KINTON NEWS

E. L. Cox made a business trip to Reedville Tuesday.

Frank G. Fluke, formerly of this town, was calling on friends Sunday.

Mrs. Ethel McCormick has been employed in Hillsboro during the past week.

The farmers in this community who raised barley this year, threshed it out last week.

Miss Ruth Beckwith, of Portland spent the week-end with her friend, Miss Hazel Koenig.

August Wenzel and son William were transacting business in Portland Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Young and family spent the week-end with relatives at The Dalles.

S. H. Pomeroy, Robert Pomeroy and daughter, Kathryn, spent Sunday with relatives in Scappoose.

Many of our young people have been employed in the berry fields around Scholls, during the past week.

Messrs Emil and Herman Dallman left Friday evening for Washington, where they have employment.

Albert Dallman, who is employed in Portland, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Dallman.

Miss Rosa Bucher, who has employment in Portland, was a guest for a few days the first of the week, of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bucher.

The following were guests of Mrs. Louise Van Kleeck, Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Messer and Karl Wedeking, all of Portland.

Mrs. Floyd Bierly has been very poorly at her home during the past week, but is reported as some improved at this writing.

There is one less chicken hawk in this community, as an extra large one was shot the first of the week by one of our young hunters.

Regular services at the church this Sunday as follows: Bible School at 11:00 a. m. and preaching service at 1:30 p. m. Everybody is invited to attend.

The grangers of this community will next Wednesday be the meeting of Washington county Pomona Grange, which meets with the Scholls grange.

The haying season is pretty well over now, but those who are going to bale their hay are still waiting for the baling outfit which is expected some time this week.

Mr. and Mrs. August Wenzel and house guest, H. Kahler, of Baltimore, and William Wenzel visited Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Egger, of the Laurel district.

The road crew with the big caterpillar grader, did some much needed work on the road at the head of Mr. Wenzel's orchard last week. This stretch of road will be rocked later in the season.

H. Kahler, of Baltimore, Md., arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Wenzel, Cooper mountain, on Saturday evening, and will make an extended visit. Mr. Kahler is a brother of Mrs. Wenzel.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Corell and Mrs. E. R. Ash, all of Portland, were callers at the W I Van Horn ranch Sunday. Mrs. Ash is very much interested in Washington county, and is looking at several places as a prospective purchaser of a home in this locality.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Richards and family, of Portland, were Sunday guests of Mr. Richards' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Richards. The Misses Lila and Vivian Richards, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richards, Jr. were also visitors at the Richards home.

Cards were received from Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Vandermost last week, saying that they were enjoying the wonderful sights of Yellowstone National park, and were expecting to leave there the last of the week for eastern Oregon, where they will remain until later in the season.

Letters have been received during the past week from Mr. and Mrs. Josef Tanner, of Scio, (formerly of this town) informing their many friends here of the improved condition of Mr. Tanner who has been ill in an Albany hospital. He was removed recently to his home, and is doing as well as can be expected. We all hope he has a speedy recovery.

Ye scribe spent last Thursday and Friday at Gladstone taking in some of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua assembly. "The Old Frontier," a pageant-play of the winning of Oregon was one of the numbers on the program very much enjoyed. There were a number of old Oregon pioneers present, one of whom was 99 years old.

Friday was "Grange Day," and Washington county was represented by a number of grangers. The usual fine exchange dinner was much enjoyed at noon.

This hard-to-suit age chooses Camel

MODERN people are hard to satisfy. But Camel has pleased them and they have made it the most famous cigarette of all time.

Present-day smokers are "tasty," and they recognize in Camel the choicest tobaccos grown, blended for smoothness and mellowness. Camel leadership in this modern world is an overwhelming tribute to the taste and fragrance of this quality cigarette.

Camel will prove itself to you. What a cool, satisfying smoke! When you try Camels, you will see why they are first and favorite with present-day smokers. "Have a Camel!"
