For years I suffered with falling hair. I had consulted scores of specialists, spent thousands of dollars in a vain effort to discover the source of my frightful complaint. I could go nowhere without exciting comment. At dinners my hair would fall into the soup, and crimson with shame, I would have to apologize to my hostess or feign illness as the excuse for my lapse of table manners. My mind began to be affected. Then I discovered GLU-GOO. (at all drugists). One bottle was enough. I have never been able to get my hat off since.

Services at the church Sunday are as follows: Bible at 11:00 o'clock in the morning and preaching by the pastor, Rev. W. L. Strange, at 1:30 in the afternoon. Everybody is most cordially invited to attend these services.

The population of Kinton was very much scattered on the Fourth. Many attended the celebration in Hillsboro, some visited friends and relatives in different parts of the state, a number were at the coast resorts, while a few stayed at home. We hope everybody enjoyed the day.

Letters from Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Braune (Augusta Wenzel) have been received, telling of their safe arrival in Europe, after a very pleasant voyage. They are at present in Dresden, Germany, where they are the guests of Mr. Braune's parents. They are to make an extended visit, and will visit many places of interest while away.

The voters in this precinct turned out very well at the special election last Tuesday. There were 71 votes cast. The following were on duty at the polls: Day Board; judges, Geo. Snider and Harry Flint; clerks, Effie Van Kleeck, Ada Cutting and Sarah Van Kleeck. Night Board; judges, Floyd Bierly and E. Boge; clerks, Alice Richards, Anabel Flint and Ethel Wilson.

The glorious Fourth was fittingly observed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cox, of Cooper mountain, when, at 8:00 o'clock in the morning there was held a flag raising, attended by a number of neighbors. To the strains of "The Star Spangled Banner," played on the cornet by William Wenzel, and sung by those assembled, a new American flag was floated to the breeze, after which the pledge to the flag was given and a salute fired. We would like to see more of these tributes floating in the air in this beautiful valley, to show our patriotism, especially on these holidays.

This is the 151st year since the United States Flag first was raised. The story of how Betty Ross fashioned by hand its original thirteen white stars on a field of blue with thirteen stripes of alternating red and white, is one of the most romantic incidents in our history. To it, Francis Scott Key wrote and dedicated his "Star Spangled Banner."

The college student had been at work in the harvest fields for one day and, as he groggily retired to bed, he said, "Mr. Brown may I make one suggestion?"
"Why certainly."
"Don't call me until my lamp chimney cools off. I don't want to burn my fingers."
