CHURCH SENDS CHRISTMAS BOX TO AFRICAN MISSION A Christmas box was mailed Friday by a committee from the Bethel Aid society, and Bible school of the Congregational church to Miss Minnie Tontz, a missionary from Portland, who is stationed in Chilore, Africa.

It will take about eight weeks for a package to reach the coast of Africa, and will then be taken inland for a number of miles by pack animals, as there are no roads inland to Chilore.

The local church was allowed 11 pounds, and more than the quota was donated. The box mailed contained various articles useful in the mission school and hospital.

PAST WEEK BUSY ONE FOR SCHOLLS PEOPLE Scholls, Ore., Nov. 3 (Special).—This past week has been a busy one, socially. On Thursday the Washington County Federation of Women's clubs met here, for an all day meeting.

Friday evening Mountain Side school gave a Halloween program and pie social, from which they cleared over thirty dollars.

Saturday evening the Epworth League gave a Halloween party. Those who wished to, were masked, and some there were surprised.

Dr. Oliver, vice president of Willamette university, was present, helping everyone have a jolly time. At church Sunday morning Dr. Oliver spoke, and very considerately gave those who had been at the "jamboree" permission to go to sleep while he talked, but needless to say, everyone was more wide-awake than usual.

FINE HAM GETS HIGH BID AT AUCTION NIGHT

When the bidding started Friday night at the Beaver Theatre's special between-show attraction, the first article to go "under the hammer"—figuratively speaking, of course—was an unusually novel bowl. Judge Swenson's ability as an auctioneer brought the offers up from a mere 25 shillings—the first bid—to the final 100, the bid that captured the bowl for William Mataka, Jr.

A large ham, one of the many articles donated by the local 20th Century store, was the prize attraction of the evening. After a spirited session of bidding, J. E. Hatch, proprietor of the Beaver Pharmacy, finally had it knocked down to him for 500 of the pseudo-dollars.

Another unusual feature of Friday evening's Auction Night novelty was a phonograph record that was twice eagerly purchased, twice unclaimed, and then was the object of numerous offers of purchase made to the manager after the evening's fun was over.

The management of the Beaver Theatre reports that they are well pleased with the interest the movie patrons are evincing in the new venture, and they prophesy that a record-breaking crowd will be present at the bidding tonight.

CHINESE MISSIONARY TO SPEAK AT CHURCH

Rev. Edwin D. Kellogg of Shaowu, Fukien Province, China, will speak next Sunday evening, November 6th, at the Bethel Congregational church.

Mr. Kellogg has served as a missionary in China since 1909, and he will be able to present some interesting facts about the present Chinese revolution and its effect on China and the Chinese Christian churches.

LODGES HONOR CENTENARIAN

Beaverton's Lodges Help Stage Social Affair Honoring "Uncle Jim" Whitford

Beaverton was well represented at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home at Forest Grove Saturday evening, October 29, in honor of the 100th birthday party of James (Uncle Jim) Whitford.

Uncle Jim was made a Master Mason 50 years ago in Brainerd, Minnesota. Since 1918 he has belonged at Cottage Grove. He is descended from a long-lived family, his father having attained the age of 108.

The program consisted of several musical numbers and addresses by the representatives of the Grand Master of Oregon, the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron. R. Frank Peters of Hillsboro represented the Worthy Grand Patron.

The birthday cake, which measured 5 1/2 feet across, was decorated with a huge Masonic emblem and sprays of sweet peas made of frosting.

"Uncle Jimmy" was printed around the border of the cake, which was a gift of the members of the Eastern Star and was presented by the president of the Eastern Star Cheer club.

The finale of the celebration was Dances of Yesteryear, the music being furnished by the Shrine band. About 11:30 "Uncle Jim" bade his 5000 guests goodbye, and received everyone's wishes of many more such birthdays.

Mrs. J. C. Huntley, Worthy Matron of Beaver Chapter, acted as one of the hostesses for the occasion.

CEDAR MILLS SCHOOL HAS HALLOWEEN PARTY

Cedar Mills, Oregon, November 3, 1927 (Special).—The Halloween party given in the new schoolhouse was well attended. The building was festively decorated for the occasion.

Mrs. Arns gave a very nice program which was enjoyed by all. A pie eating contest created lots of fun. A fishing pond was soon cleaned out and articles too numerous to mention, were carried home by the fishermen. Fortune were drawn from a large pumpkin for only a tick.

EPIC OF WEST STARS BLUE

Clyde Cook in Comedian and Leila Hyams, Heroine in "The Brute"

"The Brute," a Warner Bros. production starring Monte Blue, is the big attraction presented by the Beaver this week. Blue is splendidly cast as a slow-in-speech, quick-in-action cowboy of the days when the West was really wild and woolly.

Leila Hyams as the dance hall girl fought for and won by the Brute, is very lovely. Clyde Cook, known as one of the funniest comedians of the screen, is cast as Oklahoma Red, a prospector who strikes pay dirt, and well-cast he is.

Carroll Nye is another member of the large company, which includes all the motley hordes of the plains. "The Brute" is a real Western picture, a vital human document.

It plays at the Beaver Theatre Sunday and Monday, November 3 and 7.

The cafeteria was decorated in Halloween style. A large ghost stood near the door and three wooden soldiers stood guard with their guns while the crowd passed in line to get their refreshments.

A Grand March then followed, in which all Freshmen paraded across the stage and from there down to the cafeteria. The March was played by Billie Woodruff.

This program proved such a success that it has been decided to give it again as a public performance on November 18 at Beaverton high school. The second staging will be in the nature of a benefit performance, the proceeds to go to the local library.

NOVEL JACK-O-LANTERN APPEARS ON BROADWAY

At various times amusing creations and creatures made from fruits and vegetables appear in the window displays of the local shops. A jack-o-lantern on Broadway caused much comment the first of the week. It was a very interesting one, but he was not judging from his nose he had never complied with the 18th amendment, but his pearly teeth were seedy.

LOCAL SCOUT TROOP HIKES

Boys Journey To Lost Park For Overnight Camping Expedition

After assembling near the Congregational church at seven o'clock on last Friday evening, 10 scouts of Troop 14 started on their October overnight hike to Lost Park with their Scoutmaster and his assistant.

Some outstanding features of the hike were Paul's ever ready tests, the mouth organ music, the Scoutmaster's spook bottle that didn't work, the four match fire, the Walker brothers' well planned bed. Alden's marshmallows, the decided lack of sleep secured, and the early start back home.

The trip was thoroughly enjoyed by all who went. The November hike will also be held at Lost Park, in the splendid shelter that the scouts have built there. These hikes constitute the major portion of Troop 14's out-of-door program.

"Mr. Pim Passes By" is an extremely popular modern play, having been presented by several companies and school groups recently. It deals with the escapades of an absent minded wanderer who causes more consternation than anything else.

Miss Peterson has been popular in college dramatics since her entrance two years ago, having appeared in the sophomore class play last year as well as her sorority plays in both her freshman and sophomore years.

Death Strikes Girl At Work In Store

Gertrude Oberg, Employee At Olds Wortman & King, Heart Attack Victim

While at work in Olds, Wortman & King's department store, Portland, Gertrude Oberg was stricken with a heart-attack on Friday afternoon, October 27, and died instantly.

Fellow-employees state that Miss Oberg had gone about her duties as usual previous to the attack, and had given no sign of being at all indisposed.

The deceased lived with her mother and sisters on Portland, Rt. 6, and had a large circle of friends in this community.

OBITUARY

On June 5th, 1906, there was born to Charles and Hilma Oberg at Molalla, Idaho, a daughter, Gertrude Marie. She was the second child and daughter in their family of six beloved children.

When a child of four years she moved with her parents to Hoquiam, Wash., and later to Beaverton, Oregon, in which vicinity the remaining years of her young life were spent.

Here she attended grade and high schools. A splendid student, loyal and conscientious, she and her parents were justly proud of her scholarship.

For the past five years she had been an efficient and honored employee of Olds, Wortman and King, and it was there on October 27th, while engaged in her vocation, that the angel of death spoke to her, and she was gathered to that home above prepared for her by her Heavenly Father.

Gertrude's father passed away seven years ago. The eldest child, Mildred, having died at the tender age of one year, the widowed mother learned to lean upon the affection and companionship of Gertrude, who was then the eldest of her children.

Those who are intimate friends know how near and dear this daughter became to her mother, and what great strength and courage she gave to her. A home-loving girl, her companionship was also affectionately given to her sisters, Vivian and Margaret, and her brothers, Vernon and Hilme, who with their mother survive her.

Other than her bereaved family Gertrude has passed from a large circle of friends, old and young, who will miss the inspiration of her presence.

Her younger friends, particularly, will miss her association, for to them she was the ideal of gracious young womanhood, and was universally beloved.

God has not given us the understanding of the mysteries of life and death. We do not know why God called her from our midst. We can not see through the dark curtain of our sorrow and distress. But we know that the world is better because Gertrude lived herein.

MEZGER SCHOOL GIVEN SCHICK DIPHTERIA TEST

Dr. C. E. Mason gave the Schick test to the grade students of Metzger school last Monday. Only those students who had taken the diphtheria toxin-antitoxin last spring took this test.

The purpose of this Schick test is to determine the immunity or susceptibility of an individual to diphtheria. It has been found that if a person has 1-30 of a unit of anti-toxin per cubic centimeter of blood, he is immune to diphtheria. Many children and most adults have this amount of anti-toxin normally in their blood, and are therefore immune.

The Schick test is of practical value in determining the immunity to diphtheria of the public in general, but especially of the children of school age, in hospitals, institutions, and in homes during an outbreak of diphtheria. It will save a considerable amount of anti-toxin and avoid unnecessary sensitization of more than 65 per cent of the exposed individuals.

The test is also of distinct value in the active immunization of susceptible individuals against diphtheria, and in the diagnosis of clinically doubtful cases.

DEBATE IS INTERESTING FEATURE OF MEETING Hiteon, Ore., Nov. 3 (Special).—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Kleek were among those attending the meeting Wednesday of the Washington County Pomona Grange with the Green Mountain Grange at Buxton as hostess. The debate, "Resolved, that the Young People of Today are Facing Ruin," seems to have been one of the interesting features of the day.

We too believe that the negative should win.

Oregon hops have gone up to 25 cents a pound, with heavy sales.
