband and friends.

Mrs. A. H. Spranger left on Saturday for a two weeks' stay in her cottage at Rockaway.

Mrs. J. R. Law, of Portland, spent the week-end at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Holden.

Mr. Jack Kaddrell, of Huber, has bought the property of A. A. Wood, on Sixth street, near Lombard.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner Rollinson were dinner guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Guppy.

Dr. and Mrs. Atwood, of Portland, were guests Wednesday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Ingalls.

Miss Gladys Hubbard, of Longmont, Colorado, was a dinner guest Monday of Mr. and Mrs. Day Gray.

Mrs. H. J. Cox and daughter, Bernice, and Lois, left Sunday for a month's visit with relatives in Chicago.

Father Heesaker, of St. Mary's had his Chevrolet coach stolen Friday. It was recovered in Portland Saturday.

Miss Leitha Brammer, of Bosman, Montana, was a guest last week at the home of her cousin, Mrs. S. C. Freeman.

Mrs. Mary Korman, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. H. Spranger, left last week to visit her daughter in Los Angeles.

Mr. S. C. Freeman reports some freak potato blossoms, a pale lavender color, and a pronounced fragrance, similar to a hyacinth.

Mrs. John B. McLeod and sons, John and William, of Portland, were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Freeman.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Talbert, accompanied by Mrs. Talbert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gould, of Medford, spent several days at Bay Ocean.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Petel drove to McMinnville Monday on hearing of the death of their friend, Mrs. H. J. Noll, who was killed in an automobile wreck in Portland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Loraine Wise, who formerly lived in Beaverton, had their Chevrolet sedan stolen Thursday from Park street in Portland. It was recovered Friday in Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Graham arrived last week for a visit in the home of Mr. Graham's brother, L. V. Graham. Mr. Graham left Friday, but his wife will remain for a longer visit.

The Misses Alice and Edith Watts spent Sunday at Little Ground, Washington. Miss Alice had charge of the morning service in the community church there and Miss Edith sang.

Mrs. Henry Watts and daughter, Miss Alice, left Wednesday for camp meeting held in Portland. Miss Alice leaves Thursday for Tacoma, where she will speak Friday, returning Saturday.

Mrs. H. L. Hudson and family returned Sunday morning. They made a two weeks' round trip in the first voyage of the steamer "Admiral Benson" from Portland to San Diego, California.

John Dahlquist drove down from Kelso, Tuesday, to exercise his suffrage rights. He owns property on the Barnes road, north of Beaverton, but is residing temporarily in Kelso.

H. S. Davis, lumber camp foreman, is here on a visit to his mother, Mrs. William Davis, over the Fourth holidays. H. S. owns a fine oak grove in west Beaverton, which he purchased through ex-Judge Fry, realtor.

Lieutenant George R. Kingston, of Seattle, now stationed at Vancouver Barracks, Mr. and Mrs. William Jacques, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Jacques and family, of Portland, visited at the Ellington home Sunday.

Miss Lola Goddard, of Colgate Grove, is spending the summer at the home of her uncle, Mr. J. F. Goddard. She is attending the summer school of the Northwestern Business College, of Portland.

Mrs. V. D. Amell and Mrs. Dan Crosley gave a shower one evening last week at the Buena Vista Apartments in Portland, for Miss Lena Matzke. Miss Lucille Jones, of Beaverton was present.

Mrs. L. E. Garmire, and three children, John, Joe and Albert, of Eugene, spent several days the past week at the Henry Shannon home south of town. They made the trip overland in their auto, returning home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dageforde, of Alberta Canada, were visitors at the home of Jacob Lesh on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Dageforde are planning on leaving the last of the week for Los Angeles, where they will visit with friends and relatives.

Miss Grete Gray entertained at a bridge dinner Saturday evening at the Campbell Court Hotel for 12 young ladies, most of whom belong to the sorority. Miss Jeanette Dentler won first prize and Mrs. Velma Jensen the consolation.

At the regular meeting of the Beaverton Masonic lodge last Thursday evening, Alton Allen City Attorney for Beaverton, took the Master Mason's degree. R. Frank Peters, of Hillsboro, and several other out of town members of the lodge were present.

The Portland Golf Club at Raleigh Station is making some extensive improvements. They are building a new road over the hill, straightening out the curve and thus making the caddy house farther from it, and so, safer for the boys. They are also putting in a library for them. They will erect a $17,000 club building in the near future.

Let The Beaverton Review Do That Printing For You.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

HAZELDALE MAN FOUND DEAD IN CABIN

John Klein was found dead in his cabin near Hazeldale Thursday morning. He had been working in the hay field the day before and was thought to be in the best of health.

He has lived around that neighborhood for several years, has relatives in Portland and it is thought there are several other relatives in California.

The remains were brought to Pegg's mortuary where the body now lies. Funeral arrangements have not been completed but it is thought that he will be buried from a church in St. John's the first of the week.

There is to be no inquest by the coroner as it is believed that death came from natural causes.

Mrs. R. S. Guppy entertained with a luncheon on Thursday followed by cards. Mrs. Charles Gibson won first honors in bridge. Mrs. A. Goss was second and Mrs. Robert Skeen won the draw prize.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Clement and family motored to Vancouver, Washington, Sunday evening, their son Byron, who is enrolled in the Citizens Training Camp there, having spent the day at the parental home.

C. H. Fry left this morning for Newport, accompanied by his family. They have a fine summer home there, in fact they own two commodious cottages and four lots in easy access to the beach. Mr. Fry will return on Tuesday, but the family will remain the better part of the summer.

C. H. Fry, Jr., accompanied by Eiler Carsons, formerly of Beaverton, but now of Portland, motored to Kheikita, soda springs Sunday, bringing back about 20 gallons of that fizzy liquid, which Junior says is recommended to cure everything from sore feet to bald heads. Kheikita is but a short distance from Goldendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Speake arrived in Beaverton Tuesday from Klamath Falls, whither they went about a month ago. Mr. Speake to ply his trade while living, he strained his back which rendered him unable to work. Mr. Speake is a former Beaverton plumber. Since leaving Beaverton, they have spent considerable time in Portland, although they own a acreage at Aloha, which they call home.

For Sale—3 1/2 acres of clover and timothy hay, like Aseltine, Rt. 3, 1 1/2 miles south of Banks in Sorrento district.

Let The Beaverton Review Do That Printing For You.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

HAZELDALE MAN FOUND DEAD IN CABIN

John Klein was found dead in his cabin near Hazeldale Thursday morning. He had been working in the hay field the day before and was thought to be in the best of health.

He has lived around that neighborhood for several years, has relatives in Portland and it is thought there are several other relatives in California.

The remains were brought to Pegg's mortuary where the body now lies. Funeral arrangements have not been completed but it is thought that he will be buried from a church in St. John's the first of the week.

There is to be no inquest by the coroner as it is believed that death came from natural causes.

Mrs. R. S. Guppy entertained with a luncheon on Thursday followed by cards. Mrs. Charles Gibson won first honors in bridge. Mrs. A. Goss was second and Mrs. Robert Skeen won the draw prize.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Clement and family motored to Vancouver, Washington, Sunday evening, their son Byron, who is enrolled in the Citizens Training Camp there, having spent the day at the parental home.

C. H. Fry left this morning for Newport, accompanied by his family. They have a fine summer home there, in fact they own two commodious cottages and four lots in easy access to the beach. Mr. Fry will return on Tuesday, but the family will remain the better part of the summer.

C. H. Fry, Jr., accompanied by Eiler Carsons, formerly of Beaverton, but now of Portland, motored to Kheikita, soda springs Sunday, bringing back about 20 gallons of that fizzy liquid, which Junior says is recommended to cure everything from sore feet to bald heads. Kheikita is but a short distance from Goldendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Speake arrived in Beaverton Tuesday from Klamath Falls, whither they went about a month ago. Mr. Speake to ply his trade while living, he strained his back which rendered him unable to work. Mr. Speake is a former Beaverton plumber. Since leaving Beaverton, they have spent considerable time in Portland, although they own a acreage at Aloha, which they call home.

For Sale—3 1/2 acres of clover and timothy hay, like Aseltine, Rt. 3, 1 1/2 miles south of Banks in Sorrento district.

Let The Beaverton Review Do That Printing For You.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

HAZELDALE MAN FOUND DEAD IN CABIN

John Klein was found dead in his cabin near Hazeldale Thursday morning. He had been working in the hay field the day before and was thought to be in the best of health.

He has lived around that neighborhood for several years, has relatives in Portland and it is thought there are several other relatives in California.

The remains were brought to Pegg's mortuary where the body now lies. Funeral arrangements have not been completed but it is thought that he will be buried from a church in St. John's the first of the week.

There is to be no inquest by the coroner as it is believed that death came from natural causes.

Mrs. R. S. Guppy entertained with a luncheon on Thursday followed by cards. Mrs. Charles Gibson won first honors in bridge. Mrs. A. Goss was second and Mrs. Robert Skeen won the draw prize.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Clement and family motored to Vancouver, Washington, Sunday evening, their son Byron, who is enrolled in the Citizens Training Camp there, having spent the day at the parental home.

C. H. Fry left this morning for Newport, accompanied by his family. They have a fine summer home there, in fact they own two commodious cottages and four lots in easy access to the beach. Mr. Fry will return on Tuesday, but the family will remain the better part of the summer.

C. H. Fry, Jr., accompanied by Eiler Carsons, formerly of Beaverton, but now of Portland, motored to Kheikita, soda springs Sunday, bringing back about 20 gallons of that fizzy liquid, which Junior says is recommended to cure everything from sore feet to bald heads. Kheikita is but a short distance from Goldendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Speake arrived in Beaverton Tuesday from Klamath Falls, whither they went about a month ago. Mr. Speake to ply his trade while living, he strained his back which rendered him unable to work. Mr. Speake is a former Beaverton plumber. Since leaving Beaverton, they have spent considerable time in Portland, although they own a acreage at Aloha, which they call home.

For Sale—3 1/2 acres of clover and timothy hay, like Aseltine, Rt. 3, 1 1/2 miles south of Banks in Sorrento district.

Let The Beaverton Review Do That Printing For You.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent

Daily and Sunday Delivery Beaverton, Ore.

Phone 3530 Box 593

F. M. Smith

THE OREGONIAN MAN

City and Rural Agent