NOT PRUDISH, MERELY TECHNICAL

Miss de Colte—Here's my latest photograph. What do you think of it? Mr. Shutter (the amateur photographer)—Pretty fair. Little too much exposure, though. Miss de Colte—I thought it quite conservative. I've seen them cut much lower.

CAME TO NOTHING

Biggs—At last she has come to marry Reggie Sapp. Jiggs—I always said she'd come to nothing.

OH—H—H!

"Are those the two girls you dated up for us?" "Yep, some pippins, eh!" "Gosh! One of 'em's my wife."

ITS LOCATION

Sporty Gentleman—I'd like to see a golf club, please. Green Clerk—Yessir, there's one down the road about a quarter of a mile.

THEN HUBBY SMILED

Hubby—Why did the new maid attempt to serve soup before each course tonight? Wife—I haven't an idea. I particularly told her that soup must be served before everything, of course.

WHAT HE'D GIVE

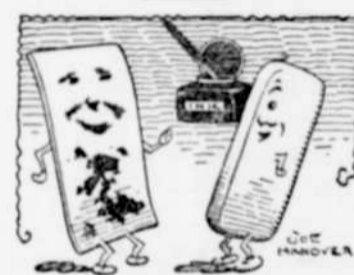

Poet—What will you give me for these poems? Editor (reaching for paper-weight after hasty perusal)—Just two minutes start.

GOT A BUM START

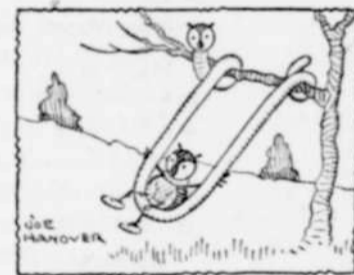

She (observing hobo)—Why should a young man like that every become a tramp? He—Got a bum start in life, I guess.

WELL, WELL!

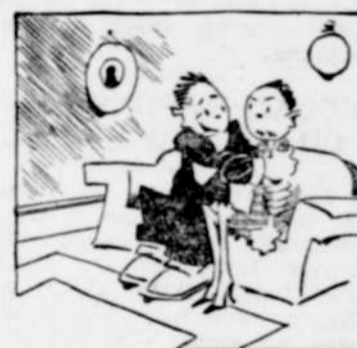

Eraser—How did you find the ink? Blotter—I found the ink well!

VERY NICE

Bug—Oh, Mr. Worm, how nice of you to let me use you for a swing!

NO HORSE-PLAY FOR HER

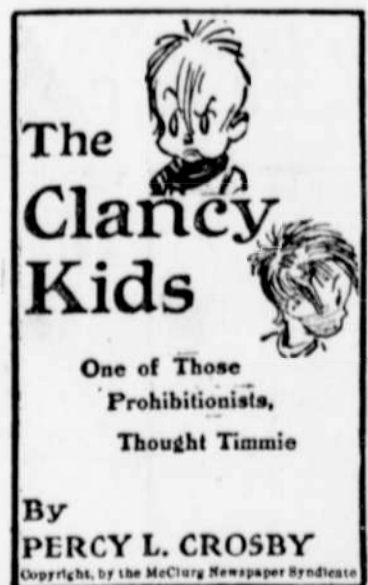

He (embracing her)—Let's get hitched, dear. She—Quit your horse-play, young man.

MICKIE, THE PRINTER'S DEVIL

The Amateur Poet

Why is a radio aerial like a pup? Because it picks up everything out doors and brings it in the house.

Fifteen-Two! My phone has rung three times and there's been nobody on the wire. Operator—Sorry, but we're playing cribbage and pegging the score on the switchboard.

Brown. Is she a wrestler? Daughter—Of course, not, mother. Why do you think so? Mother—I heard her say she threw another party last night.

Will Find Plenty to Do Blinks—I see it is predicted disease will be abolished in the next 50 years. What will doctors do then for a living? Jinks—Oh, they'll still be kept busy putting pedestrians together again.

UP AND DOWN down? Witness—Both, your honor—up and down.

Preparation Mother writes that she will be here tomorrow for a holiday, dear, announced Mrs. Jones one morning. Very well, said her husband, quietly. Patting his little son on the head, he said: Tommy, didn't you ask me the other day to buy you an air-gun, a trumpet, and a drum? Yes, dad, said Tommy, eagerly. Well, I shall bring them tonight.

OLD FOLKS SAY DR. CALDWELL WAS RIGHT

The basis of treating sickness has not changed since Dr. Caldwell left Medical College in 1875, nor since he placed on the market the laxative prescription he had used in his practice for 50 years. He treated constipation, biliousness, headaches, mental depression, indigestion, sour stomach and other indispositions entirely by means of simple vegetable laxatives, herbs and roots. These are still the basis of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a combination of senna and other mild herbs, with pepsin. The simpler the remedy for constipation, the safer for the child and for you. And as you can get results in a mild and safe way by using Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, why take chances with strong drugs? A bottle will last several months, and all can use it. It is pleasant to the taste, gentle in action, and free from narcotics. Elderly people find it ideal. All drug stores have the generous bottles, or write "Syrup Pepsin," Dept. BB, Monticello, Illinois, for free trial bottle.

Real Sea Beacons The lighthouse at Cape Race in the North Atlantic is one of the best-known beacons in the world. It is equipped with a flashlight of 1,100,000 candle power, which has been seen at a distance of 76 miles. The apparatus and inclosing lantern required to produce that result weighs 42 tons and cost $40,000. The fog siren at this lighthouse station has been heard a distance of 45 miles.

Braking Time Pearl White, the former movie star, was about to sail for her Paris home after a visit to America, and in answer to a reporter's questions she said: "It's safety first with the movie stars nowadays. Why, if they have to skip a rope they hire a double. It wasn't so in my time. "Yes," Miss White ended, "our movie stars aren't what they were ten or fifteen years ago. Some of them, in fact, are quite two years older."

Pigeon Made Time A pigeon beat a telegram from Hinsdale to Sanford, Maine, in a 100-mile race of the Sanford, Maine, Hacking Pigeon club. A telegram from Hinsdale stating that the pigeons had started was delivered in Sanford twelve minutes after the first bird had arrived.

Should Sunday clothes make you feel more religious, by all means wear them. A sad actor is sometimes the ham served with antique eggs.

It May Be Urgent

When your Children Cry for It

Castoria is a comfort when Baby is restless. No sooner taken than the little one is at ease. If restless, a few drops bring contentment. No harm done for Castoria is a baby remedy, meant for babies. Perfectly safe to give the youngest infant; you have the doctors word for that! It is a vegetable product and you could use it every day. But it's in an emergency that Castoria means most. Some night when constipation must be relieved—or colic pains—or other suffering. Never be without it; some mothers keep an extra bottle, unopened, to make sure there will always be Castoria in the house. It is effective for older children, too; read the book that comes with it.
