What Will you do

When your Children Cry for It

There is hardly a household that hasn't heard of Castoria! At least five million homes are never without it. If there are children in your family, there's almost daily need of its comfort. And any night may find you very thankful there's a bottle in the house. Just a few drops, and that colic or constipation is relieved; or diarrhea checked. A vegetable product; a baby remedy meant for young folks. Castoria is about the only thing you have ever heard doctors advise giving to infants. Stronger medicines are dangerous to a tiny baby, however harmless they may be to grown-ups. Good old Castoria! Remember the name, and remember to buy it. It may spare you a sleepless, anxious night. It is always ready, always safe to use; in emergencies, or for everyday ailments. Any hour of the day or night that baby becomes fretful, or restless, Castoria was never more popular with mothers than it is today. Every drugist has it.

Many Boone Descendants
Word from Kentucky indicates pioneer stock is not running out in this country. Nelson Webb, direct descendant of Daniel Boone, is the father of twenty-four children, including three sets of twins. There are two children by a first marriage, eleven by a second marriage, and the present Mrs. Webb is the mother of eleven more. We foresee a regiment of grand and great-grandchildren.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Town Honors Greeley
Greeley county, on the western border of Kansas, is thoroughly Greeleyized. Tribune, the county seat, is named after Horace Greeley's newspaper. Horace, the other principal town in the county, bears his Christian name.—Indianapolis News.

In order to succeed a man must appreciate the full value of his opponent's abilities.
Know all and you will pardon all.—Thomas a Kempis.

A Sour Stomach

In the same time it takes a dose of soda to bring a little temporary relief of gas and sour stomach, Phillips Milk of Magnesia has acidity completely checked, and the digestive organs all tranquilized. Once you have tried this form of relief you will cease to worry about your diet and experience a new freedom in eating.
This pleasant preparation is just as good for children, too. Use it whenever coated tongue or fetid breath signals need of a sweetener. Physicians will tell you that every spoonful of Phillips Milk of Magnesia neutralizes many times its volume in acid. Get the genuine, the name Phillips is important. Imitations do not act the same!

PISO'S
for coughs

Quick Relief! A pleasant, effective syrup—15c and 50c sizes. And externally—the PISO'S Throat and Chest Salve, 35c.

A Means of Escape

Office Boy—Two men outside to see you, sir. One is a poet and the other is stone deaf.
Busy Editor—Well, tell the poet that the deaf man is the editor.

Right!

Wilma—Dick claims he's invented something he's been offered a million dollars for!
Jack—I claim he's invented something!

BLOSSOMS, PERHAPS

Old Souk—"It takes flowers to make a nosegay, son." Son—"What did it take to make your nose gay, dad?"

Barnstormer Turned Sop

The police officer entered the cafe and with great dignity announced to a man at one of the tables: "Your car awaits without, sir."
"Without what?" retorted the rather loud-mouthed gentleman.
"Without lights," answered the cop. "Your name and address, please."

Good Omen

Mrs.—I think our new chauffeur is going to stay.
Mr.—What makes you think so?
Mrs.—He asked where the garage is.

Get a Horse

Prospective Buyer—Why this is highway robbery!
Realtor—I give you my word, sir, there's not a highway for miles around.

DAMAGED ARTICLE

Maggie—"I'm sure I possess Charlie's heart."
Jessie—"A damaged article is scarcely worth having." Maggie—

"What do you mean by that?" Jessie—"He said I had broken it."

In Favor of the Rich

Mrs. Multirox—How can you pretend to give me better bargains than you do any one else? You charged me a dollar a pound for bacon and sold the same thing to Mrs. Middleclass for 75 cents.
The Market Man—But, my dear madam, 75 cents was all the money Mrs. Middleclass had.
