She was the recipient of numerous useful presents, and her friends wish her many more happy returns of the day. W. J. Edwards, who formerly resided here, was given a surprise party at his home in Metzger Monday evening, it being in honor of his birthday. A number of his old neighbors and friends from here attended, and a very pleasant evening was spent. W. C. The big caterpillar grader and a crew of men have been busy the past week doing some much needed work on the roads on Cooper mountain. Widening the roads and eliminating some of the bad corners has worked a big improvement. Keep up the good work, gentlemen; there are some more bad places yet that need to be fixed. Those who have cherry trees, have been very busy picking cherries and a number have taken them to the cannery in Hillsboro. Haying is getting pretty well along, and the baler is expected to arrive some time during the last of the week, as a number will bale their hay this year.
