"Be yourself" if you just can't do any better.

If the ordinary sermon were only as deep as it is long!

It's so much easier to think of an alibi than to use one successfully.

Luck seems to stick closest to the man who doesn't believe in it.

A good liar and an audience of strangers make for an interesting evening.

When you lose your self-control you match your accident policy against stupidity.

Isn't it a misnomer to say that the doctor "treats" you when he charges ten dollars for the call?

The anarchist would abolish all the average citizen only those who interfere with his own liberty.

One distinctive thing about the young folks of today is that they never go to bed the same day they get up.

The trouble with the state of matrimony is that it too often attempts to endure half slave and half free.

The hands that write the million dollar check—once guided the plow, plied the shovel, or carried the dinner pail.

The fellow who sighs for the good old days makes a savage fuss if the daily paper happens to be twenty minutes late.

Those on the inside say Congress wants relief from the farmers quite as badly as the farmers want relief from Congress.

Many men who are struggling desperately to get rich might slow up if they'd look over the current list of rich widows.

Nature makes few mistakes; if she puts a generous amount of bone in the head it's because there is no other material available.

Suggestions to Californians: Don't require movie actresses to take their husband's name. It isn't worth while for so short a time.

No matter how badly the man who cut the wife has the satisfaction of reflecting that she kept some other woman from having him.

A fundamentalist in education is one who believes that the President of the Institution should receive as large a salary as the Third Assistant Coach.

He who wrote "Beauty comes we scarce know how" might have been greatly helped had he known that we spent one hundred forty million dollars for cosmetics in this country last year.
