

Don't be A Barber Shopper

That "well groomed" appearance we all admire is achieved only by those who have learned the secret of consistently patronizing one good barber.

MORTICIAN

It is truly a sacred duty to give your loved ones the same kindly care afterwards that you gave before.

ARRANGE for clergyman and church service—whatever the denomination may be. Also singers and organist, and flowers when requested. All this is part of my sacred duty.

Nicely appointed chapel in connection with my undertaking parlors.

Remember: I offer a fine funeral without large overhead expenses.

Just a Year Ago Today

It is just a year ago today that I started a Savings Account with the Bank of Beaverton and today I have a neat balance to my credit. I'll tell you what, it does make a fellow feel good to know that he is ready to meet an emergency. It is so easy to start saving, and by following a regular savings plan it is easy to save. Better start saving.

Local Happenings

The Bethel Congregational Church will hold its annual Sunday school picnic on Saturday, August 20.

The grand jury returned a not true bill in the case of the state vs. Francis A. Phelps on a charge of disturbing a religious meeting.

Our office exchequer was fattened to the extent of $1.50 on Tuesday following a visit to our teller by C. P. Syverson, a valued Hazeldele subscriber.

Mr. H. A. Alexander and family accompanied by Mrs. Alexander's sisters, Miss Ida Alexander and Mrs. Woody, of Bellingham, drove the Mt. Hood loop Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Florence, of Huber, passed through Beaverton Sunday on their way to the Oddfellows' picnic at Tigard, he being a member of the Beaverton lodge.

Mrs. J. C. Huntley, of West Front street, was a pleasant caller at the Review office on Monday dropping in to have her subscription credit set ahead another year.

Check up another! G. C. Ruby, contractor and cabinet maker, of Huber, entered our office Tuesday afternoon with a check to our credit for $1.50, the open sesame to our subscription ledger. We are mighty glad to welcome G. C. as a new subscriber, he being a man after our own heart—generously large in both mind and body.

The "Three Link" association which consists of I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges from practically all over Washington county, will hold its regular quarterly meeting at the City Park in Hillsboro, Sunday, July 23. There will be a basket dinner, and those attending are expected to provide dishes for their party. Coffee and other refreshments will be served.

Manager Conolly, of the Beaverton branch of the 20th Century grocery, returned Monday from a vacation sojourn at the beach—all tanned and rarin' to go for another year.

Because of dry rot, the sills under a portion of the Gady building are being replaced. Contractor A. M. Hocken, with several workmen, doing the work.

Smiling all over with satisfaction and, apparently happy at the opportunity, Lewis Zimmerman, east of town, furnished the necessary substance to our treasurer this week for another year's subscription credit. Zimmerman being one of our appreciative readers. He's a jolly fellow, hail and well met, and we always get a "kick" out of his witty repartee.

C. W. Hagg, of Reedville, was awarded the contract for the hauling of the crushed rock, sand and gravel, for a new house and circular driveway at the Aaron Frank polo grounds near Garden Home. Mr. Frank is the owner of a very fine stable of both riding and harness horses, paying around $47,000 for an individual horse recently purchased in California.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jones and family, of Sacramento, California, are guests at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. P. Syverson, southwest of Beaverton. Since leaving home they have covered considerable territory, visiting many places of current and historical interest. Tomorrow they expect to make a week-end trip to Seaside and will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Syverson.

The International news reel featuring the R. A. Hanna mother rearing her baby at the Beaver theater last week made a big hit with the audience and those who failed to attend the showing are expressing keen regret, so favorable are the reports. The pictures were taken by Jesse Sills, a movie photographer of considerable prominence because of his skillful productions.

G. E. Miller, an eligible and likely looking bachelor out on rural route No. 3, dropped in on the Review force Monday morning and had his name added to our subscription list, responding to an urge rapidly developing into a veritable epidemic, if the large number of new subscribers who have been added to the Review family the past week can be taken as a criterion. Mr. Miller raises poultry of all kinds, much of his surplus stock being absorbed on the Yamhill (Portland) public market.

A sample of ever-bearing raspberries as large as ordinary strawberries was on exhibit at the office of Judge Swenson the first of the week. The berries were picked from plants on the Gosh place one-and-a-half miles south of town, the present tenant being a Mr. Jacobs.

P. M. Madden, local realtor, made the McMinnville loop trip Sunday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ryan, nephew and niece. Mr. Ryan is a contractor, at present doing the bituminous work on a stretch of road between Portland and Linnton.

Miss Dorothy Baker, Carlton, is a house guest of Joan Dence.

Charles Fry, Jr., Archie Masters and Elliot Carson motored to Newport beaches for the week-end, returning Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harris were entertained with their family and several guests at the Tigard Oddfellows' picnic Sunday.

Mayor W. E. Pegg was looking after interests west of the city of Yamhill, Yamhill county on Monday in connection with his realty business.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gady and family, of Aberdeen, Washington, have repaired to their home after a week's visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Della C. Fisher, here.

Frank Culver, proprietor of the Beaverton Sheet Metal Works, has the contract for the laying of a new roof on the Boyd building, and is now busy executing the work.

Byron Clement, Marion Munk, Junior Milleit, and Alred Johnson are back from the Citizens Military Training Camp at Vancouver, which was concluded last week. Byron and Marion each won a medal for marksmanship.

O. E. S. PICNIC
Picnic at Bain Grove, Sunday, July 24, for members and families of Beaverton Chapter No. 106, O. E. S. Coffee served, bring cups.

JESSIE C. PHARIS, Sec.
Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Berger, of Salem, were house guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Powell, on south Waison street. Mr. Powell is local branch manager of the Standard Oil Co., and before coming to Beaverton was located at the state capital in a similar position.

Frank Pulver, proprietor of the Beaverton Sheet Metal Works, and a consistent advocate and user of Palco roofing products has been awarded the contract of roofing a new house for John Gaarde at Tigard. Mr. Pulver does considerable of this work, having successfully bid on similar contracts for both Rossi buildings and the Tigard high school, besides many other smaller jobs.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Doering left Tuesday morning in their car for eastern Ore. on a two weeks' vacation trip. They expect to visit many old friends and relatives while on the trip, including a daughter of Mr. Doering's residing east of the Blue Mountains, in the locality where Mr. Doering first took up residence on coming to Oregon from Iowa, some thirty years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Desinger returned Saturday from a vacation trip to Mount Rainier. Mr. Desinger is engaged in the lumber business at Knappa, his wife being a sister of E. Hecox proprietor of the Little Brown Jug confectionery. While in Beaverton they are sojourning at the home of Mr. Desinger's father, Mr. William Desinger, just east of Lombard street on Second.

Mrs. J. M. Baker and two sons, Jimmie and Wilmer, of Klamath Falls, stopped to visit Mrs. Baker's father, G. E. Hedges, on her way to visit relatives in Colorado. They left Saturday morning via the Union Pacific, expecting to arrive at their destination Monday night. Mrs. Baker reports business conditions in Klamath Falls as extremely quiet.

Prof. L. L. Pratt of Pacific University was a caller at the Review office last Friday morning.

A picnic party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bernaud, Mr. and Mrs. R. Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wetherill, and Mr. and Mrs. Amel Nelson and children, motored to Ferguson's Camp on Pudding river, Sunday. From Beaverton it is nineteen miles, but somehow they got on the wrong road and when they reached the camp, their speedometers registered thirty-nine miles needless to say adding considerable zest to their appetites as they assembled around the festive board, which was amply supplied from several well-filled baskets.

Mrs. Otto Erickson entertained very pleasantly on Monday evening at a tuxedo party, reserving an entire row of logs seats at the Beaver theater for the second showing of "Don Juan." Those in the party beside the hostess were Mrs. Rainer Supe, Mrs. Robert Stammers, Mrs. George Blasser, Mrs. Henry Nelson, Mrs. William Boyd, Mrs. John L. Hummel, of Beaverton, and Mrs. Guy McCormack, of Garden Home. After the snow the ladies repaired to nicely appointed home of Mr. and Mrs. Erickson on the corner of Second street and Erickson avenue, where Mrs. Erickson served dainty refreshments followed by bridge.

Methodist

The Tent Meetings are on and are GOING STRONG. The attendance is increasing and it has from the very start. The interest is keen and intense. Dr. Cox is preaching powerful sermons of straight truth. If you like the truth you will like him. If you do not you will probably get mad as they did in the long ago at Jesus, because He told them the truth. They nailed Him, and put him to death. The thing you will be doing, if you take offense at the Evangelist is no different, basically, than the treatment accorded Jesus because of the words of truth he spoke. The Devil will be pleased and satisfied with you, for he will be assured thereby that you are in his kingdom, instead of in the Kingdom of the Lord, where Salvation is. Come and hear the truth: "and the truth shall make you free."

Services every night except Saturday. Next Sunday, July 24, Sunday school at 10:00, and preaching at 11:00 and at 3:00.

In the afternoon, Epworth League at 7:00 p. m. and preaching again at 8:00 p. m. The Primary Department of the Sunday school will meet in the basement of the church and the adult department in the basement of the Tent.
The Tent Meetings are now HALF gone. Come; do not miss them!

W. Edwin Ingalis, pastor.
