Too Much Baby Food

HELPI

"John, dear," phoned the flapper bride, "I wish you would bring home some calendars with you tonight." "What the heck do you want with calendars?" he demanded. "Oh," she replied, "I've just heard of a date pudding that is awfully good and I want to try making one for dinner."

ABSENT-MINDED BARBER

"Shave or a hair-cut?"

Two in One
We had a fine canary.
We also own a cat.
We have no more canary,
But puss is now quite fat.

Meeting Man's Need

"You have made some wonderful explorations of ancient tombs." "I have," the eminent archeologist. "And I am inclined to think that the ancients would have contributed more to progress if they had paid less attention to private monuments and more to skyscrapers." - Washington Star.

Wages of an Arbitrator

"Dick and Dennis were quarrelling over which should have the bigger half of an apple," announced Mary, "but I soon settled it." "That's a good girl," said her mother. "Whose part did you take?" "I took both their parts," was the answer. "It was a lovely apple."

Never Saw a Locomotive

Critic—You have written a fine play. There is one scene in particular that even Shakespeare could not have produced. Author—You flatter me. Which scene do you refer to? Critic—The railroad accident in the last act.

Served Its Purpose

The Visiting Sheriff—When I was last here you had a prisoner who was on a hunger strike. Did he get anything by it? The Warden—Sure he did. He got so thin he slipped out between the bars and made his getaway.

DIDN'T TAKE A TONIC

"You say he was run down? Did he take a tonic?" "No, took an ambulance."

Lengthy Introduction

The chairman introduced a man who was renowned throughout the clan. We sighed, as he kept on his feet. "A chairman ought to take a seat."

Present

"Then we came to the lovely blue sea. Ferilhand stood under a pain and folded his arms." "Is that all?" "But I was in the arms that he folded." - Ulk Berlin.

A Sure Sign

"This must be planning to buy a new car." "Why?" "I see he's letting his wife drive." - Everybody's Weekly.

Fashion Notes

Mrs. Instille—The indications are that the narrow skirt will continue to be worn a great deal this season. Her husband—I'll bet they won't be as much worn as the men's old spring suits.

To Finish the Job

Esmeur—Pretty good, huh? you think? I made it for a cover design. Kritic—Now if you could only design a cover for the picture—

Easily Identified

The New Steno—I forgot to initial them letters. Shall I do it now? The Correspondent—Don't bother about it. I'll know they're your work by your fingerprints which show quite plainly.

High Spirits

The Reelkin—How much for freewater? Increase Grabbe—Well, rum has gone up so I'll have to charge you ten across a drink for it.

Off the Concrete

MIGHT HAPPEN TO ANY ONE

LUCKY, IF HE CAN

ALWAYS MAKE UP

"These actors are always fighting among themselves." "Means nothing—they always make up."

ITS FORM

She—What form has a kiss? He—If you'll consent to a round I think it would be square.

No Sale.

"You'll save money buying this car," asserted the enthusiastic salesman. "Yes, maybe," retorted the grumpy one, "but I've about made up my mind I'll save a great deal more by not buying any."

Putting Her Down

Mrs. Transit—You'll like to work here. You'll be treated as an equal. The New Cook—You'd better keep your place, ma'am. I won't tolerate no familiarity.

HOW TO REDUCE

First Bug—"What's the big idea? Second Bug—"I'm trying to take off weight and the doctor said to run around the block six or eight times a day!"

Television!

An aged lady, evidently up from the country, made a telephone call. Having finished her conversation, she left the booth. Ten minutes later she returned, and once again took off the receiver. "No, I didn't want a number," she explained. "But I left my umbrella behind just now; it is not here. I suppose you haven't seen it?"

Call Out the Guard.

Fond Mother (Just returned from afternoon bridge party)—I hope you children have been good. Young Hopeful—Yes, mummy. We let the bath run over and we're playing Niagara on the stairs.

His Preference

"And will you love me as much as this when we are married?" "Burling, how can you doubt me? I've always liked married women best."

SHARP, WITH ONE EYE

Jones—"The dressmaker is a sharp one although she has but one eye."

Smith—"Like her needle in that respect, isn't she?"

Pity the Poor Husband.

Widow (engaging man servant)—Yes, I want a person who will do any kind of labor in or about the house—run errands, work in the garden—in short, a man who will immediately and without objections do what I tell him to do. "Ah, lady, it isn't a servant you need. Only by marrying again will you find what you want."
