Ex-Gov. William Dorsey Jelks of Alabama told at a banquet in Talladega a story of the old South.
"A rich planter," he said, "took an aged slave to task one day for stealing a fat young turkey. The old fellow listened respectfully to his master's homily; then he said:
"But Ah hain't done yo' no harm, Mars Peyton. Ah jes' took dat 'ere piece o' property o' yourn an' put it in dish yere piece o' property o' yourn, dass all."
