

Local Happenings

V. A. Wood has left with his family for a vacation at the beach.

Guests at the home of Prof. and Mrs. I. R. Metzler are A. B. Crandall and daughter of Pontiac, Mich.

Miss Alice Miller of Beaverton has accepted a position as waitress on the night shift at the Whitehall Cafe.

Messrs. and Mesdames Wm. H. Boyd and J. E. Davis will leave Saturday on a vacation for southern Oregon coast points.

During the vacation of W. H. Boyd, mail carrier on route 2, his substitute, J. Jamieson, is taking care of Mr. Boyd's duties for Uncle Sam.

E. W. Woodruff, accompanied by his three daughters, Doris, Martha, and Billie, are making an automobile trip through the state of Washington.

Mrs. B. C. Short and daughter of Pasadena are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Kammerger and family, having arrived on Monday. The two families are friends of long standing.

Gordon Halsten, Lee Carr and Clarence Carlson, three disciples of Isaac Walton, returned Monday from a fishing trip to Big creek in Clatsop county. The boys report good luck.

Mrs. Mary Lang of Albany, who has been a Beaverton guest at the respective homes of her two daughters, namely, Mrs. C. E. Allen and Mrs. M. E. Underhill, has returned home.

Miss Evelyn Hite of the Yeager bakery, in company with Leland Ariss, of Tigard, motored to Rockaway Sunday, and spent the day with his mother, who is spending the summer at that popular ocean resort.

The Misses Anna Camenzind, Carlotta and Helen Shively, and a girl cousin of the latter from Los Angeles, were among the many who enjoyed a dip at the Riffles on the Tualatin, Sunday. The girls report the water "fine" and the day "merry."

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Barnes and family and their guest, Miss Carina Peterson, are home from a vacation sojourn at Seaside. Mr. Barnes is manager for the General Petroleum Co. here, and Miss Peterson is a stenographer in the office.

Frank Pulver was busy yesterday overlaying the shingle roof on the H. E. Hunt house with a composition covering. The surface is finished in a reddish brown, figured with black stripes and makes a very attractive covering, besides giving every appearance of durability.

C. D. Mapes motored to Rockaway on Sunday, being accompanied on his return by his mother, Mrs. S. Mapes, his brother Vernon, and Milton Boring, who spent the past week by the cool sea waves.

M. C. McKereher, former night truck operator at the local S. P. depot, but now stationed at Frisco in a similar capacity, is renewing Beaverton acquaintances. Mr. and Mrs. McKereher continue to retain their Beaverton home, the latter, with their son George, returning with her husband following a short visit with him at his California location.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Yeager and family motored to Centralia on Sunday to visit his sister, whom he knew only as a maiden. But to their surprise the young lady had appeared before Cupid's altar the day previous, and is now known as Mrs. Southworth. With her husband, Mrs. Southworth visited at the Yeager home here on Monday, while on a honeymoon trip to southern California.

Joe Richey, sidewalk contractor, is busy this week laying a cement walk from Angel street to Watson on the south side of First street, which may be continued down Watson to Second. Prior to this he laid a half block on Main street, connecting with two blocks west on First, 500 lineal feet over all. The new walks are four feet wide and greatly improve the general appearance of the streets.

Manager Conolly of the 20th Century grocery has been partially indisposed the past week with a rather painful infection in the sole of his right foot, caused by stepping on a nail protruding from a piece of board. The nail punctured the sole of his shoe before entering the foot. At first he gave the wound but passing attention. However, in a few days, infection set in, necessitating medical attention.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Brown, Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Morelock, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Morelock and family, left Sunday morning for Balm Grove to spend the day, but disaster accompanied them practically all the way, the sunshine in each car being changed to more or less sorrow by one continuous puncture after another. Wallace says he walked so much that toward evening he was more in need of foot balm than he was of Balm Grove.

Mr. R. B. Denney left Wednesday for Vernonia, to be gone several days on business.

Mrs. H. A. Ekstrom and Elva and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ekstrom spent the week end at Neskwon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Grant and son Robert of Garden Home were visitors Monday evening at the J. C. Huntley home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Woodruff and family motored to Tacoma, Wednesday, where they will visit Mrs. Woodruff's father.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Schuler, who were the guests of their daughter, Mrs. W. H. Boswell, for a few days, returned Monday to their home in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rhodes of Seattle and Mrs. Roy McEvoy of St. Johns were dinner guests Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Eggman in South Beaverton.

Funeral services of George Carl Breuning, father of Walter S. Breuning of Beaverton, were held Thursday morning at the chapel of Miller & Tracey in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Bainbridge and mother, Mrs. Ross, and Mr. and Mrs. John Bingham of Portland were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnes Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baikie and son John of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Spencer and little son Russell were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnes Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Oimstead and daughter, recently of Omaha, will make Beaverton their home. Mrs. Oimstead is a sister of Mrs. J. W. Sprague. Mr. Oimstead is in San Francisco this week attending a business conference.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd B. Tefft and daughters Helen and Thelma, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Anderson, and little daughter, and Mrs. Briggs spent the week end at Neskwon. Mr. Tefft and Mr. Anderson specialized in fishing.

Mrs. J. C. Huntley was the hostess at a family dinner party at her home last Friday evening. Her guests were her sisters, Mrs. A. J. Sutherland and Mrs. Louise Patton and her nieces, the Misses Betty Sutherland, Elizabeth Gray, and Mildred Simpson all of Portland.

Mrs. J. C. Huntley entertained the 500 Club Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. H. O. Stipe was a special guest. The members who attended the party were Mesdames Otto Erickson, Elmer Stipe, Robert Summers, Jessie Davis, Harry Hudson, L. D. Shellenberger, F. C. Peck, W. O. Roberts, Doy Gray, and Geo. Blasser.

H. H. Hawley, who resides west of Beaverton, but who conducts an advertising service at 208 Manchester building, Portland, is one of the latest to have his name enrolled among our subscribers. For some time Mr. Hawley has had two of his children attending our high school, and this fall his thirteen-year-old son will enter as a freshman.

A young attorney by the name of Kindig, stopping temporarily at the West Side Auto Camp, was in town last week with F. O. Howland, a realtor just east of Beaverton, looking over our city as a possible location. Although we are a peaceful and law-abiding community, the Review believes there is sufficient law business here to warrant the opening of such an office. Dig in, Kindig!

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Benson returned last week from Albany whither they went to attend the annual convention of the Watkins dealers association. Mr. Benson being the local representative, C. J. Rose, the Watkins man working out of Huber, was also present, being one of the thirty-six answering roll call. Mr. Benson says they had a delightful time at the convention, there being just enough entertainment interspersed with the business routine to keep everyone in the best of spirits. Special amusements were provided for the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Buckland of Hillsboro, Mr. Buckland being bookkeeper at the Carnation condensery motored to Beaverton Sunday for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Humburg and family, the latter being former Hillsboro residents, moving to Beaverton when Mr. Humburg purchased a blacksmith and woodwork establishment on the corner of Front and Main streets. In the afternoon the two families motored to Terwilliger Heights to inspect the Oregonian house. Mr. Humburg tells us the crowds were almost equal to a circus, it being difficult and hazardous to turn one's car in the traffic, the paving, which is none too wide, skirting the edge of the hill. However, he says that the house is an architectural dream, and well worth the effort to see.

Miss La Dona Underhill, who was the guest of her aunt in Albany, has returned.

Kenneth Armstrong brought suit in Judge Swenson's court the first of the week against Roy Mahler for the recovery of $192.

Mrs. C. Rosenstein of Toppenish, Wash., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Knorr for a few days. Mr. Knorr is proprietor of the Sanitary Market on Broadway.

Mr. and Mrs. Hatch and his sister, Mrs. Ketch and daughter of New York took an automobile trip to the ocean beaches this week.

Yes—it is hot!

R. H. Powell, local manager for the Standard Oil company, looks quite dimpled these days as he rides around in his Chevrolet coupe, which he has had generally renovated and Ducoed in a rich black.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott and family of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Woodruff and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Schone, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McKell, and Mr. and Mrs. William Young and son, picked at Dodge Park Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Laaswell and son Lewis Lee, Jr., spent Sunday at Shad-E Acres on the Pudding river, with the following Portland friends, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kern, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wolf, Misses Polly and Anita Leel, and Mr. John F. Forbes.

Freeman R. Rowe, a prominent member of our local social colony, spent Sunday with his parents a half mile east of Beaverton on the Canyon road. Freeman says it seems mighty good to get out in the sticks for a day of rest during this hot weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Drorbaugh and little son picnic at Lost Park Sunday, a playground that is becoming quite a mecca for Beaverton people, it being only three miles away just east of Cedar Mills. O. Tuesday Dewey was called to Portland on business.

Among the guests at Bobby's Barbecue since our last issue were Mrs. Barbara Lehr and daughter Helen, of Washougal, Wash., mother and sister respectively of Mrs. Hicks, and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hicks of Salem, papa and mama of P. A. himself.

The Review wishes to thank Messrs. George W. and Jess Baker for a fine bouquet of gladioli the first of the week this being the second time they have gladdened our front office with such a gift. Such friendly acts makes one feel that the brotherhood of man is still extant.

Two pretty girls, a Ford early vintage four flat tires a load of watermelons packed in 100 pounds of ice, was a passing event on Beaverton's Broadway at high twelve Monday. The ensemble was more or less local, but we refrain from mentioning names on pain of bodily harm!

Ed. F. Moore, secretary-manager of the Hillsboro Chamber of Commerce, was a visitor to our city Tuesday, making a pleasant call at the Review office while here. Mr. Moore also has charge of the concession for the Washington County Fair and says they are being signed up rapidly by prospective exhibitors.

Messrs. Frank and William Reed, members of the Reed-French Piano company of Portland were calling on their local dealer, N. G. Freeman, on Monday, and, incidentally, were checking up on several prospects. The Reed-French company is recognized as one of the most reputable piano dealers in the northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Baker, prominent farmers out in the Sorrento district, were indisposed for several days, the past week with an acute attack of stomach trouble, which is somewhat of an epidemic in that locality. Their sickness was sufficiently severe to necessitate the calling of a physician. We are glad to chronicle their recovery, although the ordeal left them noticeably weakened.

Miss Hazel Wentworth, proprietor of the Beauty Box, has moved her business to a location in the new addition to the R. Rossi building from the Hedge building a block east. Her new quarters have special conveniences for this particular line of work, making it possible to render a much superior service and at a great saving of time. Miss Wentworth has a large following of satisfied patrons, who claim that her work is equalled by few and surpassed by none.

When school opens next fall pupils of Progress district No. 18, southeast of Beaverton, will find that they are receiving water from a new pipe line that was recently constructed from a spring to the building. The budget report of constructing the pipe line, filed this week with the county school superintendent, at Hillsboro, shows cost approximately $100.

Henceforth there will be no water bills to meet and an unlimited supply of water will be available for the district.

Mr. Edward Roseman returned from Olympia last Wednesday.

Mr. C. C. Beach is in San Francisco on a business trip.

Robert Wood has accepted a position at the Thrift Grocery.

Miss Betty Huntley has returned from Moro.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Parker have returned from the coast.

Mrs. J. E. Davis has returned from a week's stay at Rockaway.

Mr. Dwight Fisher of Portland visited Beaverton friends Monday.

Mrs. Ray Mahler and her small daughter returned to her home from Wasco, Saturday.

Mrs. R. G. Kelly of Battle Ground attended the regular meeting of the Grange Saturday.

Mrs. W. R. Petch and Mrs. J. D. Wilnot left Wednesday to spend several days at Wilnot Springs.

Mr. W. O. Roberts, accompanied by his son Frank motored to Astoria on business last week.

Mrs. A. W. Butterfield from Corvallis was the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. R. Petch, last Friday.

Dr. J. R. Talbot and Dr. R. S. Welch are occupying their attractive new quarters in the new R. Rossi building.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Whitcomb and daughter Miss Helen of Portland visited Mr. and Mrs. L. Hall Sunday.

Rev. George N. Taylor's new home on the Canyon Road a short distance from Beaverton, is under construction.

Mrs. Carl C. Beach and a daughter Catherine and son Carl are visiting with relatives in Portland for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Roseman with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Roseman and little daughter of Long Beach, Cal., made the Mt. Hood Loop trip Tuesday.

Mrs. W. B. Carler of Seattle, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. B. Lawrence of Raleigh visited friends in Beaverton Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Patrick of Rainier were Beaverton visitors Sunday. Mrs. Patrick is a teacher in the Beaverton school.

Mr. Earl Evans motored to Port Townsend Saturday, returning Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Evans and niece, Eva and Elsie Whitworth, who have been visiting at Victoria and Port Townsend.

Mr. and Mrs. Davton Peck and baby, Mrs. F. C. Peck, Mrs. E. E. Swenson, Mrs. L. D. Shellenberger and family, and Mrs. R. L. Tucker and family of Hillsboro picked up at Balm Grove one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Raynard and children, Ruth and John, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Alexander and daughter Evelyn; and Mr. and Mrs. H. Alexander and son Harold returned last Thursday from a motor tour of Rainier Park and points north as far as Vancouver, B. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Pienovi motored to Portland Sunday to spend the day with Mr. Pienovi's brother, Henry. On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Pienovi had as a dinner guest ex-Judge Spurlin of Portland. Before her marriage, Mrs. Pienovi was a stenographer in the law office of Miss Spurlin, prior to the latter's appointment to the district bench by ex-governor Pierce. She was defeated by the republican nominee at the last election, subsequently resuming her private practice. She is a very sagacious and successful lawyer, and has several clients in Beaverton and environs.

For Sale—Guitar and case, $22; old violin $20; $65 phonograph for $12; banjo uke $8. These instruments are good as new. Also records, 20c each. Mrs. David Pitts, one mile south on Watson street. Adv. p. 38

Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Ingalls at the Methodist church this afternoon, Friday, August 19, at 1:30 P. M. over the remains of Alvin Pearson, aged 12 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Pearson. His untimely death occurred at Helix on August 16. Interment will be made in Crescent Grove cemetery, with W. E. Peggs, Beaverton mortician, in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Valmore Story and baby of Tacoma were expected to arrive in Beaverton yesterday for a week end visit at the home of his father, Chief A. E. Story. The Chief and Mrs. Story just returned home from an automobile vacation trip to Tacoma and other Washington points, being absent about a week. During their absence Henry Watts was looking after local police duties.

H. G. Daly and wife from Kansas City, and sister, Mrs. Ella Plummer from St. Louis, accompanied by a sister, Mrs. Lizzie Robinson from Portland, were visiting the B. F. Daly family over the week end. They made a trip to Longview last Wednesday, and went Monday to Klamath Falls for a few days. They plan to visit Crater Lake, and the Oregon Caves.

In our last issue we overlooked a party by the Afternoon Bridge club held in the Boyd grove a week ago Friday afternoon. Mr. Boyd had just erected new camp tables which the ladies initiated with an evening picnic dinner, to which their respective male connections were invited. The afternoon was spent at bridge, Mesdames Elmer Stipe and J. E. Davis tying for high score, with the latter winning on the draw. All present had a most enjoyable time, the delectable repast being considered, especially by the Present-day smokers find their sheerest enjoyment in Camels

THE people of this age spend millions for the good things of life. And they place Camel first among cigarettes.

Modern smokers make money, but when they spend it they insist on quality, and more people today buy Camels than ever bought any other cigarette.

Camel value has won the modern world. Money cannot buy choicer tobacco, nor a more glorious blending. That's why increasing millions in the modern age single out this famous smoke as their favorite. You, too, will find it yours.

"Have a Camel!"
